PROHIBITION STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 7, 1891.

Dear Sir:

In the words of the prohibition song "We have you on our list." You were therefore among those who recently received our earnest, personal appeal for a subscription of some amount on the new monthly subscription plan.

We have not yet heard from you. It may be that you feel that you cannot pledge anything for the work this year. If so, we appreciate your deep interest in the work and your ardent desire to aid it to the utmost extent of your ability.

But we think it more probable that you have deferred doing what you had fully intended to do. Suffer us therefore to stir up your pure mind by way of remembrance of our postal card which reads as follows: "I will pay the Treasurer of the Minnesota Prohibition State Central Committee $ monthly, for one year, beginning when $100 per month shall have been subscribed." Name Address July 1891.

As we said in our former communication, we have appealed chiefly to those who have heretofore contributed to the support of our work. We would prefer that the burden of prosecuting the reform should rest on more shoulders. We have constantly striven toward this end and with increasing success. But our first aim, and yours, is to get the work done, and if some of those who ought to contribute will not, we can only appeal to those who have shown themselves willing, for the work's sake, to bear both their own burden and that of others.

You will be glad to see, in the accompanying issue of THE WORK that our appeal has met with a prompt and generous response. Nearly $100 per month have been subscribed the subscriptions averaging more than 50 cents per month each. Yet only 150 Prohibitionists have as yet been heard from. A subscription of even a moderate amount from each of the others to whom we made and now again make a SPECIAL appeal, would push the subscription, at full steam, beyond the one hundred dollar mark and on toward an amount more nearly commensurate with the magnitude of the work before us.

Subscriptions should be sent to Mr. Wells. Remittances should be made to Mr. Lawrence. Address as above.

W. J. DEAN,
W. M. LAWRENCE,
GEO. F. WELLS.

[Feb. 7, 1916]

Mr. Karli was in and wanted an itemized report of his account - and here it is attached. He thought he had about 200.00 coming to him, but I fail to find it. Report is made out from his daily reports and your books in conjunction, and checks in every instance except one item (Sept. 2 - 1916 1.00) for which I can find no entry. Do not know anything about it, so left it out in recapitulation.

Report of the Committee Appointed to Reappraise Assets.
To the Prohibition State Executive Committee.

Your sub-committee appointed to reappraise the assets of the State Committee find that we have on our books the following pledge assets:

- (a) 2,949 pledges taken for 1915
and 1916, aggregating $17,780.66
These pledges are fresh and many of them not due. We recommend that they be counted at 85% of their face value which equals $13,573.50
- (b) 696 pledges taken for the years 1913 and 1914, ag- 4,411.05
gregating
All of these pledgors have had statements about every 60 days, giving the amount due on their pledges. All these pledges are past due. We recommend that these be counted at 40% of their face value which equals 1,764.42
- (c) 524 pledges, aggregating 2,090.71
taken for the years 1911 and 1912. These pledges are over due and have received statements during the past four or five years about every 60 days.
They represent only those pledgors whose mail has not been returned to us as undeliverable. We recommend that these pledges be counted at 10% of their face value which equals 209.07
$24,282.42-$15,546.99

Personal Property. We find the following items of personal property listed in our assets for the amounts set opposite each item. We place after each item the present valuation which we think should be carried forward. All of these changes are arbitrary but based on our best judgment in the case.
