These are the "Shakers and the Movers" who put your Class of '37 MAHS REUNION together. They gave freely of loyalty, time, and talents, so we could all celebrate this great event, a big "THANKS" to all.

WE THANK YOU:

We dedicate this page to those who helped make our REUNION more beautiful, memorable, as well as joyful. The following were donors of generous cash contributions, that all may enjoy. Some of these people were also unable to attend. The Class of '37 is most grateful to them.

FRONT SHOWING ENTRANCE TO GYM. HOME OF SUNLIGHT DANCES

In Hollywood they call it "Credits", in our MAHS REUNION we call it "Hugs and Kisses" to our fantastic artist, Bob Jackels, who did the lovely covers for both our 45th and 50th Reunion Books.

A Bouquet of gratitude to Don Platten, husband of classmate Mary Jane Brensike Platten, the organizer, whose expertise was invaluable in making our last two reunions joys to be involved in.

GRADUATING INTO FIFTY YEARS OF HISTORY --

with Mabel Liedholm Bossard

It was Thursday, June 17, 1937. In the St. Paul Pioneer Press, the Joe Louis upcoming fight with Jim Braddock was big news, along with the reports on Amelia Earhart's attempt to fly around the world, while the front page headlines proclaimed "HOUSE PASSES TEN MILLION INCOME TAX BILL".

Foreman and Clark was advertising men's suits for as low as $15.00, and Maurice L. Rothschilds had ladies white suits for $3.95.

The Orpheum was showing Gene Raymond and Ann Sothern in "There Goes My Girl". And Fritzi Ritz and Joe Palooka were holding forth on the comic pages.

On page six, a headline read, "Mechanics Seniors to get Diplomas tonight." And here we are together again, fifty years later and many more headlines later.

The headlines that in a few years changed all our lives, "JAPS OPEN WAR AGAINST U.S. BOMB HAWAII SINK WAR SHIPS; YANKS BLAST CARRIER AND 4 SUBS FDR EXPECTED TO ASK WAR TODAY."

After much pain and anxiety, the headline that we all waited for, appeared on August 14, 1945, in big black letters that proclaimed "PEACE".

Sad days followed with the headline that read, on November 22, 1963, "ASSASSIN KILLS PRESIDENT KENNEDY".

Jubilation and almost disbelief on July 22, 1969, the headline read, "U.S. PUTS 1st MAN ON MOON".

Since that June day in 1937, we have seen many historical events, such as wars, start of the space age, and even the advent of the computer, which stores all facts programmed into it, and sometimes, it seems to even think for us.

But no machine can feel the precious memories we have of our high school days at M.A.H.S., be it of our class advisor, Elizabeth Moriarity, our principal, Dietrich Lange, our newspaper, "The Cogwheel", our Junior/Senior Proms, our Sunlight Dances, and cramming for our finals, even our Junior Talks, that most of us dreaded. Too many wonderful memories to mention them all.

So now we celebrate our GOLDEN REUNION together, but sadly, we mourn our classmates who are no longer with us. We salute them, and we salute each other.

*Precious Faces Flash Before Us,
 Treasured Memories Come To Mind.
 We Read Your Names and Remember
 We Are The Friends You Left Behind.*
