Inscribed to the Memory of our Departed Brothers & Sisters of the Prince Hall Masonic Family

They have left upon the earth a name
The Company and the building
They have resigned the earthly race
For brotherly love and peace
They left their work of earth
The company is left the faithful wife

No one here will ever forget
When they were here and well
Soft as the whisper of a rose
One by one our loved ones fall
But the memory of each loved one
Will be a treasure of the soul
And when the day comes
Tell me you will not forget

*They have laid aside the trestle board;
The Compass and the square;
They have resigned the purple robe,
For brother raiments there;
Their toil o'er their work is done,
The capstone is laid, the triumph won.*

*No one hears the doors that open
When they pass beyond our call;
Soft as the dropping petal of a rose,
One by one our loved ones fall.
But the memory of each loved one
Like the fragrance of the rose,
God sends to linger with us
Till our own lives door shall close.*
