cert Friday in Mears Park. Holding Wells is Elle Zulaul of St. Paul. The arts and crafts festival continues today and Sunday.

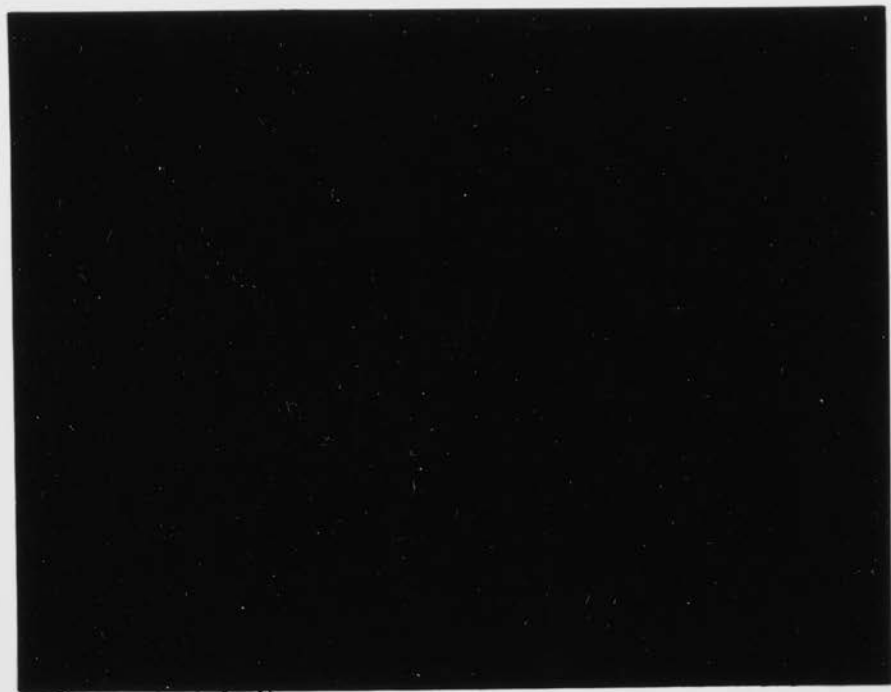

Mears Park will swing this weekend

Mears Park will be hopping this weekend when Lowertown Festival '88 gets started Friday and ends Sunday. Arts and crafts exhibits, a dozen popular eateries and some of the Twin Cities' best live music entertainment will be featured throughout the three-day event.

Festivities will begin Friday at noon with Limited Warranty in concert, and will be followed by performances from Salsa Blanca, Voice Trek, Lamont Cranston and The Wallets. Mary Jane Alm, Rhea Valentine and Ipso Facto will be featured during Saturday's ongoing entertainment lineup from 11:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. Family entertainment and big band jazz sounds will be offered Sunday from 11:45 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Below-ground parking, accessible from Fifth Street, is 75 cents after 5 p.m. weekdays and all day weekends at Galtier Plaza, across Sibley Street from Mears Park. For more information, call The Connection at 922-9000.
