Pep Meeting: Last Friday afternoon the cheer leaders for the coming athletic season were chosen by the high school pupils.

The"go-to-sleep" and "raise-your-hand" method of voting, introduced by Mr. Larson, was used.

Helen Jacobson and Bernard Johnson received the largest number of votes by a large majority. (This according to the boy who "peeked".

They were given an immediate opportunity to demonstrate their ability as worthy leaders in the pep meeting which followed and proved very satisfactory.

October

Senior Assembly Program: The feature entertainment of the Senior's assembly program last Thursday afternoon was a clever and exceedingly amusing pantomine by seven girls, depicting the troubles of a royal family. A great deal of variety was diffused into this program however. Lucille Heppie and Margaret Johnson gave a pleasing musical reading of Indian life, and Melvin Quale provoked much mirth by his humorous story of "A Mother-In-Law". Rosella Deason played a piano solo and we had some peppey assembly singing under the guidance of Miss Carlson.

(From Sebeka Review, Oct.30, 1931): Assembly Meeting Schedule Planned.

Arrangements have been made to provide some form of entertainment, educationla or otherwise, for the high school assembly every Wednesday afternoon. Various classes will successively present programs planned by a committee under the supervision of the class advisor.

One day has been set aside for the Girls' Glee Club to entertain; on various other occasions the entire assembly will sing, led by Miss Carlson.

Holidays will be recognized by entertainments similar to those which the classes will present, under a committee, only the entire school will participate.

Probably one of the most interesting and educational will be talks upon various vocations by local business men, and illustrated lectures. It is hoped that every one will cooperate in carrying out this schedule.

High School Hears Lecture: On Monday morning, October 26, Paul Sheak, a well-known lecturer, memory artist, musician, and acrobat, entertained the high school assembly. He lectured on wholesome living and gave interesting physical and mental demonstrations as well as selections on the Hawaiian guitar, ukulele and musical saw.

Mr. Shiek warned the young people of the dangers of smoking, drinking and other bad habits, emphasizing that healthy living was a most necessary asset toward success of individuals of all ages.

He pictured to his audiende the predicaments into which young men and women are drawn for the sake of being "modern" and following the thoughtless majority.

Using himself as an example, he demonstrated how the mind, under the proper care, could be developed. He could recite the correct number of inhabitants of any state in the Union or any of a large number of figures reaching far up into the millions if told the corresponding number as arranged upon charts.

The entertainment was highly instructive and educational and was enjoyed to the utmost by the students.

Navy Day Program.

A very interesting and educational Navy Day Program was given last Tuesday, Oct.27, in assembly. The items of the program were:

"The Star Spangled Banner" by the assembly.

Slides showing various ships from the United States Navy, and their equipment. Explanations by Eleanor Sikenkranz.

"Our Navy and It's Needs", a reading by Elino Hyrkas. This dealt principally with the upkeep of the Navy and the important disamrmaent problem.

"So Be the Life of a Sailor Boy", a play, by three boys. This showed in a very amusing way the every-day life of the sailor boys at sea.

"How Prosperity Comes to a Sailor Boy," a very clever and comical original story by Edna Peterson.

Slides showing various ships of the Navy. Pictures of submarines, navy planes, and scenes from the sailors'lives, as well as ships held for repair, and burning navy vessels added to the interst of this number.

Armistice Program

Tuesday, November 10, an Armistice program was enjoyed by the assembly.

The program consisted of "The Star Spangled Banner", which was sung by the assembly; reading, "The Holy Wreath", by Alice Turnbladh; "America" by the assembly, and a number of slides of the World War.

"The Holy Wreath" was undoubtedly one of the star features of the program. The vivid account of a soldier boy's life in the trenches arrested the attention of the students to a striking degree.

Pictures of trench action, military parades, artillery, infantry, and engineers taken during the World War effectively portrayed the equipment and the nature of the combat "Over There". Those of field hospitals, ambulances, zeppelin wrecks, the results of German bombardments, and our wounded heroes, exposed the destruction which can be done by modern methods of warfare.

Junior Assembly Program

The Junior class gave a very interesting program in the assembly the first period last Wednesday.

The outstanding feature of the entertainment was a short play, namely, "And The Lamp Went Out". The characters were the five members of the class portraying the difficulty of the girl in choosing between two devoted suitors. It was very cleverly rendered and contained quite a bit of humor. Clara Woshek did extraordinarily well, acting as the mother of the charming heroine.

The class shows decided musical talent. A saxaphone solo was played by Gregg Nelson; and a piano solo, "Moonlight Reverie" by Isabel Eitel. The audience thoroughly enjoyed a duet of Mildred Niska and Helen Nolmen, namely, "I Love You Best of All".

A humorous reading, "Yulius Got a New Yob", was cleverly read by Emerald Swanson. "No Trains Today", a short humorous skit, closed this exceedingly amusing program.

Last Wednesday, January 10, Doctor E.A. Lodnell delivered a very excellent speech on "Medicine As a Career", in the High School Assembly.

Three important views of the medical creer were fully discussed and explained. Namely, the education, including the finances and diligence necessary for acquiring it; the hardships and disappointments of practice; and the excellent opportunity for helping humanity afforded by doctoring.

The advancements of Medical Science, the added requirements in regard to education, and the future outlook for the medical practitioner were also placed before us in such a way that all could easily understand.

Nursing, in connection with the girls,was spoken of also, and highly recommended to those so inclined, either as a career to which the entire life be devoted, or as training which would be highly valuable to them later in life as home-makers.

This program was fostered by the sophomore class, featuring the ability and talent of same.

The first number was a piano solo by Violette Koyonen, entitled "Whispering Hope". The next number was a comedy skit, "A Pair of Lunatics", Glenn Jackson and Ruth Breckenridge impersonating.

Next the mixed quartette, Gladys Niska, Emma Schulz, Blair Nelson, and Verdi Mattson sang "Good-Night Sweetheart".

The next entertainment was original themes by members of the aforementioned class. "Aunt Hannah's Visit" written and read by Cecelia Kyrola, and "Why I Quit Eating Candy", by Ben Mattila, both contained much humor.

The concluding feature was a Jewish comedy act presented by Virtue Sanford and Beatrice Brownell and entitled "Vait a Minute".

Last week we had two very interesting assemblies. One of them were given by the boy scouts. The theme of it was that there was an accident caused by some liquor-stricken driver. The play took place in a hospital where the operations were performed. Besides this a violin solo was given.

The other assembly was a demonstration of dry ice and liquid air. The experiments were wonderful. You should have heard the ball crack after it was bounced on the floor after being dipped in dry ice. This was only one fact of what dry ice and liquid air can do.

The Junior High students have their assemblies on Wednesdays. On October sixth slides on Tuberculosis were shown.

Mr. Reishus answered football questions also.

Junior High Assembly

Very interesting football pictures were shown Wednesday, October 20.

On October 27, Mr. Larson discussed elegivility for the various activities. Slides on General Science were shown. A few songs were sung and cheers were led by Raymond J., Donald S., and Leonard S.

Last Thursday we were most graciously entertained by Mr. Larson and his business training classes. These classes are studying that phase of work which deals with communication - hence the movie on telephones was presented by our local telephone manager.

Few of us realize how much goes into the telephone itself and also the things which make this device possible, such as the exchange boards, the wires, placement of wires, an d others too numerous to mention.

We are very indebted to those who made it possible for us to witness this very educational and interesting movie, and we also hope that we may thus be entertained in the future.

Prior to this assembly, we were entertained by the Seniors who presented an amateur hour which wa conducted by Major Bowes himself (VerdieWhierima to you) from station N.P. & S. - Nimrod, Paddock and Sebeka. Alright! Alright! The gong? Yes, it was present also and a member of our younger generation, Mr. Bach, was rudely interrupted by the same when he was so sweetly peeling forth the strains of "She'll be coming round the mountains when she comes." Professor Harry Sanford related his assay on frogs and told us what a wonderful little bird the frog are. Mr. Weiss, what have you been telling these people in Biology? In addition to this we found that there (renowned) was muhh more talent in the Senior class. Few of us knew that Joyce Johnson was [illegible] as a choral director. What's that you say - Boots, boots? Florence O, Ardyth and Vivian H. entered with clown suits. No clowning about it,though,'cuz' they can tap. Dorothy O'Neil sang the Log Cog Labin Wullaby. Beg Pardon! She says that it's the Log Cabin Lullably. And believe you me - shedid miracles with it too (singing I mean) Joyce Paulson and Ervin Miller played their respective instruments, which was enjoyed by all - yes, even the gong! The Hendrickson sisters also sang-- must be sisterly love which prompts them to sing so beautifully together.

Afer the Major Bowes' program the Seniors presented a skit which ended in Mr. E. Miller and Miss M. Lloyd entertaining plans for marriage and wondering how they were to pay the bills Miss Mae had made. Yes, Mae's grouchy father, Ray R. had presented Ervin with Mae, bills and all. However, it was only a skit, so breathe easily, Ervin.

On Wednesday, November 10, we had an assembly in reference to the Armistice Day.

The program began with a few selections played by our band. Woodrow Timo read a selection, also Leslie Beldo, Ardelle Pearson, Sheldon Solmondon, and Joyce Johnson. Miss Oscarson read an article on war and brought out the pint that it was only nineteen years ago since our last graat war,and that again we have war in Europe. Mr. Bach lectured on war also. Ervin Miller played taps for us. The group sang two songs, "America", and "The Star Spangled Banner".

Friday during our auditorium period we saw slides that pertained to biology.

On November sebenteenth, we were entertained by the Juniors. They gave short skits on their play, "Ann of Green Gables", or rather the different characters were introduced. Don't forget to come and see the play. Another interesting factor were the slides on safety. They were actually talkies showing the many different hazards caused by carelessness.

On Friday afternoon, December 3, during our auditorium period we both (Junior and Senior High School) had an assembly. It was designated to be the closing of our football season and the beginning of our basketball season.

The band played several selections. Our cheer leaders led us in a few yells. Various faculty members gave short impromptu speeches on the coming basketball season. The basketball and football players were complimented through our yells.

Last Friday during our auditorium period were shown some slides on various games. Miss Kovanieme explained them to us. Mr. Reishus announced the basketball games that will be held in the future. The last number on the program was our yells. We tried to get acquainted with some new ones.

******

On Wednesday forenoon, January 19, we were presented some very interesting movies on our Minnesota state parks. It is interesting to note that there are great prospects for a real vacationing in one of our parks. The pictures showed some wild game in our northern woods, and we can't forget that there are ten thousand lakes in our state.

On January 28, an assembly was held for the Senior High. We were all held in suspence as the participants in the declamation contest gave parts of their declam. We discovered that we would have to wait until the coming Monday to hear the rest of their declams. High lights of assembly:

Miss Oscarson explaining the contest and introducing the contestants.
Mr. Weiss enjoyeing Miss Jordan's company and giving a speech on B.B.
Mr. Reishus "complimenting" the boys' basket-ball playing.
Miss Jordan's conception of B.B. from the spectator's viewpoint.
Yelling and Singing.

Junior High Assembly

Because Mr. Larson was gone, Mr. Reishus took charge of the program made by Miss Jordan and Miss Kovaniemi. It was as follows:

Frances Neldner---------flute solo
Mary Ellen Bensend------tap dance

Robert Tullis-----Song accompanied by guitar
Miss Kavaniemi----story
Ardis Aho---------flute solo
Lester Skalisky---mouth organ and jig.

After having a very good time, plans were made for next Friday's auditorium period.

On February eleventh, our teachers at assembly gave speeches on Abraham Lindoln. Miss Oscarson related an incident which occurred during a court session which Lincoln attended. This anecdote revealed the humorous quirk in Abe's nature. Mr. Reishus gave a glowing tribute to him, and also to everyone's mother. And a s a climax we heard the winning declamations, given by Clayton Hatlestad, Joyce Johnson, and Myron Paulson..Honest, Joyce, I'm still crying!

******

Your pep! Your pep! Your pep!

We were greeted by the music of the band, under the capable leadership of Mr. Bach, as we marched down the steps to the auditorium on February 15. The band continued playing a few numbers as we found places to sit.

Mr. Larson opened our assembly with a few remarks, and then called on Mr. Reishus, who gave a rousing pep talk about the coming game between Menahga and Sebeka.

Miss Hall celebrated her first visit to our assembly by her pep talk. She guaranteed to help with the cheering at the game. Come again, Miss Hall.

Miss Oscarson contributed Billy Matta as her share.

The origin of basketball playing was told us by Mr. Bach.

Miss Kovaniemi likes the cheering and produced her new sendations from the Junior High School: Mary Ellen Bensend, Doris Neldner, and LaVon Steldk to show their skill.

Mr. Weiss informed us why some nationalities can't play B.B.

Mr. Bach also volounteered to do some cheering and wished Mr. Reishus pleasant dreams.

We left the assembly with cheers and singing still ringing in our ears.

Last Thursday wex were entertained by Mr. Kelly from the Conservation Dept. of Minnespta. His lecture was very interesting and no doubt we all laughed till we could do so nox more. Besides this, Mr. Reishus gave us a short report on our basketball game at the tournament. The band also brought out its numberous numbers.

Friday we listened to a debate, Juniors versus Seniors. The Juniors took the affirmative side while the Seniors prodeeded with the opposite. The negative side won. Both sides gave some very good points which showed that they had read on the subject which was, resolved - "That the United States Should Have Socialized Medicine." They gave five minute speeches and three minute rebuttals. The superiority of the Seniors has been proved again. A violin quartet composed of Joyce Paulsen, Lucille Hartfiel, Clayton Hatlestad, and Leslie Beldo, and accompanist Arleen Nade, proved to be very entertaining.

Junior High Assembly

Friday morning we had a very interesting assembly. We sang several songs. Mr. Reishus gave us a talk on the basketball tournament and then we had our program. The fresheman class was to provide a program. They ahd a "Professor Quiz" program. Mr. Reishus was Progessor Quiz and there were five contestants: Bernice Hepola, Raymond Jackola, Helga Siltala, Betty Stoskopf, and Wilbert Tolpi. Betty Stoskopf answered all questions correctly. After that was over Beatrice Miller gave her declam and then it was twelve o' clock.

Senior High School Assembly

Thursday at 11:00 both the Junior and Senior High School pupils took part in an interesting assembly program, where music was provided by the glee clubs and band. The band played several of its festival numbers, and the Junior Boys' Chorus, Junior Girls' Chorus, Junior Mixed Chorus, and the Senior Mixed Chrous, sang their musical festival numbers. Discussion was also held concerning the band festival at Wadena.

The day before the Band Concert we had a Junior and Senior High Assembly in the afternoon. Dis we have fun? I should say we did! It lasted almost all afternoon. What all happened? Oh, the orchestra played several numbers, and the student body sang some songs. What else? Well, Mr. Larson gave a talk on report cards and marks, and Mr. Bach stirred up our musical interests by telling of the violinist and harpist who are coming here on May 4th to give a concert. Miss Jordan also told us something about the two men.

It was courtesy wee; therefore Mr. Larson asked Miss Hall to give us a talk on courtesy. Was it good, did you ask? Yes, it certainly was. After that some of the students brought out their very best manners. Follwoing that Mr. Weiss told us what the eighth grade was doing in their activity class. The Orchestra played a few more numbers, which ended our assembly. What time was it? Oh, it was 3;30 and we only had a half hour of school left. Oh yes, I forgot to tell you that Mr. Larson told us what all happened at the B.B. tournament in the cities. We certainly did have an enjoyable time.

On Friday morning we began our assembly by singing Mr. Bach's favorite piece, "Jingle Bells" and Mr. Reishus' favorite, "Yankee Doodle". We were shown movies on Safety. Mr. Bach gave the band and orchestra members tickets to sell for the condert on Wednesday.

Senior High Assembly

Friday afternoon the assembly began by singing several songs. Miss Jordan, Miss Oscarson, Mr. Bach, and Mr. Weiss all gave some comments concerning the concert which is to be held Wednesday evening, May 4th. All of these speeches were interesting, especially Mr. Weiss' when he told us how fond he was of music, and how he'd surely be there to enjoy it all.

We also had some slides on car driving and safety which were interesting. These slides were made possible by the American Legion.

Junior High Assembly

Our Junior High Assembly opened with a song by everyone. We sang several songs throughout the program accompanied by Miss Englebretson.

Mr. Reishus, Mr. Hultgren, and Miss Englebretson gave short talks about football, band, and Glee Club. Mr. Hultgren intends to organize a Baton class soon.

Senior High School Assemblies

The Senior High students attended their first assembly of the new school term on Friday, Sept.9. The "ball started rolling" when the student body sang several songs. Mr. Larson called on a few faculty members for short talks. Mr. Hultgren chose a miscellaneous subject and presented a very interesting talk. Don't you remember? Mr. Weiss spoke on--let me see. I've bothered my exhausted brain for several precious moments and come to the conclusion that the subject must have been "fishing"! Am I right? Miss Benson spoke on dramatics, and Miss Langguth on the commercial courses.

With no more teachers in sight, the speaking business shifted to the student body. Woodrow Timo gave us a bright idea in judging the size of Mr. Weiss' vocabulary. Several of us -- I am sure -- wondered what language he had so recently adopted. Points on eastern U.S. were given by Beatrice Miller.

It was dedided at this assembly that the Senior Class present a program on the following Friday, so--

On Friday, September 16, the second assembly was called. An interesting radio skit was given with the following taking part: Norma Buckley, Florence Salmela, Dorothy Neldner, Beatrice Miller, Alice Lyman, Leone Nelson, Elmer McCormick, Joel Nelson, Clayton Hatlestad, and Woodrow Timo.

A Junior and Senior High pep assembly was held Friday, starting when Old Father Time slowly moved the hands of the clock to the eleventh hour.

The Sebeka High School Band under the direction of Mr. Hultgren played several numbers, and our cheer leaders led us in several yells.

Miss Engebretson led us in our school songs at the opening of the assembly.

Mr. Weiss gave a short talk; the topid was "Remember Perry"! Mr. Ruoff and Mr. Reishus gave short talks. Several teachers remarked about their pay checks.

I'm sure we will all look forward to our next pep meeting. Remember the boys need our support, and let's show them that we have what it takes to cheer them to victory!

Final Football Pep Assembly Held

Our last pep assembly for football games was held on October 26 when the last game of the season was played here.

The guest speaker of this assembly was Dr. Grogan of Wadena. He spoke ver interesting of the game that was to be played in the afternoon.

Musical selections were given by Mr. Hultgren and Miss Engebretson. There were also several selections given by the band.

The assembly closed with CHEERS for this year's footballteaam.

With the peppy strains of the march, "Royal Guards", played by the Sebeka High School Band, our pep assembly opened on Oct. 21.

Mr. Reishus again read his football list and gave a short talk concerning the oncoming game. Miss Engebretson announced the posting of the permanent glee club lists, and Mr. Weiss discussed the games of football Sebeka has played, has not played, and should play. A talk on Human emotion was given by our Superintendent, Mr. Larson.

We all recall the day when one of the boys of the football squad broke his leg, and during this assembly some of us saw him for the first time since his serious injury. Mr. Reishus and the "hard luckchamp", Perry Matta, presented us with an interesting discussion.

Armistice Day Assembly
"Right is Greater than Might"

Armistice Day dutifully called for assemblies of student bodies, and our school was one of the many that met to remind each of us that people didn't celebrate the day war opened, and the there was joy and thankfulness on November eleventh when the soldiers were ordered to lay down their arms.

Pastor Buckingham,of Wadena, was the guest speaker, presenting such an interesting discussion pertaining to Armistice Day that many of us, in imagination, were living the things which he spoke.

The ban played several numbers and the school body sang"America", "America,the Beautiful", and"The Star-Spangled Banner".

Let us remember, as Rev. Buckingham said, "Right is greater than might!"

Pep Assemblies Held

The first pep assembly which was introduced the basketball season was held on December 7, the day of the game against the hardfighting Nevis team.

All routine announcements were immediately taken care of,and even though some of the hour was spent on talking about other things, the basketball conversation seemed to"stick out" all over. That "basketball fever" that everyone gets at this time of the year passed from one to another until finally everyone had caught that exciting feeling.

Miss Keever, State Supervisor of the Home Economics Department, was also present at this meeting. We had the opportunity of having our first basketball cpatain introduced to us, namely Billy Johnson-- a salute to you, Bill!

Did you natice that new number the Band played: No, we didn't have cold feet and try to warm them; neither were trying to represent noises made by Coxy's army-- we stmaped our feet because the band book told us to do so. Finally Mr. Hultgren succeeded in drwing the whole student body into those spasmodic movements.

Miss Langguth, Miss Anderson, and Miss Flaig presented short talks and so this pep assembly continued to the next which was held on December 19, Friday.

Immediately following the opening numbers by the Band, we went through the practice routine for the time when the boys would appear on the floor before the game opens.

We were very happy to hear that the Band Rating Concert will be held in Sebeka this year. Mr. Larson also gave us another statistics concerning extra-curricular activities.

Although many of us were not able to witness the game at Nevis we obtained quite an idea of what it was like through Mr. Reishus, Mr. Ruoff, and Perry Matta.

Miss Engebretson added her little bit to this assembly, too.

Mr. Hultgren and Mr. Reishus--those two "enemies"-- added their bit, too. You'll see it elsewhere.

The last minute instructions for that night's game with Mrx Motley were given by Mr. Weiss.

Three o'clock, January 12, 1939, found the Senior High students gathered for an assembly. The opening musical numbers consisted of our three School Songs, Love's Old Sweet Song, and Dixie.

Routine announcements were immediately taken care of after which we welcomed two new students--namely, Marion Norton and Reynold Martini.

The chief thought of this assembly was first aid and safety which was stressed by our county nurse, Miss Blair. Talks concerning this subject were also given by Mr. Reishus and Mr. Weiss.

On January 13th another pep assembly was held, and if it did influence the game any, we were successful in overthroowing Friday the thirteenth, and can now consider it a lucky day.

Talks by several members of the faculty concerning declamations, basketball, character-traits, carbon monoxide, and such were presented.

Our pep assembly on Friday, January 20th was due to our game with Menahga which was to be played that night. Again our practive cheering, pep talks, and pep songs aided in carrying another victory for the team.

The pep assembly on Tuesday, January 24, brought to us a former member of the faculty from the "wild and woolly west", namely Mr. Bach, who presented a very interesting talk about his trip to Ely, Nevada, where he is now teaching.

Talks by several members of the faculty were given concerning our game with New York Mills that night.

On March 24, our school band "started the ball rolling" for a very rousing assembly. We were very honored to have as our guest, a former All-American fullback, Mr. Sheldon Beise, of the University of Minnesota.

After a very interesting talk, Mr. Beise showed us moving pictures of the best plays of the Minnesota football team during the 1938 season.

Mr. Leland Johson, former Wadena High School athletic star gave a short talk.

Misses Sanford and Brakke, coaches of thecoming Senior class play, "Early To Bed, Early To Rise," discussed theplay.

Mr. Weiss gave a talk on the regional basketball tournament at Glenwood.

On Friday, May 19, we had an assembly. At this time various athletic awards were given out to the boys who had earned them either in basket ball or football. Bill Johnson, Raynar Isaacson, Perry Matta, Clifford Petterson, Reuben Kumpula, and Leo Stewart received their jackets with the letter S on them and I tell you they looked like a million dollars.

Perry received a trophy from the coaches and the boys and he are mighty proud of it.

On September 5, 1939, school reopened after three months of what we hope was a wonderful vacation. Of course, none of us were capable of working on the first day so we had one of those now famous assemblies. We were all "just crazy" about coming back to school, but to make it even more enjoyable the band was all dressed up in their best "bibs and tuckers".

We all waited breathlessly for the introductions to the new teachers while the band played a few pieces in their very best style. The big moment arrived and we were given glimpses, very brief, into the lives of our teachers, both old and new. After listening to the very interesting accounts of their vacations which included world's fair trips, traffic cops, and matrimony, Mr. Larson began introducing us to our fellow students. We were glad we didn't have to make any speedhes, Since these events took all morning we were dismissed and didn't have to return for the afternoon.

On the morning of September 6th we had another short assembly for the purpose of getting everyone to the proper classes. I guess the Freshmen were pretty lost for a while, but we hope they can find their way around now. Can you? The Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors didn't have much trouble so they sort of relaxed and smiled paternally at the younger students.

Friday, September 15th, brought our first regular Friday assemblies, both Junior and Senior High. The program was one of these spur-of-the-moment affairs which Mr. Larson seems to get together occasionally. The program was practically the same in both Junior and Senior High, consisting of: A flute duet by Ardis Aho and Frances Neldner, two piano solos by Violet Pudas, two vocal duets by Verna Stephenson and Arleen Nace, an piano solo by Betty Stoskopf and a solo sung by Mr. Hultgren. The Senior High was also favored by a piano solo by Miss Engebretson. We sang some of our old favorites and school songs together. Both Mr. Reishus and Mr. Ruoff gave us a little pep talk on football.

On September twenty ninth we were unexpectedly called to the auditorium to hear a very fine talk given by Mr. Wattwood of the U.S. department of justice on "The Value of Education". The football boys were unable to hear this speech, but I'm sure the rest of us enjoyed it very much. Let us hope that many will profit by Mr. Wattwood's suggestions. Perhaps the moral of one of his stories at least will help us in our struggle to do right.

About eighteen hands went up when Mr. Johnson called for girl volounteers to "charm the snakes" in assembly last Tuesday. Joyce Graba, Elsie Lundula, and Hazel Rankka were lucky enough to be selected.

As the girls took their places on the platform King Oscar was brought out of his cage, and Joyce had the pleasure of holding him, first in her arms and then near around her neck. Elsie had a good-sized bull snake around her neck--a snake that would be worth $200 a summer for killing mice. Hazel had the "cream of the snake crop"--she had $1000 Martha curled around her neck much the same as any girl would use a nice soft fur neck piece.

Mr. Johnson thought all three of the girls were excellent!! "Charmers" and he got their signatures in his snake charmers' register and also took a picture of the girls while they were being charming for the snakes.

Hazel said she liked Martha a lot. She also mentioned that she had handled snakes before,and had enjoyed doing it!

Elsie thought the snakes were "sweal"; she really liked them. She, too, had handled them before.

Joyce admitted that she wasn't very fond of the things at all. King Oscar felt cold around her neck, but he wasn't slimey. She said that even though she was brave there in the auditorium, she'd be "scarred stiff" if she ever saw one at home!

A special assembly was held on Monday afternoon at one o'clock. Mr. Wicter, Highway Patrolman, spoke to the student body about school patrol systems. The school patrol here has been in operation now for a year....

....The entire school patrol was called to the stage and sworn in by Mr. Wickter.

The second part of the assembly was devoted to the football squad. The boys deserve special tribute for their successful football season. Some of the students who attended the Park Rapids game were called on. They were: Doris Neldner, Allan Cohrs, Ardis Aho, Ardelle Pearson, Clinton Anderson, Mary Ellen Bensend, Clayton Arnold, and Mildred Hepola. Mr. Ruoff and Miss Engebretson and Miss Lindberg congratulated the boys on their "swell" playing at Park Rapids. Mr. Reishus told us what each player contributed to the game. He also interviewed the boys and asked them what they thought of the game. The general answer was "I thought it was a good game." (It seems that even football players are bashful when asked to speak in assembly.) Miss Engebretson told us something about the approaching Junior High operetta and Miss Crowther named the Junior play cast.

Our pep meeting last Friday was an enthusiastic one, probably because it's the the last one we'll have during football season and also because our game with Park Rapids is always a hard one. The band played a few numbers and then Mr. Hultgren led us in singing our school songs. The boys called on were Emmery Lehner and Allen Lee. Miss Langguth, it ssems has some friends in Park Rapids and she said nothing would please her more than to have our boys beat Park Rapids. She told the boys to get the ball, keep it, and put it across the goal line. Miss Sheggeby, Miss Crowther, Mr. Hultgren, Mr. Ruoff, and Mrs. Reishus all wished the boys luck. Miss McConald regrets that she can't get to know our football boys. Mr. Weiss summarized last Wednesday's game and Mr. Reishus told the boys to do all the could to "smash" Park Rapids' homecoming!

Just before the close of assembly the cheerleaders led us in several yells.

We were all pleasantly surprised by being called to a special assembly last Tuesday afternoon. Reverend Salton showed us a film entitled "Ten Nights in a Barroom". In addition to that he showed us some of the most important happenings during the past eighteen months....

....We saw some very interesting films. One on world news, one on the life of an eskimo, and one on animals and their lives.

Our pep meeting on Wednesday, October eighteenth opened by the band playing several numbers. Mr. Reishus was then called on to discuss the coming football game with New York Mills. He gave us all a bit of advice by saying that the time to win a game is while it's being played, not after it's over. Mr. Ruoff gave a short, but very enthusiastic talk on the game. Mr. Weiss declared that the last game at Mills was partially breaks, and he also gave us an interesting comparison between Mr. Reishus and Mr. Hultgren. We found out that they both have worries; Mr. Haltgren over his band, and Mr. Reishus over his football boys. Some of the boys who played for the first time this year were called upon to give their reactions. Those called on were Kenneth Young, Richard Kumpula, Jimmy Johnson, and Allen Lee. The entire football squad was then called to the stage and introduced to the rest of the student body by Mr. Reishus.

On Monday, November 6th at 10 o'clock we presented our nickels at the gate and thus paid our way into another assembly at which we were professionally entertained. This time the James Scott Company did the entertaining.....

December 4 marked our first basket-ball pep meeting of the season. Assembly was opened by the band playing several selections; the school songs were sung and we yelled the "Sebeka Locomotive". We were honored by having three of our alumni at our assembly. They were: Raynor Isackson, Beatrice Miller, and Max O'Brian. The teachers called on were: Mr. Weiss, Mr. Reishus, and Mr. Ruoff; they all gave a short talk on the coming basketball game.

Mr. Nive of Pelican Rapids, a representative of the Minnesota Conservation Department, discussed the various phases of consdrvation during assembly on December 15.

We all enjoyed the superb performances of Snow White and the seven Dwarfs immensely...

The band opened Friday morning's pep meeting by playing several new selections. Miss Ihrig, our new teacher, was introduced to the student body. Miss Blair contributed her share by giveing a health talk. The band helped us "get pepped up" by playing our school songs. Mr. Reishus, Miss McDonald, Miss Langguth, and Miss Lindbergh were called on.

Last Monday brought us one of our most interesting paid-assemblies. Ralph Jackson and his "Seeing Eye" dog, "Cristy"....

Pep meeing on Jan.30 was held to get up"pepped up" for the Verndale game. The band played the school songs. Miss Sheggeby, Miss Crowther, Miss Flaig, Mr. Weiss, and Mr. Reishus gave their opinions about the game. We ended by ~~xxxxxx~~ practicing cheering.

Members of the PTA will also serve lunch in the home economics rooms for a nominal charge. Plan to have a "bite to eat" after the program.

If you act quickly there is still time to get into this contest, too. The committee in charge includes Mrs. H.H. Aaser, Mrs. Earle Wheeler, Mrs. Henry Nelson, Mrs. Arvid Peterson, M and Mrs. Nick Weiss. If you want to display your talent and if you haven't already done so, be sure to contact either of these committee members at once. You may be the lucky one--the first prize in each division is $5. The Sebeka PTA met at the school auditorium on Wednesday evening, March 12.

The program for the evening was especially interesting. A group of Junior English students presented a one-act play entitled "The Valiant". The cast included Roger Burgau as Father Daly; Clair Nelson as Dyke, a condemned prisoner; Bill Arnold as Warden Holt; Lester Skalisky and Julius Milbradt as Dan and Wilson, attendants at the prison; and Ardella Matta as Josephine Pris, sister of Dyke. Mr. Hultgren played a trombone solo and told about the developement of the trombone. Vocal selections were given by a group of senior high students: Joyce Graba, Phyllis Suomela, Betty Stoskopf, Violet Pudas, Duaine Bonham, Clair Nelson, and Murlyn Pudas.

Mr. Percy Gilbert from Brainerd was the speaker for the evening. He presented information about the cubbing program which is similar to the boy scout movement and is controlled by the Boy Scouts of America. Cubbing provides group training and activity for boys between the ages of nine and twelve, thus taking in the pre-scout aged boy and preparing him for scouting when he becomes old enough for it. After discussing the matter, the PTA decided to act as sponsor for the cubbing movement in Sebeka.

Lunch was served by Group 11 of which Miss Erstad is the chairman.

Since the basketball tournament is over, the girls are enthusiastically practicing volley ball. This is a new sport to several of the members, and so the first few practices will be spent in learning the rules and regulations of the game.

Last week the students were weighed and measured, so as to determine the number of points they will receive in our point system. So far, the Cardinals have the highest average, the Whigs next.

 (March 4)

The freshmen and sophomore girls had volley ball practice Friday. They are beginning to understand the game and are going to put up a real fight against the Junior and Senior teams in the tournament. Both groups of girls have spent considerable time after school to get themselves fit for the final game.

The date for the tournament has not been set but it will be as soon as the groups are ready to show their ability.

Since the volley ball tournament is completed, the girls are busy practicing kitten-ball. The results of the tournament were as follows: Gophers, first place; Whigs, second: Cavaliers, third; and Cardinals, fourth. The last games were very interesting, and exciting. The stunts by the Senior and Junior High Girls have been very interesting for the spectators between halves of the boys' games.

The Tumblers (typed exactly as in book)

On the 14th of January the famous Junior High tumblers came out to put on one of their famous floor shows. They wereall dressed up in their green gym suits fit to kill.

Their first stunt was the leap frog. While they were all in their same places they stood on their heads. Few people like such simple stunts. They like something like a hand spring. We weren't such experts at this because we hadn't had much practice so we did it over one person. For awhile it was quiet because there were no hard landings. But here comes somebody down with a bang. I won't say who it is because she is standing upside down and I might not get the right one.

Next comes the cart wheel. Those who couldn't do this did the stump walk, and still others did the duck walk. The diving was next in line. Oh! this was exciting. Each time one more person got down to be dived over. Alma Hietala went over the most which was eight.

Our next number was the knee flip. Hazel Tuorila, our Joe Louis the L (50) laid down and the rest went flying over her with their hands on her knees.

Then last but not least came the pyramids. Three were built but they were too complicated to describe with the exception of one. Four girls got down on all fours and three more got on top of them - then two - and on top was one. When the signal was given they all went down flat as a cake that has been jarred and fallen.

The act was over. The mats were rolled up and taken down the basement until the next Tuesday when the Senior Class performed.

New squad leaders were chosen in the Junior High G.A.A. classes. Those chosen were: Joyce Ahlin, Ardelle Pearson, Doris Neldner, Arline Edmundson, Leona Petterson, and Marjorie Linnell.

The Patricians defeated the Zephyrs in a basketball game played February 5 at a town game.

Signe Nikkarik	Dorothy Mae Neldner
Claudine Vallbrecht	Evelyn Thompson
Vivian Loija	Leone Nelson
Mildred Bengston	Beverly Hanson
Subs. Liona Petterson and Hazel Tourila

Arline Edmundson made the most baskets of any of the players.

Volley Ball seems to be in the air with Spring Fever. The tournaments this year are played with three dividions to one game. The team winning two out of three emerges victorious. The leading by two points after the score has reached fifteen is the winner for one game.

Thus far, the Pirates have lost one game and won one, the Cavaliers lost two, the Gophers lost two, and the Whigs have won three rounds which entitled them champs.

The whistle blew and the game had started. It was the tournament of the Snappers and the Crackshots. The ball was played at center. It slowly but caregully worked its way down to the Snappers and in a second a basket was made.

The next play the Crackshots got the ball. From then on baskets were made thick and fast. Itwas almost a game of football for the ball was on the floor and everybody scrambling for it.

The last half both teams fought vigorously but at the end of the game the score was 23 to 32, making the Crackshots champs!

What yelling and cheering there was Tuesday when the Patricians and Zephyrs met to play their final game. Who would be champs?

The two centers met in the middle of the floor. The whistle blew and the ball was in play. Suddenly a lound cry went up, for the game had its real start when the Zephyrs made a basket. I cannot relate the other incidents but it was very close with a tied score almost all the way. One minute was left to play and the Patricians were aheadby four points. "Time out" - and the score was tie, 20 to 20. The ball was played again at center, passed among the players and then - the ball slowly but successfully made its way through the basket.

The Zephyrs were champions and had lived up their name by being speedy and accurate. The Patricians, although their name appears to be ancient and slow, played a fast game to the finish.

Everybody was on the floor, ready to play with might and main, as this was the volley ball tournament between the Crackshots and Snappers.

The Crackshots had first serve. The server shot a swift ball over the net. A Snapper player fumbled, and a point for the Crackshots. However, the Snappers did not fumble long, as they raised their score above their opponents and were winners of the first game.

The second game opened with the snappers serving first. But it seemdd the Crackshots had too many thumgs, as they either fumbled or knocked the ball outside. The Snappers were victorious in this game also, making a third game necessary.

Now that volley ball is over, the Senior High Physical Education teams are devoting their class periods to the Badge Tests. A few girls have not passed the first test and several have passed the last. The majority are putting forth their efforts on the first and second tests. More power to you if you're able to pass the third test.

The last girls' game of the season ended with the game between the Musketeers and the Spartans Thursday evening. The Spartans were victorious with the score of 34-9.

The Round Robin Tournament is having all the teams in play each other once and the team which wins the most games obtains the title.

This Year's Tournament

The members of the Olympian team are: Guards: Gladys Edmundson, Alice Lyman, Bonnie Kela; Forwards: Viola Ryti, Dorothy O'Neil, Mae Lloyd; Substitutes: Blanche Collins, Beatrice Miller.

Between halves of the first team game twelver girls performed a tumbling exhibition. This drill was excellent, showing much poise, gracefulness, and skill. But we can't help but wonder if Beatrice Miller's back and Alma Heitala's neck were not rather stiff the next day. June Engen was the inspiration of the tumblers with her piano playing.

Did you ever see an army in gym suits? I imagine our audience at the game thought so when the girls began their marching drill Thursday night. All in all it went rather nicely, marching in circles and forming letters. The last part of our drill was to show the audience an effective way of keeping the waistline down -- exercises, Joyce Johnson contributed the musid for this march.

The physical education classes have been systembatically organized. New gym suits have been secured by many of the pupils. Each suit has the name of its owner neatly embroidered on the upper left-hand side.

We are looking forward to an exciting kitten-ball tournament to take place, probably this week, among approximately four teams. The seventh and eighth grades will make up one team. Three more teams will be organized in the ninth grade class. Captains for the teams have not been chosen.

A meeting for the entire G.A.A. will be held in the near future for the election of officers.

The Senior High girls G.A.A. has been quite well organized. Captains and co-captains of the various squads have been elected: The captains and co-captains are as follows:

The physical education teams have played the preliminary games of their tournament. Due to the cold weather it has been rather hard to play outside, but nevertheless the girls have kept up their spirit.

Being that we are through with kittenball, marching has been practiced in the gym.

The Senior High Girls have entered the Basketball season with great enthusiasm. We have played two practice games already, one on Tuesday, and the other on Saturday night.

Those playing Tuesday night were: Florence Putikka, Capt. F, Hazel Waisanen, F, Violette Karkela, F, Hazel Tuorila, G., Dorothy Fairbanks, G., Gladys Salmela, G., Subs; Leone Nelson, G., Elsie Paurus, F. ------Hazel Siltala, Capt.F., Agnes Putikka, F., Helen Ostlund, F., Eleanor Savela, G., Ellen Roika, G., Fern Adams, G., Sub; Verna Mattie, F.

The game resulted in the score 12 to 9 in Florence Putikka's team's favor.

The game on Saturday night seemed to be more scrimmage than basketball. The reason for this is probably that we had not had any practice this year.

The teams playing included: Florence Olson, Capt.-F., Alma Hietala, F., Arline

Edmundson, F., Dorothy Mae O'Neil, G., Arleen Nace, G., Lila Mattie, G.,-----Mae Lloyd, Captain.-F., Betty Norgan, F., Veita Lou Corbin, F., Signe Nikkari, G., Vivian Hendrickson, G., Ardyth Hendricksen, G.-----Subs: Ardis Ryti, G., Mildred Hepola, G., Norma Buckley, G.

The score of this game was 14 to 6 in Florence Olson's team's favor.

The girls will play their tournament games after Christmas.

As we were playing I heard somebody tell Dorothy Mae O'Neil to sit on Betty Norgan (because she is so quick). I think you better put on some weight, Betty, or there won't be anything left of you by the end of the Basketball Season.

The girls also did some formal exercises between halves of the boys' game. No wonder the girls in school are losing weight!

The Senior High G.A.A. girls have been playing their basketvall tournament games. The first tournament game was played on January 13 between the Racketeers and the Romper Girls. Miss Hall refereed the game. These playing were: Racketeers--Forwards: Hazel Waisanen, Phyllis Carstenson, Florence Putikka; Gaurds: Hazel Tuorila, Leone Nelson, Dorothy Fairbanks; Subs: Gladys Salmela, Elsie Paurus, Bernice Holland. Romper Girls--Forwards: Betty Norgan, Mae Lloyd, Vivian Hendrickson; Guards: Signe Nikkari, Viola Holland, Ardyth Hendrickson; Subs: Frances Wierimaa, Leona Petterson, Verna Raatikka, Alice Woodbridge, Elsie Lindula.

The Romper Girls won the game by a score of 17-13.

Another tournament game was played on February 8th. The teams playing were the Romper Girls and the Mountaineers. Miss Aileen Miller refereed this game. The players are: Mountaineers--Forwards: Hazel Siltala, Helen Ostlund, Bertha Davidson; Guards: Ellen Roiko, Verna Loija, Blanche Collins; Subs: Eleanor Savela; Romper Girls--Forwards: Betty Norgan, Vivian Hendrickson, Mae Lloyd; Guards: Signe Nikkari, Viola Holland, Ardyth Hendrickson; Subs: Frances Wierimaa.

This game ended with the sore 21 to 12 in favor of the Romper Girls.

On Tuesday, the 15th, the Shooting Meteors met the Racketeers. The referee was Miss Viola Ryti. The teams consisted of the following: Shooting Meteors: Forwards: Florence Olson, Alma Hietala, Arline Edmundsen; Guards: Clover Odegaard, Geraldine Steinkraus, Lila Mattie; Subs: Norma Buckley, Mildred Hepola, Ardis Ryti, Glenice Riley. Racketeers: Forwards: Hazel Waisanen, Phyllis Carstenson, Florence Putikka; Guards: Hazel Tuorila, Gladys Salmela, Dorothy Fairbands; Sub: Elsie Paurus.

The Senior High G.A.A. have completed their Basketball tounament and will begin their Volley Ball tournament next week.

The Shooting Meteors played the Romper Girls on Feb. 22, with the Shooting Meteors winning 17 to 14. The teams consisted of: Shooting Meteors: ArlineE.-F., Alma H.-F.,

Florence O., F., Clover O., G., Arleen N.-G., Lila M.-G., Subs--Ardis Ryti, Norma Buckley. Romper Girls: Betty N.-F., Vivian R.-F., Mae L.-F., Viola H.-G., Signe N.-G., Ardyth H.-G.; Frances Wierima.

The Mountaineers played the Racketeers on Feb.25. The Racketeers defeated th e Mountaineers by a score of 27 to 20. This ended the tournament with the Shooting Meteors,who won 4 games out of 4, as Champions.

The girls are practicing volley ball now and are trying to develop real skill in serving.

The girls are practicing Volley Ball and willbegin tournaments this week.

Besides volley Ball, Florence O. decided she better brush up on her diving, seeing the summer is coming; but after she slid about three feet on the floor, she realized the she was still playing volley ball.

The girls are also developing muscles on their arms; and not by eating spinach either. If you doubt this, just come and watch them serve that ball. Soak! and Betty Norgan sends that ball straight up into the ceiling! (That isn't the idea of the game, it should sail right over the net).

Catching colds is very easy in this time of year. If the G.A.A. Girls have colds don't blame the weather! The drafts created by hittingthin air rather than the ball, are really the cause.

Mr. Weiss has sacrificed some of his precious time to watch the girls play. I know he'll like to play himself, but then it's hard work!

You've probably heard many screams from the gymnasium before, but next week you'll probably think it's an insane asylum. (All on account of thetournament.) They really have the spirit and the enthusiasm!

The Senior High girls will conclude their vollye ball tournament this week.

Instead of playing our tournament in volley ball as we did in basketball and kittenball, we are adding up the scores of each team. For three days we have been taking fifteen minutes "off" to play real volley ball. We than add up the scores of those three days.

The Monday Physical Education class has finished their tournament. The final scores being: Racketeers - 57 points; Mountaineers - 47 points.

Monday the girls enjoyed themselves immensely while playing the interesting game of deck-tennis.

In the other class the Romper Girls are in the lead. Be careful, Shooting Meteors! Don't let those boisterous Romper Girls get ahead of you, for they have decided to climb out of the "craddle" and act their age.

Thursday will tell the tale. The two teams having the highest scores will compete for the championship. Don't forget girls that kitten ball is on its way. You had better not practice too hard by just enough so we will be able to give a good exhibition for those who insist upon being spectators from the Library window.

Congratulation, Shooting Meteors.

The week before Easter Vacation saw the girls playing the famous game of "deck tennis". This game is a teke off on tennis using volley ball rules and playing with a rubber ring. The decision of which was to play a tournament on rainy days when it is impossible to play out-of-doors.

Atthis time the girls are taking tests for badges.

Girls, get busy, you'al have to be able to balance in order to walk the "plank", have muscles in your arms to throw the basket-ball, exactness in the free throws and serving for bolley ball, and last but not least, swiftness for running. Just think of the beautiful badges Miss Kovanemi has in store for you. It is an honor in the eyes of the Girls' Athletic Association to win these badges.

Yes, kittenball is now in full swing. Zoom, there goes the ball. The next moment sees Florence Olson on her way to home base. A "home run" we call it.

The girls are also taking a delight in running out of breath and testing their "top speed". Most of the girls have passed their badge test for the year. Miss Kovanemi lately discovered that any one test can be passed in a year, but only one. There should be several girls who will receive large letters this year. Let's hope to see all of the G.A.A. members wearing badges or letters.

There is still time to go out on expeditions that will win points for you toward your G.A.A. award.....

The Junior High School girls' physical education classes are ready for a lot of fun which is in store for them this fall. They will play kittenball out-of-doors as long as the weather permits.

The girls are being weighed and measured this week and will begin regular classes in full dress next week.

The report of the Monday and Wednesday class, with the names, captains, and percentages for the kittenball teams, is as follows: Team 1--Dipsey Doodlers; Florence Putikka; Percentage 1000. Team 11--Cardinals; Ellen Latvala; Percentage: 000. Team 111--Creepers; Vivian Loija; Percentage: 1000. Team 1V--Trojans; Marjorie Linnell; Percentage: 000. Team 11--Jitterbugs; Margaret Hepola; Percentage; 1000. Team 111--Zippers; Bernice Hepola; Percentage: 500.

The girls this year are taking a great interest in kittenball. They have been wearing, not their regular gym suits, but slacks and the like to as to make it possible to finish their outdoor tournaments. The Tuesday-Thursday class has finished their games and announced the Jitterbugs as their winner. In the Monday-Wednesday classes the Roamers and the Creepers were tied, and in the play-off game the Roamers came out victorious....

Jitterbugs Are Victorious

...The members of the team are: Margaret Hepola, Capt., Mildred Hepola, Barbara Farr, Joyce Graba, Gladys Isackson, Elsie Kaupila, Leonna Petterson, Violet Pudas, Hazel Rankka, Nora Weappa.

...The girls now are testing the skill they developed. They have taken a number of tests on things they should know about kittenball.

Most of the girls are waiting patiently for the basketballs to be taken out.

The girls have been taking posture and accuaracy tests. They say a boy has a better aim than a girl, but the girls can surely hit the bull's eye.

The long wait has at last come to an end. Basket-ball practice is the main activity at this time of the year.

Be sure and come early to the basket-ball games this year. You will see that girls can play the game as well as boys.

The girls certainly have the basket-ball spirit this year. If you have seen their games you know that they have been playing their best.

The Girls' Athletic Association was orgainized in December of 1932. The following year a system was established by which awards could be obtained on a point basis. School emblems are presented,as: G.A.A. badge for a total of 500 points; a letter S for 1000 points; and a G.A.A. pin for 1500 points. The points are earned through active team work, skating, hiking, stunts, and many various other activities.

Passing the Badge tests, with requirements set up by the National Recreational Association, has proved itself to be an intersting challenge to all girls. There are three tests based on events of running, throwing, balancing, and proficiency in sport events. For each teast passed a pin is awarded. Each test increased in the skill demanded of the individual girl.

This spring the following successfully passed their tests:

Test 1: Junior High
Ardis Aho, Lillain Aho, Effie Anderson, Esther Bakken, Virginia Buck, Helen Bye, Alice Cary, Ardis Countryman, Gladys Dahlvang, Marcella Dorry, Violet Dorry, Fay Farr, Betty Graba, Ina Haverinen, Viola Isaacson, Kathleen Jensen, Blanche Karl, Evelyn Kadell, Mary Ann Kela, Shirley Miller, Francis Nohrenberg, Lucille Olson, Dixie Palmer, Lorraine Peterson, Merley Quasnick, Peggy St. Pierre, Elaine Salmela, Mabel Samuelson, Shirley Stephenson, Deolia Swanson, Gladys Wallgren, Trinetta Westra.

Test 1: Senior High
Martha Dormanen, Margaret Haapala, Helen Kirsch, Julia Koski, Ruth Morris, Margie Nohrenberg, Frances Paurus

Test 11: Junior High
Ruth Kirsch, Lola Matta, Lulu Matta, Audrey Nikkari, Shirley Skalisky, Helen Torkela.

Test 111: Junior High
Frances Neldner

Aileen Carlson, Joyce Graba, Bettye Lou Norgan, Ellen Roiko, Impie Savela.

Each major sport as basketball, volleyball, and kittenball featured a tournament. Perhaps the greatest interest was shown in the kittenball tourney. The following teams participated:

Junior High Teams:
Gypsy Doodlers, Ardis Aho, Captain; Cardinals, Frances Neldner, Captain; Eleven Smart Girls, Esther Jurva, Captain; Flying Eagles, Lucille Olson, Captain; Yankees, Merle Percival, Captain; Happy Go Luckies, Violet Dorry, Captain.

The Gypsy Doodlers became champions of the Junior High with a winning perdentage of 100%. Joyce Nikkari was elected "Home Run Queen" through merit of the most "homers".

In the Senior High, the Tip Toppers were victorious, also with a 100% record. Thelma Line was named "Home Run Queen" for the Senior High through merit of the most "homers".

The Junior High Physical Education Classes showed us some excellent Swedish and Norwegian folk dancing at the Nevis game.

They have forgotten basketball and folk-dancing for the time being and have turned to tumbling.

The Senior High girls have been learning new folk dances. They consist of different countries such as: Hungary, Denmark, France, and Sweden. We have had much fun in practicing them. We do owe much to our pianist, We wish to thank her greatly for her work.

We have started tumbling...

Original Poems From The Grades

Winter

Winter brings the snow,
And we frolic to and fro.
Listen to the sleigh bells ring,
And the happy children sing.

Arleen Nace, 4th grade.

Winter

Winter is here! and oh what fun!
It seems we're always on a jump and run.
I run to the window for sleigh bells I hear,
For it is so cold the horses run like deer.

Joyce Ahlin, 4th grade.

The first grade had some original health rhymes in language class last week. Some of the best ones were:

"Drink milk each day,
Will make you play."

Roland Olson

"Play in the snow
As over the hill you go."

Robert McNurlin

"Brush teeth every day
Or else they will decay."

Roger Jackola

Last week the first grade studied the manufacturing of butter. After it for some time they wrote the following cooperative story:

Making Butter

We made butter at school last Thursday. We used a quart of cream. We churned the butter. Then we washed and salted it. The butter was bright yellow. Afterwards we ate the butter with crackers. It was very good. Making butter is fun.

The school notes' staff which was organized last spring before school closed is in action again. There are thirteen students on the staff who are responsible for the preparation and collection of all news taken in. Last year the student staff did very well regardless of the fact that this was a new organization in the Sebeka High School. This year the Boys' Athletic News is written up by Clarence Torgerson, and the Girls' Athletic News by Edna Peterson. The music section is taken care of by Gladys Niska. Frances Wosmek, Lila Blom, and Verdi Mattson are responsible for all high school department news which takes in class work, assembly entertainments, and general high school activities. Mildred Niska and Nora Mattie have charge of the personals. Emma Sculz and Myrtle Hemphill will write the grade school news. The editor-in-chief is Clara Wosmek and the associate editors are Beatrice Brownell and Evelyn Tolppi.

Cooperative story by second grade in Miss Allison's room:

Autumn

In the autumn the leaves fall. All the trees lose their leaves except the evergreens. Before the leaves fall they turn different colors. They turn red, yellow, brown and orange. The birds go south in the fall. Many animals get ready to sleep all winter.

Gene Sanford composed this original rhyme:

The Moon is big and round tonight,
It's laughing in my eyes,
It is so very, very bright
And never, never cries.

Linda Kumpula of Sebeka Wins Third Prize in Contest.

Winners in the essay contest for school children on "Wild Life in Minnesota", sponsored by the Game Warden Harry Munger are announced today as follows:

First--Lois Paine, Deer Creek.
Second--Norman Christensen, Detroit Lakes
Third--Linda Kumpula, Sebeka

The prizes were $5, $3, and $2 in cash, and were given by Warden Munger. Judges of the contest were Lou Benshoof of Detroit Lakes, Dr. J.L. Curtis of Fergus Falls, and Lee Miller of Moorhead.

Miss Kumpula, winner of the third prize, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Kumpula, of Meadow township, and is a senior in the Sebeka high school. Her many friends here rejoice with her in her winning essay. Linda's essay which won third prize is as follows:

For years the inhabitants of Minnesota have been carelessly exploiting the resources with which Nature has so plentifuly bestowed them, and have only now awakened to a realization of their true value. Only by following a strict program of conservation can we avert the total destruction of Nature's gifts and preserve them for the use and enjoyment of future generations.

Perhaps the greatest problem of the present day is the restoration of our once great virgin forests. This is of utmost importance, not only to insure an unfailing supply of timber but also as the foundation upon which any program of conservation must necessarily rest. This can be understood when we realize that the forests form the natural habitation of practiaally all spedies of wild animals and birds. Need we wonder that game disappears when man thoughtlessly contributes to the destrudion of their sole means of livelihood?

Moreover, forests form a natural reservoir for moisture which is held by the dense undergrowth until it can slowly seep into the streams. Being thus gradually supplied with water, rivers are kept at a constant level, greatly decreasing the danger of spring floods and the drying of riverbeds during months of scanty precipitation. But as the ruthless cutting of trees and the too frequent occurence of forest fires make greater and greater inroads into the vegetation, this loss of water becomes more perilous, greatly endangering the lives of fish and waterfowl that depend upon it for existence.

Furthermore, many strems in fire-infested areas have become so poluted with ashes that fish can no longer live in them. Unless we find some means of preserving the breeding grounds of aquatic wild life, sportsmen must eventually look elsewhere for their recreation.

No type of wild game has so long enjoyed man's protection as the song birds whose cheerful music and flashing beauty he early learned to appreciate. We have now come to realize their practical value and protect them by law. But such protection alone is insufficient for they are beset on every side by natural enemies that man alone can control.

No more industrious or valuable workers can be found then the birds, whose aid in combatking insect pests is indispensable; though for this patient, untiring labor they ask of us no thought or care we can repay those that remain with us throughout the year by scattering food for them during the cold season when Nature's supply is exhausted. Don't begrudge these feathered friends a little grain to tide them over the winter months!

Nature has done much for us, but it is our duty as worthy citizens to preserve that natural beauty for which Minnesota has become justly famous. Much has already been done by conservation organizations and active individuals, but much more remains to be done. To carry on this work successfully will require the hearty cooperation of each and every citizen with the local game wardens and forest rangers.

Let's all do our bit.

The Captain's Advice

The fans have a hundred eyes,
The lowly ref but two;
But the referee's whistle does thework
While the fans can only boo.

The fans will howl and rant and rave,
The ref is very quiet;
But yet one word of sass to him
Will cause a baby riot.

The noisy fans sees fouls galore,
But the referee knows his biz;
So close your trap and play the game
And take what he says, as it.

Clouds

Clouds, clouds, stay away

Lila Lindroos submitted this poem to her English class:

Snowfall

Softly falling came the snowflakes
As a covering for the dark brown earth.
They were heeding the call of winter
As a duty they must not shirk.

Softly falling came the snowflakes
Over valleys, hills, and vales.
With it they are bringing tidings
Of winter's storms and gales.

Softly falling came the snowflakes
Summoning us with a beacon gay,
Put away your books and lessons,
Come and join us in our play.

Poetry From English 111 class

Ode To A Daisy

Lovely white daisy,
Won't you confide in me
The secrets of the butterfly,
The whisperings of the tree?
I'll never tell a single soul
Although they beg to hear,
So you can tell me all you know
And eer have a single fear.

Lovely white daisy,
Why do you turn your head
And never say a single word
As though you might be dead?
But I will gladly join
In all your praises sung,
Perhaps you do not talk to me
Because you have no tongue.

Frances Wosmek

My Garden

I chose a lonely, barren spot
Within the heart of man,
Where merry sunbeams never played,
Nor streams of laughter never ran.

I scatter(d) seeds of kindness
Wherever they would grow,
I planted bulbs of friendship
In a long and handsome row.

School Days

"School Days" is often the answer to the question: What are the happiest days of one's life? Very often people who have not had the opportunity to broaden their education urge us to make use of advantages. It is in high school where one makes many friends, learns how to conduct himself properly and learns ideals of sportsmanship. Some students go to school to have a good time; others go to school, study, and make use of the time spent in school. The latter is the tupe of student we want in our school. Are you one of them?

-- Beatrice Brownell

Editorial

Competition

Many of this year's senior have, undoubtedly, been puzzled about the question, "What will we do next winter?" Some people may suggest that they continue their education, while others will say, "It's no use, there's too much competition in every line already." The student should decide this for himself. If he can afford continuing a nd has his necessary qualifications, he should, by all means, continue. Of course he may not receive a position right after he gets through taking a course, but some day he may benefit greatly by it.

One man spent hundreds of dollars to have his daughter educated. When she was ready to take up a position, there was none to be had. Of course many ignorant people said she went to school for nothing. But do we go to school for nothing? Do we not learn something? It is almost impossible to know too much about everything. The girl who was spoken of in the opening of this paragraph received a good position a few years later.

Some people have the conception that people attned school so as to get an easy life, not having to work for a living at an early age. Going to school isn't so easy as many folks decipher. Many students have to work day and night in order to receive an education. They should let their parents see that even though the parents haven't had an education, the children should be allowed to go to school anyway.

So, seniors, don't let competition stand in the way of your education. Remember that if you go on diligently preparing yourself for a position you anticipate, you will be better fitted, better qualified, and more capable of filling that position when you obrain it. Work effectively. Don't worry, that in this world of keen competition some one will say, "He (or she) got his job just because he worked hard". Only ignorant people will say that. Intelligence pays!!!!

On Good-Looking People

When we pause a moment in our labors and look around us, we discover what a really queer world we are living in. We see beautiful people,and we see homely people; and we usually classify them in one group or the other after their first appearance. But have you ever tried to reverse the situation and make homely pepple beautiful and beautiful people homely? Let's try it!

Now let's take that girl over there. A regular knock-out! What gentleman wouldn't fall for her at first glance? But what's so pretty about her? Oh yes, I see! It's those clear blue eyes--but eyes don't make a person. If they did she would be the perfect example of beauty. She has a few more beautiful qualities about her, but her most outstanding feature is that hump-backed nose of hers. Well, I guess she isn't so lovely after all!

Here's another lady. A regular beauty! I'll bet she'd take the first prize in a beauty contest any day! Oh no, she wouldn't. Her eyes are a hard, cold, steel graym abd does she look"hard-boiled"! I wouldn't have anything to do with her.

I strain my eyes to catch a glance at the next beautiful person. About each one I say the same! "Yes, she's the example of beauty I'm looking for, but----" And then I would contrast the homeliest feature to the prettiest and when she gets by me, she is classified as homely.

With homely people I gind just the opposite thing exisiting. It is easy to pick some beautiful feature out of their countenances.

Well, I guess I'm not so homely after all!

To High School Athletes

Last Friday afternoon, amidst the applause of their supporters, the boys of the football and basketball teams received their awards. We could easily discern by their speeches how much they cherished them.

Leo Krankkala, still smiling and thinking about his family traditions, inspired me to write this. Until that day I hadn't realized what a large part athletics played in our school life. There are many boys and girls who would not come to high school if it weren't for sports. Therefore, it seems to me that athletics should have a proper place in every school, and all students interested should be encouraged to participate in athletic events. Itis important that we maintain athletic relations with other high schools and have organized teams for interclass tournaments.

Girls may not fully understand the situation of a boy in receiving a letter, but they certainly are sure of the fact that the boys are to be complimented and congratulated for the energy and time they have given for our school. We are proud of them! And we hope that they will always give their services.

We regret that we are losing our strong, muscular seniors. There is no other compensation except that other boys will follow their footsteps; their places can never be filled. But shall w lose them altogether? We hope that, with they aid of these awards, they will still continue to support the school. May they go through the battles of life as in a great ball game--fearlessly, courageoulsy, and boldly, having deep down in their hearts the motto, "Out to win!"

What a Letter Means to Me

To me, a letter means more than merely an ornament to decorate a sweater. It means that, to receive such an award, one must sacrifice much time, effort, and patience. Also he must be a good sport and a game loser. Thus he receives the emblem which marks all of these qualities.

When a person wins his first letter, it thrills him to think that his efforts have been recognized and that he has reached his goal.

--Ben Johnson

Thoughts In Church

As I was waiting for services to begin, I noticed many different types of women around me. I fell to wondering about the kinds of homes they had left.

At my side, was a neat and trim lady. By her appearance, I could tell she had left an orderly home behind her. No task was left undone at her house. I imagined she had pie in her cupboard for dinner and fresh cake for supper. The meat and the vegetables for dinner were warming in the oven. Her family was to have dinner just by themselves.

A lady came down the aisle with her three girls. I could tell by her face that she was to have special company at her house. Her cheeks were flushed, maybe from working over the stove, or maybe because whe was a little excited or nervous. I didn't see why she should get excited because she has company often and makes the best of meals.

In the front pew sat a woman with a contented look on her face. She was always budgeting her time and income, but somehow things never went the way she planned. This, however, didn't make her discouraged or less confident of herself. If I were to go ther that afternoon, I'm sure the dishes would not have been done. The frosting for the cake would be boiling on the stove. She had been away the day before and just couldn't get it done. If the frosting wouldn't get stiff (and it probably wouldn't) , she would remark about it in a matter-of-fact way, and it would have to be all right for those concerned.

After the first song was sung, there came the family that was always late. Sunday after Sunday, the mother's face had a worn and nervous look. Her husband thought Sunday to be a day of rest, and so he slept a few hours later than usual. As a result, the work was left half finished.

The song of the choir interrupted my thoughts.

Greatness Unappreciated

Why is it that the greatness of the people around us, our everyday associates, is not appreciated until they are gone? The boyhood playmates of President Roosevelt did not consider his dominating personality until others called it to their attention.

The same applies to our Seniors. How often do we think of their part in school life until they are about to graduate? Then we, in a small measure, begin to appreciate what they have done for the school Not until after they are gone do we realize the large part they played. The only compensation is that there is another class coming, as each class graduates. It seems that the next could not be worthy of the place each one so efficiently holds.

More Pictures

Mr. Larson had a bright idea when he hung the pictures of the former grades on the front wall of the assembly room. They are the most interesting pictures one could look at. If you want to be humored, just take your belongings with you and camp beside the pictures duing your spare time. You'll laugh your head off if it isn't fastand securely, when you find yourself in one of the pictures, dressed in blue denim overalls or bright gingham dress. Those who are not in the pictures, as is my predicament, may take a glance at Ben Johnson, sitting in the front row, clad in white shirt, worn overalls, and a pair of high leather shoes. Peter Isherwood seems to enjoy having his picture taken by the looks on his face. I bet he thought he was classy with that checkered shirt on. By the looks of Harlan Attleson's big woolen sweater,it must have been a little chilly. He may have been big then as compared to his classmates, but he was not quite the man he is now.

How many others may find their pictures there also, and I bet on one can keep a straight face while looking at them. If I had anything to say, I should like to see a row of pictures way around the assembly room. I am sure many would agree with me.

To Our Principal

To Miss Bye, who, through her sweet disposition and efficiency in teaching and acting as principal of our high school, has won the respect of all her students, fellow faculty members, and other friends, we wish to offer our heartiest congratulations! Exaggerating our appreciation and thanks for her coaching our plays and teaching us is impossible.

Although Miss Bye will not be with us again next year, (for which we are very sorry), the student body has at least the satisfaction of having had her as a teacher for some time.

May your ride on the sea of matrimony, Miss Bye, be long and happy--full of thrilling new experiences!

After Vacation

Last Tuesday marked the beginning of another school term. The school bell has again resumed its noisy ringing and we must faithfully take up the tasks that were suspended for awhile. Those who have labored all summer and whose vacation begins instead of ends will be glad to be a student again, while others who have taken part in fishing and such activities (for example, Mr. Weiss and his four-inch fish) are looking eagerly for the next vacation.

It must be remembered that school is the one important factor in our lives. It is there where we get our knowledge and training. Another factor is the friendships that are made during the days of youth. Those made in school are those that will ever linger in one's mind. Perhaps there is some member of our student body that will be crowned with fame and glory and the rest of will be proud to say, "I used to go to school with him."

As yet, we don not know what this year has in store for us, but some day we might look back upon it as the most outstanding, and our memory will sadly review the school days that are no more.

To The Freshmen

How fortunate to be a freshman! He is one who has the opportunity to begin a brand new topic in life's outline, for life, like a school subject, is divided into topics and subtopics. Unlike that just mentioned,errors occuring in life cannot be erased. The thing to do when errors are made is to analyze them so they need not be made over again. Therefore, it is wise to remember the old Greek saying, "The beginning is everything." Begin right so that when you get to be a senior, you won't have to say, "If I could start over again, I would do much better".

Perhaps on the first day of school this year, some of you felt "out of place", thinking that everyone was staring at you because you didn't understand the rules and regulations of the school as well as they did. This is only a natural sentiment of a "freshie", but don't imagine for a moment that your upper classmen haven't gone through the same agonies of being a shy, green freshman-some of them even homesick.

You will find that an adventure can be made out of being a freshmen and there's a ton of fun in it. Don't be afraid to ask questions and to participate in extra-curricular activities which add to your knowledge and realization of the value of school. Make your teachers win your respect and find enjoyment among your classmates. Above all, don't forget yourself - that is, have some self-respect. There are a few people who posess too much of it, but there is a great number who place themselvers lower than they really are. This causes them to be slow in becoming acquainted with everyone.

Take a great interest in your studies. Francis Bacon, an English philosopher of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, says;"Studies serve for delight, for ornament, and for ability." See if you understand what that statement means. This is his ranking of some studies: "Histories make men wise; poetry, witty; the mathematics, subtle." Knowing what conception great people have of studies will arouse your interest in them.

These are hints -not only to frenshmen, but to all students. Remember: "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Sportsmanship

Sportsmanship is the essential characteristic of a sportsman, who is defined as "one who is not afraid to risk failure, but is a game loser and a gracious winner."

This is the unique trait of an athlete. The attitude which he has toward the game often determines whether or not it is a victory. Not only is sportsmanship possessed by those participating in a game, but it is also possessed by the spectators who show pride and confidence in their team by yelling and cheering their loudest. This will cause the team to have the true impression that it is getting loyal and whole-hearted support- another important factor in determining the result of the game.

Schools should stress sportsmanship to the utmost, so that when the students of today are dismissed from the playground to play the roles of the older people in society, they will be better qualified to meet the situation. It is sportsmanship that brings the real thought of citizenship into the children and makes them sel-supporting young men and women. Let's cooperate to make Sebeka a success by showing sportsmanship on the football field and right in our own school house, which is an important social institution.

The Football Game

Where have you been,
My little lad?
At Parkers Prairie
Dear Old Dad.

How did you get there,
My little lad?
Went with the team,
Dear old Dad.

What did you there,
My littlelad?
Helped the team play football,
Dear old Dad.

What's wrong with your leg,
My little lad?
I had to block him,
Dear old Dad.

Who won the game,
My little lad?
Sebeka did,
Dear old Dad.

Three cheers for Sebeka,
My little lad!
I say the same,
Dear old Dad.

Ballad from English IV.

The Elegy Of A Beautiful Girl

She lay in a coffin filled with roses
That exhaled an exhotic perfume;
She dréamed of the days of her maidenhood
Before marriage had sealed her doom.

When the girls had all envied her beauty
And the boys had gone mad oe'r her charms,
It had mattered not if she broke their hearts,
At least,it did her no harm.

'Twas then that a gay cavelero
With black hair and flashing brown eyes
Had invaded her little kingdom
And filled her with tremulous sighs.

His pockets were lined with gold, she thought,
Why, he e'en had a sleek yellow car
That carried his well-kept person
As if he were some kingly star.

Then one night in a garden
When the moon was all aglow,
Her loved one knelt beside her
And said, "I love you so!"

With great style they were married,
But she, as the story goes,
Didn't live happily ever after
For her life was filled with woes.

She spent all her days in toiling-
In slaving from morning till night,
And by the time she was fifty
She was one terrible sight.

Still husband enjoyed his carousing-
Never thought of remaining true,
In fact, he treated his over-worked wife
No better than a cast off shoe.

Since she had foolishly married
She'd forsaken beauty and clothes,
And now she lay in a coffin covered with many a rose.

So, - of all handsome young heroes
Fair maidens, I warn you, Beware!
You'll find them a fox in sheep's clothing
That have never learned to play fair.

To Knowledge And Adventure

The Book Week, dating from November 11-17, has been annually observed since 1919, and this year it should receive more consideration than ever before.

As the summer draws to an end, and we are confronted with the quiet winter before us, we should be full of plans for making the leisure time of the coming months richer and more worthwhile than it has been.

One of the surest ways of making worthy use of our leisure time is through reading. Every person should visit the library at least once a day, to seek for the high peaks of adventure and knowledge, that can be secured from books. Through books, a person can keep in step with the present, but also swing freely back into the past, which joins yesterday with tomorrow.

If you have never had a chance to travel, you can visit the far corners of the earth and the most interesting spots of this broad country through reading. Your good ship will sail the high seas of romance and fiction, and you will daily record your experience in letters and diaries. You will also meet people like yourself, but more fascinating. Persons like Hamlin Garland, Edna St. Vincent Millay, Christopher Morley, Willa Cather, Robert Frost, and Zona Gale will occupy your mind.

If you have not yet begun your voyage to seep the treasures from books, it is best to start now, during Book Week. For equipment, you will need to take along your foreign language that you have learned, the dictionary, your thinking cap, and your imagination. You will return joyfully, filled with enthusiasm and eagerness for more adventure. All aboard!

The Dictionary Habit

Ina small measure do pupils realize the significance of the dictionary. The conception that predominates among many people is that it takes too much time to look up words and that within that time they would have studied their assignment well. However, this is not true, for without knowing the full meanings of words contained in the lesson, one cannot fully understand it. Besides, if one confided in the dictionary constantly, he will not encounter so many new words in each lesson.

Our school has an adequate supply of dictionaries, but unless the pupils use them with their own will, they are of little value. Some pupils look up the definition, spelling, derivation, and sullabication of words when a teacher assigns that, but it is hard to learn anything by force. Usually when a teacher gives a list of words to look up the meanings of, the pupils think that is only an assignment for that day and soon forget.

Proper use should also be made of this book-especially if it is public property. After using it, the individual should return it to its original place instead of leaving it to the principals or other teacher's responsibility. Surely it would lighten Mr. Weiss' load even a little if students didn't neglect to perform their minor duties. Here's for an increase in vocabulary. Every one needs it.

Many centuries ago, during the time of primitive man, each person lived independently, providing his own food, cothing, and shelter. As time went on, however, man became more and more dependant upon each other for the necessities of life, until today there is no person who can get along without the help of other individuals. It is necessary that we develop teamwork, for whatever we do in life, co-operation is necesday. The best place to develop teamwork is in the school-- in studies, athletics, and other interest. In this way, you will become better fitted for teamwork in the community.

At the rate of progress made during the first part of this century no one can tell what the future holds for us. The young people who have little or no education will have little chance for advancement. They will have to stand aside and see those who are trained and educated pass them by.

Good citizenship is necessary for social progress. It is the duty of a good citizen to support the constitution of our country at all times, to obey the laws and to use his influence in teaching others to understand and to obey the laws. He is born into this world to fulfill a certain duty, and through education he prepares for this mission.

Education is necessary for persons who want to participate in making this world a better place to live in. "To live means more than to keep alive or to exist". It means to get the most out of life. Complete living consists in being able to appreciate all that is beautiful, in being interested in life and in the world, inchoosing and loving your own work, and in being able to solve life's problems.

When he was just a little lad,
What mighty Christmas trees he had!
Each tree, he'd say, must touch the sky,
It wears a star, it is so high.

But by year by year, as he stretched taller,
The Christmas tree shrank small and smaller.
One wonders if the reason was,
He lost his faith in Santa Claus

(By Ethyl Fuller)

Here is another of those inspiring poems which reminds me of that old slogan, "Reality chains us to the work bench but fancy bears us upward to the stars." Why strip the mask from Santa Claus? What if he does live only in dreams? It is fun to make-believe. This jolly fellow with his apple face and long white whiskers should be here every Christmas dispending good cheer and influence which is much needed in our lives. This year when we think of Christmas, let us also think of ascribing generosity to the jovial old gentleman who filled our childhood fancies.

So far, year by year, we have taken Christmas with its merriment and gay times pretty much for granted. This year, as we gather around the Christmas tree and distribute our gifts, let it be with a deeper appreciation, than ever before, of the significance of Christmas.

May this year be the gayest and marriest season you have ever known! For every one, in behalf of the whole staff, I want to bring a Christmas wish. On Christmas Eve, when you stand out in the open air, find the brightest star of all in the gray sky. While you stand in the magid glow of it, make one wish for something you have always yearned for yourself. That shall be our Christmas wish for you!

Winter

The thermometer registering way below zero- yes, even below forty, the wind blowing ferociously, a long list of absentees, people coughing and children coming to school with frost on their hair and eyes and with frozen cheeks, ears, noses, and toes-all of these are signs of real winter; that is, the winter inthe temperate zone.

Our winters, to us, seem long and cold, but winter in the arctic and antarctic zones is even colder and much longer. In those regions, the seasons are divided into only two groups, winter and summer. It seems as if we could add October and November to the three months that follow it and consider winter five months long instead of three. That is our attitude before this season comes. However, in the present month we certainly can see a great contrast between fall and winter. We have discerned that the greatest cold of winter is after the winter solstice, when the day is shortest and the sun's rays are most oblique.

We should not discourage the little youngsters by giving only the bad points of winter for it adds so much to their pleasure. What is more exciting to a little boy or girl than to roll in the snow, make snowmen and snowballs, and play games in the snow! Although it is difficult for Mother to get more than a little jacket on little Johnny, he should be given the full benefits of winter. It would be almost impossible for him to run around with mery much clothes on and the little children don't get as cold as the parents do. Usually they'll agree to put warm clothes on if they can't stand the winter.

Old Man Winter comes but once a year, so why scorn at him so? Let's look at the pretty decorations on our window panes and on the trees, and the snowflakes twittering about, to realize the beauty of the season.

Choice of a Career

"To what work shall I devote myself?" is probably the question disturbing the minds of the seniors, at present. Although it is a very important problem, many of us, with competition in all branches of professions and high expenditures of education, feel that the field of choice seems very narrow.

During our Freshman and Sophomore year, we took it for granted that we should attend high school. Later on, the real significance of education was taught to us. Now most of the Seniors realize that a person goes to school to plan and prepare for the right vocation, to prepare for better citizenship, and to make a success out of life.

Many years ago, business conditions did not demand that a vocation should be planned as wisely and as carefully as today. Today, each person should study and choose the work he seems best fitted for, so that he will not be a "misfit" in society. Many people are dissatisfied with their work and long for another opportunity to start all over again, when it is impossible to start again at the bottom.

It would be very interesting if we could only see what the future holds for us. Some of you with determination, ability, and ambition, may enter college. Many will be found in industries, as agriculture, forestry, and manufacturing, in commercial fields; and in other professions and miscellaneous occupations. Some of you will be famous and honored, while others will go on in life feeling as Emily Dickenson did in her poem, "I'm Nobody", which says, "How dreary to be somebody and how public like a frog" -is the person who seeks for fame.

Patriotism

The thought that human life is second in importance to the life of a nation has existed since earliest times in all parts of the world. Horace, a Roman poet living before the birth of Christ, says in one of his works: "It is sweet and glorious to die for one's country." An inspiration to all young Americans-past, present,and future - is "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country". These words were uttered by Nathan Hale, an American patriot of the Revolutionary period who so bravely faced death after being captured as a spy. It was in that way that this great hero measured the value of his life.

Patriotism must be practived in everyday life. If it is fostered in the hearts of present-day school children with an access to such literature which encourages them to heroic living; they, in the future, will regard voting and the study of the country's problems, a sacred duty. At school we read about noble people and have special programs on the anniversaries of some. It is only a small part of our lessons to memorize quotations by them. We should also know the words of our national hymns. Already in the lower grades we are taught how to salute the flag. These small things with the addition of lessons taught by our parents, tend to sow in our hearts the seed of patriotism which makes us have a loyal-spirited attitude toward our nation.

Since patriotism has been known so well in the past, we should stress it to the utmost in the present and future even though we cannot become as famous as some of the well-known heroes of by-gone days.

Short Cuts

"Hey, let(s take a short cut!" these words were spoken by a young lad as a group of them crossed the green lawn to reach their destination sooner.

Everyday we are taking shortcuts. In some cases, it may be all right, but each person should think of the situation before doing so. How many of us cross the green, fresh-planted lawn without realizing the damages done? In our school life many of us take shortcuts from lessons, classes, gym, and other school activities. Many of us let the lessons slide by and copy some one else's work, without one thought to the work and effort put into it by the other person.

Once there was a man who took a shortcut to financial success and landed in the penitentiary. Many of us who regard taking shortcuts as a habit may some day land in the same circumstances. A wise plan is to start avoiding too many shortcuts right now in our schoolwork. This can be done by fixing your thoughts upon your duty to your school, upon the real benefit of school activities, upon the feelings of that otherfellow. Why not go on in life being "slow-but sure"? Remember the eleventh commandment says, "Thou shalt not cross thy neighbor's path."

Courtesy

Helen had just arrived from a long and tedious day at school. She dwelt on the events of the day with a satisfying self-assurance. She had been so obviously courteous that everyone seemed to notice and she felt certain that her efforts had not been in vain.

But to learn the thoughts of her classmates and teachers might have been painful to her pride. True, she had pardoned herself, apologized for her mistakes and aided the less fortunate in their difficulties, but Helen had not yet learned that the manner in which she applied her "tools of courtesy" was the important factor. A cheerful disposition finding expression in kind words spoken in gentle, quiet tones is the only kety to one's becoming an example of perfect courtesy. Favors performed in a careless and grudging way can never be classed as politeness. Attentiveness to fellow pupils and teachers in classes and a respect for the expression of others all go toward making one perfectly courteous. We must remember-

"Politeness is to do and say the kindest thing in the kindest way."

The Borrowing Habit

Many students think that pencil paper, etc. are totally unnecessary in our school life. Daily, they go from class to class- neatly dressed and almost perfect in appearance - but not fully prepared for class.

Our school is not, of course, perfect, and there are always new ideas which will raise our school to a higher level. One way of making our school a better place to dwell and work in is by avoicing the borrowing habit.

It must be remembered that intelligence and attention are not the only things necessary to carry with you to class. Pen, pencil, paper, eraser, etc. are necessary requirements and must not be forgotten. The alert student regards thee requirements second in importance to preparation of lessons. He is the one who tries to avoid the embarressing habit of asking his fellow students for a "loan" of paper or pendil! A student who aims to get something out of school life will not join the army of "Let-me-borrow-your-pendil-will-you"'s. Instead he will belong to the group of energetic , ambitious pupils who come to class prepared, and not expedt to get by with the preparation of others. To which group do you belong? Are you a nuisanne to your classmates?

Three Hundred Years Of Secondary Education In America

Three centuries have passed since the "Boston Latin Grammar School" was founded in April, 1635. Within this time many substitutions have occurred: responsibility and alleviation have taken the place of repression and timidity; companionable teachers take the place of the unkind school master of early times. These are only a few of the changes that have taken place. Although our high schools have been progressing readily, there is much more to be done to reduce illiteracy in our country.

The National Education Association has designated this year to observe the three hundredth anniversary of American high schools. Its aims are manifold: to emphasize the necessity of education in a democracy (without education it is impossible for democracy to exist); to make the public borad-minded about education; to increase youths' opportunities to lead successful lives by helping build their careers, improving their personal habits, making them understand the significance of work, and developing them physically, mentally, and morally.

We all know that this depression has brought a critical turn in the course of education; nevertheless, if the people at large would give whole-heartedly and constant support there would be no danger of a downfall in our educational system. Rather, the children would keep away from ignorance and crime. They would be anxious to learn how to make a living and to face life's problems boldly.

Let us strive to expand our knowledge of educational needs and we can be sure that social progress will move likewise.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt's conclusion to his speech about the American high school anniversary runs thus: "I hope that the young people of every high school in the United States will celebrate this three hundredth anniversary. I hope they will celebrate it in a manner which will bring vividly before parents and fellow townsmen the significance, the contribution, and the goals of the schools.

Valedictory Address, 1935

Not sunset, but dawn, has been chosen as our class motto, and we, the Seniors of 1935, stand facing a new dawn. We have been passing though a period of metamorphis or change, and now everything seems somehow different from yesterday. We were a group of laughing high school boys and girls and tomorrow we will have entered the realm of man and womanhood. As we look forward our little worlds are hidden in a happy haze, but the happiness cannot last forever--there are bound to be times when we will face keen disillusionment and dissapointments, when our lives will seem futile and hopeless, when our sould will be steeped in abysmal gloom. Only when we accept things as they are will we enjoy the happiness that comes from the merely simple things of life. It's all in our state of mind; our happiness must come mainly from within.

During our years in school we have been introduced to the workers of the world. I would say that the poet, the artist, and the musician have contributed the most to human kind. To them we owe all the finer instincts of man. They have sung with poignant voice a song of beauty, joy, hope, love, and sorrow. They are the heart of the people. Imagine one of them, say the artist, standing before you. He is facing a clean canvas. The first thing that strikes us is the expression on the artists' face--he is completely enthralled in his work, utterly oblivious of his surroundings. We can sense the great work--his masterpiece. The clean canvas before him is about to portray his deepest longings and dreams. His paint brush is about to weave a fantastic mosaic of many colors, each shade representing some living hope. The soft breeze that sighs through the trees in the background, must be whispering sweet music to his ears, encouraging him, and setting his enthusiasm to a high pitch. His eyes are dreamy and misty---he's thoughtfully twirling a paint brush as he gazes upon the canvas unfurled, he's building a bridge to a dream lork, where he lives in an unknown world.

Then suddenly inspiration comes. His breath quickens, his eyes light with the fire of ambition--he smiles as he begins to paint feverishly...

All day he paints in the shadow
Unaware of the passing of time,
All day he builds with his paint brush
As a poet builds with his rhyme.

So we as seniors are standing before a clean canvas with our paint brush in hand. We have mastered the technique of the art. Is our picture to be a masterpiece?

The clean canvas before us is the lifework that each of us is about to begin. The materials we use in our work have been furnished by the great institution--the public school. Our teachers have shown us how to paint a beautiful picture; now we are to make use of that instruction. Let's hope that there will be no blotches or mars upon our life's painting, that each picture will have for its background a glorious, golden sunrise, that each will be commemorating a masterpiece that will hang in the gallery of man forever--that not one picture will fall from its place to be trampled upon and forgotten.

And now as we leave we say to all those who have aided us during our school years--"Many thanks" To our teachers--"May your guidance be reflected in our lifes' painting" To may classmates--"Let's ever keep a singing heart, may we ever preserve that indefatigible spirit of youth, and may each life's painting be full of sunshine and boundless happiness---

Editorial

First of all we wish to welcome all the new students and faculty members into our school.

To some of the students it means just the beginning of their high school careers, and to others it might be the end. However, it does not make much difference as to which class one belongs. Everyone should take hold of his work immediately at the beginning of the year.

The Freshman might think that he has four years. Why work so hard the first year? Many times it's this poor beginning and careless work of the first year that spoils his chances for high honores in his Senior year. He should begin building up his high school repuation when he is a Freshman and carry the good work on until he has finished his Senior year. Nine chances out of ten he will receive honors for his hard work. If he does not receive reward in school he will in later life when he reaps the benefits of his study in high school. Remember we get no more out of life than we put into it.

My Trip To The State Fair

I am considered a second winner of the State Spelling Contest. I received a trip to the State Fair the first week of school.

In the first three contests I attended, I ranked first, while in the State Spelling Contest held at St. Paul, I became second.

My trip to the Fair was very enjoyable. I was accompanied by a girl friend who also participated in the Contest.

The day the contest was being held we had to sit and spell from ten o'clock A.M till 4:30 P.M. We had a piece of board on our lap on which we wrote our Spelling - (which was the most uncomfortable situation of the whole business.)

It was very interesting to go through all the different buildings.

Afterthe contest was over we went to the radio station on the Fair Grounds over which we spelled. That also was very interesting especially when we finished spelling and could investigage the whole radio station.

We got our grand stand tickets and the rides free beside all our other expenses. The only discouraging thing of the whole trip was the ride in the "Whip" which I'll never look at again.

My Trip to the 4-H Conservation Camp

I was greatly surprised when I received a letter saying that I was the girl selected to represent East Ottertail at the 4-H Conservation Camp at Itasca State Park and I'm very glad I attended.

I reached the camp about five-thirty on Thursday. This camp is known as a Forestry X School. It consists of about nine log cabins, mess hall, boy's dormitory, and an assembly hall. There were about 160 boys and girls present.

I went up with the two club members representing Douglas County. When we reached camp we registered, received our blankets, and were assigned sleeping quarters. We had supper about 6:30. At each meal several club members helped in making the meal, serving, and or washing the dishes. We then went to the assembly hall for a meeting. Mr. T.A. Erickson, state club leader,was chairman. We were introduced to the club staff, Mr. Kittleson, Mr. Pflueghoff, Mr. Gibberson, Miss Wessel, and Miss Schenck, each one giving us a short talk. At each assembly we sang a few songs.

On Friday morning after breakfast we had another assembly. Several club members gave talks at each assembly. After the assembly we all had our pictures taken and then we went to Cass Lake to the Chippewa State Park for a picnic dinner and an assembly. Mr. Ferguson gave an interesting talk on conservation. At this park there was a tree trunk preserved, which bore the date 1704 and also several important events which have taken place sicne that time. We went through the plant where we saw how the seeds are separated from the cones and where they are planted and how they develop. We came back in time for supper. After this we had an assembly at which Mr. McCollugh gave an interesting talk. At this meeting I gave a short talk on conservationist. I also helped sing in the 4-H Conservation Glee Club.

On Saturday morning, after breakfast, we had assembly. Miss Schenck gave a demonstati-on different uses of bark from birch trees. After this we went to different places where the beavers were working, Mr. Parker Anderson from the Forestry Department leading us. We all went up to the top of the look out towers and wrote our names.

When we came back we had Glee Club Practice till supper time. We then had an assembly at which Miss Wessel gave a demonstration on "How to Use Wil Flowers in Bouquets."

On Sunday morning we hiked to Preacher's Grove for breakfast, after which there was a service in which the Glee Club sang.

We then hiked back to get ready for the banquet. In the afternoon we had a boat ride for one and a half hours on Lake Itasca. After supper we hiked to the camp or pageant grounds where we had a camp meeting. As we came in we each received a gaggot on which we wrote ideas which we didn't care for any more or which we thought were wrong, and as we passed out, we threw them in the fires.

At this meeting one of the old pioneers gave a talk about when he came there and settled. After this we went to the river and had a candlelighting service and sailed our candles down the river.

Monday morning breakfast was the last meal served, after which we prepared for our homeward journey.

I greatly enjoyed the assemblies, talks, trips, and hikes, and I don't know which I liked the most.

I know that I brought back many ideas on conservation which are new to me and hope that I can help others by giving them information I received at this camp.

Conduct in the Library

The library is a place for reference work and recreational reading. It is no place for play. Some students have to use the library for a study hall because of the lack of seats in the regular study hall. For this heason we should be as quiet and orderly as possible so as not to disturb these people.

When you come from the study hall into the library, be sure to put your name and the time you enter on the place provided for it. When you go back, put down the time you leave. Students for whom there are not vacant seats in the study hall need not sign up to go into the library.

The librarian is there to help you. If you want help, ask her instead of someone else. It is her duty to aid those in need of help.

No one has a right to speak to any one except the librarian without permission. If you want to speak and no faculty member is present, ask the librarian.

Be considerate of others when you go to take magazines. Do not stay at the magazine shelf for a long period of time but let every one get a chance to use it.

When you take books or magazines off the shelves, be sure to put them back in the same place. This helps the librarian to keep the books in order and the library looking neater.

The conduct has been fairly good in the past but there is still much room for improvement. Let's make the library a model department that every one can be proud of. To do this let's begin with good and courteous conduct. Remember! the librarians and teachers are not policeman. They are there for your benefit.

Carol's English

Of all her subjects in school, Carold hated ninth English the most. At the beginning of the school term, she managed all right when she had to analyze simple sentences, but as time wore on, she began to have a harder time to keep us with the rest of the class.

The thing she hated most was to give an oral composition. Her chief fault was that she wouldn't drop her voice at the end of her sentences. She practiced at home by reading paragraphs out of books, but when she faced the class next day to give her oral composition which she had spent many minutes on she became self-conscious, forgot her lines, and left her voice dangling in the air at the ends of her sentenees. Is it any woner she detested English?

It was the day before Thanksgiving and the class was to have prepared an oral composition on pioneer life and experiences. At last Carold heard Miss Bright call her name. Carol rose slowly to her feet and walked to the front of the room. The room was hushed to a dead silence. Carol looked at her feet and then out of the window. If only she dould remember her lines as she had written them down! Suddenly the words came, tumbling out of her mouth in a fashion that would have surprised her mother had she heard her. She tried in vain to lower her voice at the ends of hersentences.

Soon she was back to her seat and hearing criticism from the rest of the class. Again it was the same theing - failing to lower her voice in the proper places. Oh well, she was through with it and might as well sit back and enjoy the other stories.

At two twenty-five the warning bell sounded and Carol watched the teacher prepare to give the future English assignment. Miss Bright calmly announced that the next English lesson would be an original short story.

"Of all things! Her expecting me to write an original short story!" was Carol's first thought. "I'll probably have to sit up until midnight or after trying to think of a suitable plot, and then I don't suppose I'll have it ready for English class." It didn't occur to her until that evening that she had until the following Monday to prepare it, since the following day was Thanksgiving and Friday would be vacation.

Carol's parents had invited Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, some neighbors, over for Thanksgiving dinner so Carol spent most of the day visiting. On Friday and Saturday she thought of her English lesson but decided that she would leave it for Sunday afternoon. But on Sunday afternoon her parents decided that they would pay a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Moore and of course Carol wouldn't think of doing such an offensive thing as staying home.

It was not until Carol returned home Sunday evening that she thought of her next day's English lesson. She thought of her plot all through the evening meal and suddenly hit upon something she thought would be all right.

When the meal was finished, she sat down with paper and pencil and started to put her thoughts into writing. It was really fun once you got started. She wrote several pages and whn she finished, she began rewriting with pen and ink.

Carol was the first person to read her story in class next day. While she was reading, it suddenkly occured to her how funny it was that it was so eady to drop her voice at the periods when she was reading her composition from a paper. When she had finished, Miss Bright said it was very original and showed both ability and initiative.

After school that afternoon Carol received many compliments on her story and by the next day it seemed that even the other classes had all heard of her remarkable piece of work. Carol was very happy and that night when she told her mother of all the complimets she received her mother suggested sending the story to a magazine to get it published. The story was sent the next day in the morning's mail and Carol thought that she couldnit wait for an answer.

The next time Carolx was to givex an oral composition she lowered her voice at the ends of all her sentences and she knew thxt she would never have trouble in giving another oral composition.

Two weeks before Christmas Carols received an answer from the magazine to which xh she had sent her story. How surprised she was to find a check for five hundred dollars. There was also a letter that said some day she might become a famous short story writer if a little improvemtnt was made. It also said that if she had any more short stories they would be interested in buying them.

Carold said, "I'll sit down and write another story as soon as I have time."

Others' Mistakes

Have you ever made mistakes? Without a doubt we have all made our share of mistakes - sometimes humiliating ones.

But what is more humiliating than being laughed at when we make our mistakes? We have probably gome into the class room and given an answer which has brought roars of laughter from our classmates, and perhaps even the teacher has smiled. But does that mean we are stupid and ignorant? No! The ones who are ignorant are those who laugh at our mistakes. We must admit that some answers are outrageously funny, but it is the sneer of the one who thinks he knows it all that is the most disgusting. If we have any respect for the one who is reciting, acting, or carrying on a conversation, we will not greet his errors with loud guffaws. Perhaps we ourselves will sometime be in the same circumstances. Then, will such outbursts be welcome?

Let us remember that everyone is not as xxxxx smart as we think they we are and let us not show our ignorance by such spontaneous hee-haws.

The smaller a person really is, the bigger he thinks he has to feel in the vain attempt to make up for it.

There are always plenty of people who are glad to see the good work go on, but it is most impovrtant for them to be on hand when hard pushing or pulling is necessary to put the good cause over the line.

1942 Salutatory

The long looked for commencement is at hand. We are happy to have reached this stage in our education and life. We are aware of the fact that something definite has been accomplished. This is an important moment in our lives and we wish to share it with you.

This event has been a goal toward which we have been striving--not for the diplamas alone; but for the preparation of other work, higher and broader. We have endeavered to acquaint ourselves with the problems of life and the knowlege necessary for their solution.

We have enjoyed our days of study inspite of the trials and discouragements that have occasionally fallen our way. We realize that we could have done better work and have been of better service to those around us. As we go out into the activities of the communtiy or into some higher instutution we will reflect the teachings and influences of our school. We will likewise take with us ideals, habits, attitudes, and skills that we have acquired here. The schools of our formative years necessarily play aprominent part in the lives we lead.

Tonight the class of 1934 is assembled for the last time as students of the Sebeka High School, for at the conclusion of these exercises we shall have been graduated into the ranks of the alumni. Not all in the class will find it possible, nor even desirable to continue in some regular school curriculum, but each member is looking forward to new fields of activity. Those who do not continue in school shall not find their education has been in vain. The assignments that we have learned will as a whole equip us to be a greater blessing to our community and country.

We are greatly pleased that you have come to witness our graduation. We appreciate the work and sacrifice done by those who have made this possible. As we greet you at this commencement, we look backward over the pleasant school days of the past with a feeling of sadness and regret but we also look forward to a new life wherein we may be able to put to use those things which we have acquired. We tryst that you will bear with us in the future as you have done in the past

Are You a Citizen?

If you were asked the question, "Are you a good citizen or does your citizenship have a high ranking?" what would be your answer? Would you like to live in this world if every one else was exactly the same kind of citizen you are? Probably you would, depending on what kind of a citizen you are.

Living in large well built towns, having all the riches and desires of life, and knowing every comfort possible does not make a person or group of persons the best citizens. One can live in the humblest of surroundings and still be one of the best ditizens our town, state, or county has ever known. We can each of us, be citizens in the small places we live and grow. Are we loyal to our school, our family, and our town? Do we respect and obey the laws of these various places? Do we try in every way possible to better conditions and be good living examples for the younger generation? Are we honest in dealings with others and ourselves? Do we pay our due respect to the school, its facutly and our elders? Are we reverant and do we really honor our country and its flag? Or are we dishonest, disloyal, irrespective, irreverent, and only working for ourselves, caring not how much we hinder others from progressing, or the repuatation we as individuals give to our school or town in which we live - do we plunder every obstacle in our way no matter how marred or ruined we leave it, in order to obtain the best for ourselves?

No better compliment can be given to anyone than, "There is one of the best citizens in this school, town, or country has ever known.

--Elsie Pearson.

School Citizenship

There's an old saying, "You're never too old to learn", and this can be very easily applied to practicing good citizenship in school. It makes no difference if you're a Senior or a beginner in the primary grades; you need the training.

Do you use your school books and desks in the proper manner? Are you orderly in school? Do you show the greatest courtesy to your teachers and fellow schoolmates in class and on the playground? Do you pay the proper respect to the American flag? Do you show good school spirity? Do you take part in school activities?

Check up on these points and ty and make yourself a better citizen and an asset to your school.

Welcome

Heartiest of welcomes to you, Freshmen, and may your own boat of learning always be manned by over seventy sailors who are eager to learn as they pilot their boat through the sea of knowledge toward their home port which is graduation.

We hope all of you will not only be efficient in learning waht is in you r prescribed textboods but also take up outside activities. We have so many here that there surely is one that will suit the individual taste.

The ones who can look back on their school days with pleasant memories are the ones who did the best that they could in every thing they undertook. That is something worthwhile to bear in mind, you who are just entering for the first time, for you have four whole years ahead to improve yourself.

We are also very glad to see so many of our old friends and classmates back again and which you another successful school year.

All right, everybody, let's all pull together for Sebeka High School and make it a bigger and better school than ever this year!

With fingers covered with ink
And thoughts downcast and blue,
The "School News" Editors sat at their desks
And chewed up a pencil or two.
Think, think, think, till our heads were in a whirl,
Think, think, think, for a joke on a boy or girl,
Think, think, think, till we wished we were lard on a shelf.
--------Just try it a while yourself.

Very Sincerely,

The Home Stretch

Winter is apparently on the home stretch for the time being and our small world has been given a fleeting glance of Spring's new wardrobe. The first buds on trees, a few blades of green grass, and pussywillows, along with the increasing desire to skip school is undoubtedly spelling doom for winter.

Not only winter is on the home stretch, for the seniors are gradually and perhaps sorrowfully coming to the end of this first race of sheltered years. However, they will be prepared to run the more difficult but interesting race of life.

Therefore, it is particularly fitting to pay tribute to all on the "Home Stretch" by dedicating this, the first issue by the new staff, to the fading winter, the coming Spring, the seniors as a whole with special honors to those who have served "School New" so faithfully, even now while on the "Home Stretch".

A Tribute From The Class

His smiling face and kinder greetings shall never be forgotten by his classmates and his friends. His contributions to the class's pleasure can never be measured.

Aaron we will miss you
Though you're not far away
You always had a smile
Which now cannot fade away.

We wish you a happier home above and hope that some day we will meet you again.

Editorial

Vacation days have come to a close and those faithful school bells again resume their task of calling sons and daughters from their homes throughout the country--some doming to our school fraom a great distance and others only a matter of a few blocks. Whether the distance be graat or small we must take time out to realize that attencing school is truly a privilage. We cannot halp but appreciate our beautiful school buildging, our capable faculty, and the haarty welcomegiven us by our superintendent, Mr. Larson. Our slates are clean as we begin this school year so with ever a vision as to our privilege of attending school, let's go forward with a new zeal to make this year better than ever before.

Editorial

Because in school we are in constant contact with fellow students, we are given countless opportunites to practice friendliness and kindness, which, taken together under a broader term, would be sportmanship.

It is apparent that some of us regard school as just another lark, but if we were to use our thinking faculties a bit we would realize that that is the wrong attitude. But then there are several, on the other hand, who find that adjusting themselves to school life is a difficult and in some cases bitter experience. Yes, it is our duty to help these people, but it is more than that--we should regard it as a privilege.

Let us assume that there are no such persons in our school. There is still plenty of room for those "little nameless unremembered acts of kindness".

Our school is a friendly place and we want it to remain as such. The memories of school that we will cherish in later years will doubtless be concerned with some act of kindness. Let us all resolve to make not only our life byt the lives around us better and richer by carrying over Wordsworth's philosophy of life.

Nothing

With countless things to write of, I can think of nothing--a very poor subject to be sure. Nevertheless, it brings us to the general definition of "nothing" which is: "a vacuum shut up in a box". It is apparent that I can't go to any great lengths on the subject of "nothing" so I must think of something else to fill the column. I did have something to tell you, but what in the world was it?

Oh yes, I recall! I was going to ask a question which we all will no doubt consider a ridiculous one. Do we know our A.B.C.'s. Not the A.B.C.'s we learned in first grade, but some which are much more important--the A.B.C.'s of Safety which read "Always Be Careful".

Do we run a constant race with Death and attempt to beat it across the path of an oncoming train or car? Is it necessary to let our heads or arms hang out of of the school bus or car window? When on bycicles,do we observe all traffic rules? Does the ideal place to play tag have to be a busy street?

These questions seem so simple but it is when we (and people like su) forget these and xxxxxxx similar basic principles of safety that the nation's death toll reaches another new high.

Let us xxxxxxx each do all in our power to help make the Boy Scout Patrol a real success and "Always Be Careful".

I fooled you. My editorial xxx is not as preposterous as it at first seemed, for I did have a purpose in writing. I wanted to voice the opinion of the entire school: the safety patrol is "swell", and it is only through their efforts and ours that the death toll will ever amount to "nothing".

Do You Want It?

Some of us may have wondered at times: "What does the school paper mean?" "Of what value is it?" It is very obvious that to some the "School News" mean nothing, while in reality, a school paper means many things, things which are of vital importance to us in school and to those out of school.

The school paper has proved to be very influential in narrowing that seemingly interminable gap that has existed for many years between school children, teachers, a nd parents, by serving as a common interpreter of the work of each. A school paper is also an excellent device for stimulating the respect and friendships between schools, school children , and outsiders.

The value of the "School News" when taken in a broader sense, is to the school community what the "Sebeka Review" is to the general community. One influences mature minds and the other influences youthful minds. Both are informative and educative; both possess the power of moulding public opinion.

The school paper has one distinct advantage in educational value--it is the product of its readers. Yes, to be sudcessful a school paper must have the cooperation xxx of every class in school and each student enrolled in these classes.

I believe it would not be unfair to say that no other school aativity is beneficial to as many people and in such a variety of ways as is the school paper.

We conclude that besides its value as a running record of school history, the "School News" instills a deep interest in ideals and purposes, and promotes a spirit of unity, builds school loyalty, stimulates morale, and develops character.

Do You Remember Its Purpose?

Thanksgiving Day was originally a day set apart xxx annually for the giving of thanks to God for the blessings of the year. Today we have forgotten why we observe a Thanksgiving day and think rather of the large feast which is awaiting us.

xxxx The first Thanksgiving was not merely a feast. It was the Plymouth Colony's brave attempt to forget the dreadful preceeding winter, during which almost half of the Pilgrim company died, and remember instead the beautiful summer and the bountiful harvest. Their Thanksgiving was a day of prayers, sermons, and songs of praise, while we, pathetically xxxx enough, have forgotten that first Thanksgiving and have made ours a day of feast and pleasure.

Neither do we remember no appreciate the efforts of one woman, Mrs. Hale, in making a certain day each year a day for Nation wide Thanksgiving. In 1864 Mrs. Hale's efforts of twenty years were rewarded when President Lincoln appointed the last Thursday of the November as Thanksgiving Day, a day of prayer. Since 1864, the same day has been regularly set apart. By this great service to us, she truly earned the title of "Mother of Thanksgiving".

It would be a credit to us if, on this approaching Thanksgiving Day, we would forget for a time the huge turkey and make an effort to remember the following lines which are symbolic of the true spirit of Thanksgiving:

We Thank:
For allthat God in mercy sends;
For health and strength, for home and friends;
For comfort in the time of need;
For every kindly word and deed,
For happy thoughts and pleasant talk;
For guidance in our daily walk;
For all these things give thanks.

Armistice Day

Twenty years ago, after halting the attempts of egocentric government cliques to endanger the "inalienable rights" of all peoples, the peace-loving nations of the world, led by the United States, formulated a treaty of armistice--a temporary cessation of hostilities--that was idealized as the beginning of the end to the "war to end all wars". In all parts of the glove mass demonstations of beatitude hailed the release of emotional tension created by the mass slaughter of humanity and the ruthless destruction of man's achievements. The thought of the universal mind was PEACE. PEACE was an axiom.

Today we must accept reality and face the fact that those "rights" are again being endangered by greed-obsesses complexes and PEACE is still a THING TO COME. Today we have the "jitters". An incomprehensible, highly imaginative radio dramatization of inter-planetary warfare is enough to cause people to lose reason and become panicky. One nation forfeits its prestige to help prevent war. All nations are spending vast sums of money re-arming. The outlook has changed. The possibility of that hazard must be reckoned with. The post-war methods of insuring democracy have failed to materialize. The problem of attaining PEACE still confronts us. And that problem will not be solved by indulging in war for the same reason as the parallelism of solving the problem of fire-prevention in the starting of fires.

Armistice Day is observed for the purpose of public recognition and nation-wide admonishment of the futility of gain by destructive methods of bargaining with our adversaries. Armistice Day is observed as a day of reflection on that costly, tragic lesson that was tuitioned with the lives of millions of future assets to the plan of civilization. It is our day of reflection and concentration on PEACE.

Let's do our bit and put in our "two-cents worth" of DETERMINISM TO HAVE PEACE!

Another Editorial, not signed; presumably by editor-in-chief, Beatrice Miller:

What Will You Give?

On Christmas Day we will commemorate the birth of Jesus Christ. Not only that day but the entire Christmas season brings good cheer and hope into the heart of everyone.

Christ was born so that he could preach the Doctrine of Love to the people on this earth; Love is the foundation of all the teachings he established. But too often we have disregarded the teachings and their application to our lives and to our friends.

We have Christmas because Christ was given, not only to Mary and Joseph and the shephers, but to all the world. Because of that great Gift there has developed a custom which carried with it a great deal of happiness--the exchange of gifts among friends.

Many of us often neglect our friends--giving the excuse that we are "too busy". We inulge in social activities and "have a good time". That does not necessarily mean, however, that we are making true friends; we are simply adding to our list of acquaintances. At the very same time we "pat ourselves on the back" because we seem to have so many"friends", and when Christmas time rolls around we give them some material token of that "friendship."

Such an exchange of gifts is a happy custom, but more than the exchange of a gift is required as an expression of true friendship. Such friendship demands a personal and sincere application of Christ's Doctrine of Love.

True friendship does not just happen; it must be developed through kindness, reverence, admiration, and individual attention. If you want to have a true friend, you must be one.

On Christmas Eve one thousand nine hundred thirty eight years ago God gave the world the best Gift He had to give. This year as Christmas draws near let us plan to give the best gift that we have to give--true friendship.

Christmas Literature (Those without signatures omitted)

The ringing bells,
The lighted trees,
The merry children in the breeze
Tell us--
"Tis Christmas".

--Gladys Isackson

The Choir of Mullenrang

"Angels from the realms of glory"
Was the song the choir sang
As they slowly marched together
In the church of Mullenrang.

They all resembled angels
In their robes of finest white.
The rich and poor together
Sat awe-stricken in their sight.

Then as they homeward journeyed
Among the worldly trend
Each one to himself was saying,
"Peace on earth; good will to men."

--Arleen Nace

Christmas, the biggest holiday of the year
Again greets people both far and near.
Let's fold our hands once more in prayer
For God sent His Son to live with us here.
For all the blessings bestowed on us
We have only God to trust.

--Verna Mattie

Sing a song of Christmas,
A day that's filled with cheer.
I know you'll all agree
It's the best time of the year.

Children are expecting
Candy, nuts, and toys,
And everything that's always given
To all good girls and boys.

So if you know of anyone
Who's sad or poor or old,
Just do your best to cheer them--
You'll be paid a thousand-fold.

Evelyn Ollila

I was getting ready for a test; we've had one every time.
But Miss Braake said, "We'll have notest; we'll try to make a rhyme."
So I laid away my books and things and thought of rhymes galore,
But all the rhymes that I thought of, had been thought of once before.
I thought of poems by Longfellow, a couple more by Bryan;
Than my head began to ache, so I decided to quit try'n.
I wrote down everything I thought; now this is what I'll do--
I'll put the lines together and pass them on to you.

A Christmas Tree

There was a little Christmas tree.
On Christmas it would shine at me.
Santa will come at night
And make the tree shine bright.

Little toys he'll always bring,
And when he goes the bells will ring.

Mary Norgan, Fourth Grade

Have you ever thought for a moment or two
What Christmas really means?
It seems to me too strange to be true,
That its glory on us still beams.

--Viola Kinnunen

Christmas time is drawing near
The jolliest time of all the yaar.
This is the time when sleds come out;
The children dance and sing and shout,
Thanksgiving's turkey is far gone past,
And Christmas Day is coming fast --A 5th Grader

The little mouse sat by the rocking chair,
Hoping old Saint Nick would soon be there:
For he also knew, and only too well,
He could then make his little gray body swell
On peanuts and nuts and perhaps some toys,
That really were meant for girls and boys.

--Merlen Twllock

Christmas is here, so be of good cheer,
Because Santa comes at this time of year.
He used to come in a sled red and green,
But now he comes sailing in a flying machine.

--Clayton Arnold

Teddy was a naughty boy;
Mischief-making was his joy.
That night when midnight came,
To be sure, he had a game--
Down the banister he slid so smoothly
Till the end--when--BANG!
Santa heard the awful crash;
He knew that someone was a-fooling.
It surely was a sad affair
When Teddy found his stocking bare.

Doris Neldner

Christmas will soon be here,
What a jolly time of year!
Beneath the mistletoe I'll stand;
What'll I get?--Oh land!!!!

Ruthie Ritari

There is one month in all the year
That is so very full of cheer;
Each December twenty fifth
We're supposed to give a gift--
That's what I like about Christmas!

Christmas is a season when
Our vacation will begin.
It means four months of school have past
And we've just five more months to last--
That's what I like about Christmas!

Each Christmas we can celebrate
And then we brag how much we ate.
The meter of this poem is not so good,
But overlook that--I'm sure you could--
That's what I like about Christmas!

We try to put in words that rhyme;
Maybe we'll do better another time.
The meter's bad, the rhyming's bunk,
But if we don't write a poem, we're sunk!--
That 's what I don't like about poetry.

--Leslie Beldo.

Christmas

Snow on the ground again,
Frost in the air,
Cheer in our hearts again,
For Christmas is here.
The old year goes out again.
The New Year's soon here.
So Merry Christmas to you all
And the happiest New Year.

To our previous editor, Beatrice Miller, and to the Seniors who were staff members, we, the new staff, decicate this, our first issue of the School News.

We all realize the time and energy they put on our paper to make it one to be proud of and, therefore, we wishat this time to thank them for all they have done.

We sincerely hope that we shall be able to follow in their footsteps and continue to make the School News a Success!

Editorial

This year marks the forty fifth anniversary of the Sebeka Public School. Does that mean anything to you? Have you realized the time, or work, and energy different individuals have put forth to make the school one of which to be proud? If you haven't, think now, for it will help you to feel your responsibility, as one of the many, to keep it so.

Before us lies the school term of 1939 and 1940. That is the important one as far as doing our"bit"is concerned. The year is not yet far-spent, and we still have the power of setting a goal before us toward which to work and strive. Are we all willing? If so, let us all say from the haart:

I pledge allegiance to my school and to the ideals for which it stands--one body indivisible with education for all.

Keeping Tab on the Seniors of '39

There are forty four Seniors
To be accounted for.
I appreciatively thank my "lucky stars"
That there wasn't any more.
When one lacks rhyme and rhythm,
And lacks imagination;
It's hard to put inpoetry form
Students' plans at graduation.
Howere' I find--this task is mine,
My teeny brain I'll rake.
Please try to bear each thoughtless line,
Just for another's sake.

A vocational director came one day,
He's an everlasting talker,
I find he's taken four away
To attend the normal at Walker.
There's Evelyn, Ellen, and Phyllis,
And Geraldine was persuaded, too.
I had a notion Betty had left--
Pardon my error it' isn't true.
Blanche is engaged in business;
The American she daily attends.
I bet those big brown eyes of hers
Have won her many friends.

Carl is going "a-sailin'",
'Over the bounding main'.
He's joining the U.S. Navy--
May be long 'fore we see him again.

And after thinking it over--
He'll see cities of every sort,
And his "sailor gals" will wait patiently,
He'll have them at every port.
Bill and Elmer have gone to Bemidji,
Their extension of learning to make.
Elmer forms a base for teaching,
At athletics--Bill takes the "cake".

Woodrow had definitely decided
To spend his time at the "U".
I'm sure his philosophical mind
Will be thoroughly complete when he's through.
Marjory works in one of the local cafes,
She's a courteous waitress, you see.
And Alice is burying her head in books
To grasp business at M. S. B.
Dorothy plans on nurses' training
She'll attend the Anchor at St. Paul.
Hugo I cannot account for,
Maybe he's aiming to grow tall.

Ethel's working in Minneapolis,
Leona has yet to decide.
Ruben is leisurely waiting
For success to come in on the tide.
Joel's studying air-conditioning
At the Dunwoody Institute.
Florence is taking up teaching
At the college in Duluth.
St. Cloud's T.C. has Beatrice,
It also has Veita Lou.
Arline's eyeing Miller Vocational Secretarial training she'll pursue.

I conversed with a man from the American;
He says "Raynar is doing swell."
As for Helen, Clifford, and Florence (P.)
Their vocations I'm unable to tell.
Perry's doing farm work in Wisconsin;
Clayton is attending the Calhoun.
As for Vivian-I bet those wedding bells
Will be ringing mighty soon. (Eh?)
Billy Y. is employed at Nimrod,
It's business for him, too.
Agnes is clerking in the Co-op store;
Clayton's on the road construction crew.

Verla is working at Doty's;
Eleanor is planning college for next year.
Leo is still in Sebeka--
And those that are listed here:
Alma, Blossom, and Glenice,
Norma, Virginia, and Signe,
Leone, Hazel, and Johnny--
I'm sorry--they're unaccounted for.

Time is short, too short, for the amount that each one of has to accomplish before our destination is reached. As students, we should think and plan-plan to use our time to the best advantage not only for ourselves, but for all those concerned.

Each one of us plays an important part in our so-called society" whether we realize it or not. We are progressing along the way to a new and better civilization just as our forefathers blazed the way for us. Thinking of it in that way, we really have a task before us that must be completed. Knowing this, we must have keen educated minds to combat with the ordeals of this on-rushing world.

To whom do we owe our present-day school system? To none other than those educators before us. Do we appreciate it and make the most of it, ar are we just one of those indifferent persons?? The road of success lied before us, challenging us to do our best for time is so short.

Thanksgiving! Three hundred and eighteen years have elapsed since that first Thanksgiving Day when that solemn yet happy group sounded their praises to the One Creator who had endowed them with prosperity.

Since that we have commemorated Thanksgiving in times of famine, war, and peace. No matter what the ordeals of this striving world have been, that day has been impressed and imprinted on the hearts and minds of proceeding generations. We stop the whirring motor of theis complex world for a day of joy and prsise. It is like the calming of a mighty tempest on a wild sea.

This Thanksgiving comes in the midst of trials and tribulation. War is raging across the deep. A war to end all war! Why must we have these cruel conflicts? We have them and will continue to have them until man's selfish nature is squelched or conquered.

We Americans plead against war--yet dare not hope lest it be in vain. Weare grateful for the many obstacles we have been spared. We must have faith then, and be truly thankful on this approaching Thanksgiving Day.

Have you caught the Christmas Spirit? It's in the air and who can resist the majestic influence of it? It penetrates into the hearts of all, amking everyone happy.

Just giving someone a small token of friendship, in some inexplicable way, leaves one with a pleasant feeling. If you are fortunate enough to have more than others, remember to share some of your joys. A friendly word, a cheery smile, helps many a weary soul in distress. For who knows how much you may gladden the heart of that someone.

Here's a word of advice: The Gift Without the Giver is Bare, so give whole heartedly--true heartedly, and don't be a Scrooge, but be a Tiny Tim.

Christmas ~~Stories~~ Poetry

Song of the Ages

O holiest feeling which fills may heart
From whence comest thou?
The feeling of joy and of peace with all men
Which makes heads to bow
At the feet of the Savior and there to impart
A prayer that the hearts of the world may be open to that age-old message once more--
"Peace on earth and good will to all men."

Oh--thence comes the feeling!
From the song of the ages
Which from the celestial stillness ~~xxx~~ broke forth
Calling the shepherds and sages.
Even now on the air of still cold evening
A song of infinite sweetness and purity, the worth
Of which even the bravest darenot guess
Because of its truth, its holiness.

Then let all hearts and all voices ring!
Let the emotion which fills ~~xx~~ you
Come forth. Let us sing
A song of joy and of praise to our King.
And let this be the prayer from our lips to ascend
"Oh, Christ, give us peace!
For Thy sake, Amen."

--Verna Stephenson

"Peace on earth; good-will to men".
We hear the same sweet words again.
And Christmas joy will fill the world--
With all its splendor be unfurled.
Let's join the chorus and loudly sing,
"All hail, all hail, to the new-born king."

--Delores Kreklau

Christmas Day

Hear the bells are gladly ringing
And they seem to say:
Forget your troubles and be glad
For this is Christmas Day.

Little children--hear them laughing
As with their toys they play.
Tell them of the Christ Child,
And the first glad Christmas Day;

How God sent His loving Son
To show us all the way;
Then let us sing our praises
To Him this Christmas Day.

How the Angels sweetly sang
As the star shone on the way
Guiding wise men from afar
To His lowly bed of hay -

Peace comes to the restless as they walk;
The snow on their lashes
Somewhat blurs the vision and makes
A kind of beauty serene, of dark blue, gray,and softest white.
Even the wicked and opressed
Feel the deep great love of God
And feel a prick of coscience or a new-found hope
Walking at night, alone,
When the first snow falls.

--Verna Stephenson

Spreading Christmas

In Belgium, Santa Claus rides a donkey;
In Russia he's called "Uncle Frost";
Polish Christmas lasts till February,
And there hay goes to Santa's hoss.

Each land has its own countless customs
Many of them familiar and queer,
But the habit that's present in all of the lands
Is the spreading of joyous good cheer.

Be it far away Russia or distant Ceylon,
Hawaii, Brazil, or the Isthmus,
The same happy feeling is spread everywhere,
When we wish everyone, "Merry Christmas!"

--Laura Graba

Christmas Day

Christmas Morn, the children,
All filled with happy glee,
Rise so very early
To see the Christmas tree.

After that comes breakfast,
Then each one does his chore;
The children play awhile,
And then eat some more.

More chores and then more play,
More feasting, then to bed
To go to sleep and to dream
Of the Christmas they have had.

--Shirley Brownell

Good Boys at Christmas

Christmas is the time of year
When everyone is gay
Even little boys will do
The work they should each day.

They shovel off the sidewalks,
They carry in the wood.
They even do the dishes--
(If their mothers think they should).

Let us make some others glad,
And when we kneel and pray
Thank God for His loving Son
And Merry Christmas Day.

--Norman C. Jenson

Christ In The Heart

When Christ comes into the hearts of men
He makes the darkness light;
He chases all the shadows away,
And makes their faces bright.

When Christ ~~xxxx~~ transforms the hearts of men
He makes true beauty appear--
Not just beauty on the outside,
But He makes their hearts sincere.

He makes us love our fellowmen
With a Christian love that's true.
When Christ gets into the heart of man,
He makes the man anew.

The Carolers

Harken! Beneath the window
The carolers come to send A message of the new-born babe--
"Peace on earth; good-will to men."

Hark to the tale they are telling
Of wisemen near and far
Who knew not where 'twas leading them
As they followed a bright, bright star.

They tell us of a babe
In a land so far away--
Beside his virgin mother
He lies on a bed of hay.

He is the Son of God--
Our Savior and our King,
The shepherds came from far
His praises for to sing.

First Snowfall

The world shines forth in its unlimited beauty
When the first snow falls.
Christaline flakes of soft, cool down
Shimmering fall in each beam of light.
And in the darkness of night
As each bit of white lace falls
It seems to cover earth's most dismal and ugly spots
In a robe of fragile, almost fragrant loveliness.
All the wickedness and sin seem to dissolve, as if the very heavens were raining purity

I was out to my cabin yesterday morning and found the Rural Route Box chock full of seed catalogues, literature from stationery-houses, etc. Also there was a copy of HOUSEHOLD with a note appended, advising me to see page 34 x and read your ~~poem~~ poem -- which I did -- and which I had read before -- but which I still liked on re-reading.

Much obliged. Incidentally you may have won over a subscriber. My Mother liked the magazine and asked for a subscription blank. So you see what a ~~capit~~ capitalistic poet you are.

They do the chores for father,
And run their errands fast.
They're perfect little angels
Until Christmas Day is past.

And then when it's all over
They go right out and play--
Forgetting to be good, until Another Christmas Day!

--Evelyn Ollila

Christmas Cheer

Snow, a tree, and presents galore--
Is this what Christmas means?
Think again of the sentiments of yore,
And make those your Christmas themes.

Are you spreading cheer this year?
If not, why don't you try it
As this gay season does appear--
This Yuletide so symbolic?

--Lorraine Ljungren

Snowflakes

Snow flakes gliding through the air
They look so soft and fine
Each one landing we know not where--
'Tis a sign of Christmastime. -- Barbara Farr

The Joy of Christmas

The snow is softly falling;
The bells are rining true.
Let us join in the greeting
The Christmas season, too.

--Martha Laine.

The First Snowfall

The snow is gently falling,
Upon the frozen ground;
The birds are merrily calling,
And I hear the sleigh bells sound.

--Russel Nelson.

'Tis Christmas

'Tis Christmas! the spirit of cheer is everywhere--
In cities, in towns, (It's a hustle-bustle there)
In country homes, where all is made ready,
To make it full merry for Sally and Teddy.
From far off is heard the joyful refrain
Of the carol of "peace and goodwill toward men".

Let's forget the cold, the wind, and the snow;
Let our hearts become warm as the candle's glow.
Now is the time to be merry if ever,
To give greetings and cheer should be our endeavor.
My greeting is this--(it isn't new) "Merry Christmas! Happy New Year, too!"

Lincoln -- Washington, two great men, who dared to be true, honest, brave, and courageous made and moulded our American government. They became famous and their names were forever stamped in history. Yes, two heroes and I quote Disraeli when he says: "To believe in the heroic makes heroes."

These two men were once young and carefree as we. They too had their strong points and weak points; their lofty ambitions, dreams, and disappointments. They too had the privilege of taking the straight road or the path of least resistance. Yet they proved themselves worthy by their strong will-power and domineering character. CAnnot we too?

Rome was not built in a day; neither did Lincoln and Washington mount to the top of the ladder over-night. It took years of mental and phsical toil. They encountered and overcame great obstacles, each greater than the one before. One can compare their lives to a tree--a gradual growth of character, personality, perseverance, and other desirable traits. Yet with this growth Lincoln did not grow away from his old friends or ideals. He earned the name "Honest Abe" which is far greater than any University degree.

Then as Clark says, "If I cannot do great things, I can do small things in a great way." Perhaps some of us will rise to fame and fortune, but those of us who don't, may contribute our bit by thorough, conscientous effort!

Easter is just around the corner and spring is on its way! For some unknown reason it gives us the feeling that life is worthwhile and that we are glad to be alive. Alive so that we may once more share the happiness of Easter Day and feel the touch of mother nature as she quietly stirs from her bed of slumber to a new awakening.

It created in us new inspirations and aspirations. It seems that we are out to overcome the old and win the new. And so it should be with the student body. Let us hope the seniors eill be coming back to finish the last lap of the race with grit and determination while the others will complete the first years of their task with diligence.

This is perhaps the last paper that will be issued by the present staff. After Easter the Seniors will be busy working on the Senior Class play and on the annual, and a new staff will take over the School News. So we say, "Goodbye and here's thanks for your cooperation!" Here's wishing the best of everything to the staff that will carry on.

Junior-Senior Banquet

The seniors and high school faculty were very royally entertained by the juniors at the Sedish Lutheran church parlors. A sumptuous dinner was served by the Swedish Ladies' Aid.

The senior motto being, "Out of the Harbor, Out on the Deep," the entire banquet was based on a pirate style. The predominating colors were red and black. The room in form of a cavern was attractively decorated with red and black streamers, treasure chests, daggers, spider webs, fir branches, skulls, caves, guns, and other pirate equipment. The table decorations were very cleverly planned, the place cards being small swords, and nut cups miniature treasure chests, and the menu adorned by a gaily dressed pirate.

Gregg Nelson, the toastmaster, took charge of the program which was as follows:

Sighting Land----------Clarence Torgerson
The Leader Speaks----------Lucille Helppie

Hidden Gold----------Clara Wosmek
Digging----------Eva Carlson
Discovery of Treasure-----H. Jacobson
Division of Spoils--------Mr. Larson
A Perfect Day----------Garfield Attleson
Pirate Dreams----------Miss Carlson

Both the Junior and Senior classes presented Miss Bye with gifts as tokens of of appreciation for her assistance with the class plays.

Throught the meal Miss Allison played some very appropriate music.

Following the program the entire company autoed to Wadena to attend the movie, "Are You Listenin'?" All of the Juniors proved themselves to be adept entertainers.

Following the secretary's report of the of the last meeting Edna Peterson gave a talk describing the Junior play, "Oh, Professor", which will be given some time before Thanskgiving. In connection with making money the class decided to have two candy sales, the first on Oct.11. Leo Krankkala was elected to make posters, advertising it. Lewis Doty, Sophie Lantto, and Eleanor Larson were elected to the committee to take charge of sales.

The Junior-Senior banquet is the greatest social event in the school year. One can always discern its approach: No one is interested in school work; the girls are thinking of gowns, and if they could have all they dreamed of---

To begin with, the girls came scattering into the hall, all taking care so as not to harm that "best" dress. Then came the boys--bold as if they could conquer a world or maybe two.

All in all, it was a very merry banquet, with Lewis Doty officiating as toastmaster. He was sensational, likewise Frances Haugen with her memorable Class Prophecy. Others included on the program were the following: Virtue Sanford, Beatrice Brownell, Miss Bye, Miss Carlson, Miss B. Johnson, Blair Nelson, Ben Johnson, Harlan Attleson, and Superintendent W.C. Larson.

Now that we have everybody at the banquet along with the speakers, we must tell you about the decorations. The sides and ceiling were decorated in white streamers with snowballs bobbling up and down in mid-air. The table decorations, cleverly matched, were made up of snow-men and igloos. The speaches given were related to Winter also.

The banquet was concluded by attending a movie at Staples, which everyone did or did not enjoy. As a coincidence, the name of the movie, "The Last Roundup" could also be applied to the Junior-Senior banquet, for 'twas really the "last roundup" of the Juniors and Seniors of 1934.

The Junior-Senior Banquet, A Great Success

Undoubtedly every one was making some plans several days before, for the great event of the year, the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was on Saturday.

Perhaps the only difficulty, for the girls especially, was trying to keep their new gowns from getting wet by the snow.

All in all the banquet was a very enjoyable affair with Roy Jackola as toastmaster. The others included in the program were: Reuban Weappa, Harlan Attleson, Edna Peterson, Miss Loseth, Miss Bentley, Mr. Larson, Clifford Lloyd, Leo Krankkala, and Evelyn Miller. Old Faithful and The Last Roundup were sung by several junior girls.

As for the decorations -- We were all enclosed in a corral, which was wonderfully fixed up. The ceiling and sides were decorated with strips of marroon and gold paper, and with several bells and lanterns on the walls. At one corner of the carral was a fireplace that added much to the beauty of the scenery. The table decorations consisted of stagecoaches, which also cleverly matched and were related to the Western scenery.

After enjoying the banquet we were all taken to Staples to see the show "A Trans-Atlantic Merry Go Round."

From the Annual

For a number of years it has been the custom for the Junior class to give an annual banquet in the honor of the Seniors.

This year the banquet was held at the Swedish Lutheran Church on April 6. The basement of the church was very appropriately decorated to resemble a corral on a Western ranch, the theme of the program being "The Round -up". After a bounteous dinner was served, the following program was given:

Toastmaster.....Roy Jackola
A 1000 Times Welcome.....Reuben Weappa
A 1000 Times"Thank You".....Harlan Attleson
"The Corral".....Miss Loseth
Solo.....Miss Bentley
"The Round-up Begins".....Edna Peterson
"Riding the Circle".....Clifford Lloyd
"Branding".....Leo Krankkala
"The Wind Up".....Mr. Larson
"Beyond the Horizon".....Evelyn Miller
"The Last Round-Up".....Junior Girls

The banquet was wound up by the picture "Trans-Atlantic Merry-go-round" which we saw at Staples.

We, the Senior Class, wish to thank the Juniors and Miss Loseth, their class advisor, for the enjoyable time.

"My heart leaps up!" Well, anybody's would have if they had seen the lovely flower garden where the Juniors and Seniors met on Saturday, April 18. A realistic rainbow with its pot of gold added a fairy-tale touch to the scene. Flowers decked the white fence and trellises, and white stones edged the flower beds.

Viola Ryit, the selected toastmistress,proved that she was well deserving of the honor. The opening number, "The Search" by Wallace Buckley was followed by "Raindrops". The "Echoes" of Mr. Bach's trombone were immensely enjoyed. "The Promise" by the oracle, Mervin Mikkola, revealed the future of the Seniors. "The Rainbow" by Miss Loseth and "Pitter-Patter" by Miss Brandt were in harmony with the setting. Clifford Lloyd reflected on the "Pot of Gold" and Mr. Larson gave a closing talk on"The Sun".

Everyone enjoyed the delicious dinner prepared and served by the Paddock Finnish Ladies' Aid.

After the banquet everyone autoed to Staples to see the show, "Big Brown Eyes".

The Senior class wishes to thank the Juniors for the most enjoyable time.

About 6:45 o'clock I took my station which was immediately outside the schoolhouse door. Ifelt safe there cuz I've attended the Junior-Senior banquet every year although I never have been invited.

As I was saying- about 6:45 the kids started to come. But gee! They didn't look like just common ordinary Juniors and Seniors 'n teachers for they were dressed up and they all looked like a million dollars. No kiddin'! Of all the banquet people I've viewed this was the classiest looking bunch yet.

You bet this was no "amachewer" affair either cuz they had a receiving set just like they have on radiors. I've never seen such politeness in all my life! I never realized those Juniors knew all that stuff but they did! They opened doors, windows and what not for thie superiors - Seniors and teachers. Yes, Ithought Joel Nelson, Clayton Hatlestad, Beatrice Miller, and Dorothy Neldner did pretty well - seeing as how they never did such work before.

I don't know what happened down in the auditorium while I was snaeling through halls to get behind the piano but they must have been having a good times because they surely were making plenty of noise!

Well, I just got in a good position behind the piano when I heard them singing, "Stand up! Stand up!" Id didn't think they had seen me but they evidently had - and this was the first year I had been caught too! I thought I'd show them I'd play fair anyway so up I stood! Boy, I almost did get caught then cuz they weren't even talking to me. They had meant Mr. Larson all the time. That went on all through the meal but after that I just got a bang out of it cuz I knew they didn't mean me.

While I had time I took a good look at the decoations. Oh, they were pretty. The theme was Maytime and the entire auditorium represented a Maypole. There was a large central pole with colored stramers running out to all sides and this formed a wall. There were twenty one card tables on which there were twenty one midget Maypoles for center pieces. Then there were the cutest little nutcups you ever did see! They were silver and leavendar just like quite a few other things were. I guess that must be the class colors or something because I noticed silver and lavender were the colors used most. It surely was pretty in there and it seemed a shame that it was to be torn down.

While they were eating, Woodrow Timo got up and made several speeches. Everybody else laughed but of course I didn't dare. Later I overheard several comments on what a good toastmaster he was. One of his jobs was to introduce the different people who gave toasts (I spose that's what they call them). These toasts further carried out the theme of Maytime. In fact their initial letter spelled M-A-Y-T-I-M-E. Woodrow said something about Marksmanship, then Mae Lloyd, President of the Senior Class acknowledged the welcome given them by the President of the Junior Class, Woodrow. Verdie Wierimaa, with his speech on "Yearning", Miss Oscarson with her "Thrills", Mr. Weiss and his "Inspirations", Joyce Johnson's toast on "Modesty" and Mr. Larson's on "Ethics" completed the toasts to "Maytime".

Oh yes, toast reminds me - they had the best stuff to eat! When the fruit cocktail and wafers were served it didn't make me too hungry but oh boy! did my mouth water when those veal birds, mashed potatoes with mushroom gravy, creamed peas in patty shells, rolls, olives, radishes, celery curls, and crocus cup salad was carried right past me. I had difficulty in controlling my foot which could so easily have reached out and tripped one of those pretty waitresses and had all that food right in my lap, but then I stood chances of getting caught so I didn't.

I spose you'd like to know just who those waitresses were: Well, they were all Sophomore girls, namely; Dorothy Fairbanks, Betty Lou Norgan, Bertha Davidson, Joyce Ahlin, Viola Kinnunen, Mildred Hepola, Arleen Nace, Marie Haugen, Phyllis Eitel, and Elsie Linduala, also Ardelle Pearson and Verna Stephenson. They were dressed in the same colors as were used for the decorations and they really looked nice as did the food which was prepared by the Home Economics Department.

Now to go back to the eats. By the time the third course was served I was just famished so when that Neopolitan Ice Cream and cakes went by me on their way to the tables I just shut my eyes 'cuz I couldn't stand to look at such appetizing food anymore.

After the lovely dinner, the floor was cleared and they settled down to listen to the program, Miss Jordan favored them with a vocal solo. Of course, I was favored too, but I didn't dare clap and express my appreciation. The class history was given by Dorothy Neldner, Mr. Bach played a trombone solo, the Class Will was given by Florence Olson, , there was a selection, "Maytime", by the girls' sextette, the class prophecy was given in the form of a skit by Beatrice and Ervin Miller, the clarinet quartette played two selections, and the waitresses added much to the program by winding the Maypole. Then came the biggest event of the season - the crowning of the Senior May Queen. It was obvious that everybody had looked forward to this moment when they should find out who the queen was to be, for I could hear many excited comments as the Queen, who was chosen by popular vote and her attendants marched to the throne. Yes, you've guessed it! Lila Mattie was the queen and a very lovely queen was she. Her four attendants being Florence Olson, Mae Lloyd, Joyce Johnson, and Viola Holland, When I heard that Mr. Reishus was going to crown the queen I thought, "I hope he deosn't crown her too hard," but I didn't have any grounds for my fear because he placed the silver crown on her head and he didn't hurt her one bit! Lila was alo presented with a lavender and silver banner with the words "Queen of the May".

The queen ruled for the rest of the evening. She and Woodrow led the grand march and then they started to play games. I got the biggest bang watching those supposedly dignified Seniors, Teachers, and Juniors having the time of their lives. I left after everyone else had gone but before I went I took one last fond look at the beautiful decorating. Well, I guess that's about all there is left to tell. Oh, yes! I want to take this opportunity to thank the Juniors for staying in the gym this year instead of going to Staples cuz other years my fun always ended when they were through eating. You see, they never provided a ride for me and so this year I had a real treat. I hope next May 14th will be as pleasant.

Junior-Senior Banquet (School News)

We were waiting breathlessly in the upper corridor when suddenly the doors were thrown open and a pert little waitress informed us, "Dinner is served." Then to the strains of soft music, we chose our partners or were chosen and drifted down the stairs to a starlight atmosphere.

One could scarcely say which couple looked the best, for every boy was handsomely dressed and each girl looked lovely in a gown of some rainbow shade

For a while there was colorful movement as we hunted for our places. Then all was quiet; our toastmaster, Leslie Beldo, asked for a moment of silent grace. For a minute we stood, our heads bowed, faces lit by candlelight, a solemn, thankful group.

The food was delicious and we were waited on hand and foot by a group of Sophomore waitresses. Throughout the dinner we had various toasts and songs. Soon it was over and the Junior boys cleared away the tables and arranged the chairs for the program. It was all very enjoyable but the dancers were liked especially well.

After the program some of the new found dignity was lost by both Juniors and Seniors, and they had contests and played games with joyous abandonment. About midnight, happy but tired we joined in the grand march and after a few turns around the auditorium waved and shouted goodbys to our teachers and friends, before we went out into nature's night, and home.

We, the Seniors of 1940, wish to extend our sincere appreciation to the Junior Class, and to Mr. Weiss, their advisor, for the banquet given in their honor.

May 9, 1941

The Junior-Senior banquet was held at the school auditorium Saturday evening and places were set for approximately 160 persons.

There are 61 seniors in the Sebeka high school this year and 60 juniors and this was one of the most pleasant affairs of its kind ever held in the local school. Patriotic decorations prevailed throughout and a military program was carried out.

The program was as follows: CONFIDENCE CONQUERS: DOUBT DEFEATS. Donald Stoskopf, Toastmaster. Part 1--Pledge to the Flag: Entire Assembly; Salute: Donald Stoskopf; Colors: Violet Pudas; Confidence: Boyd Wetter; Conquers: Miss Lindberg; Doubt: Frances Paurus; Defeats: Mr. Larson; Song (God Bless America): Entire Assembly. Plans for the reunion of the class of '38 of the Sebeka high school, to be held at the Greystone hotel in Detroit Lakes, Sunday, June 22, have been nearly completed according to members of the class who volunteered to make the arrangements.

At the senior "skip day" in 1938 the class agreed to hold a reunion after three years, and since the skip day dinner was held at Detroit Lakes it was suggested that the reunion be held at the same place.

Invitations have been mailed to all of the members of the class requesting that reservations for those who plan to attend be made before June 14, at $1.00 a plate.

Lila Mattie is credited with giving the reunion plans the initial push, and with several other members of the class, the necesdary arrangements were made.

No other class in history of the the school has ever carried out plans for a reunion. Answers to letters written to all of the members of the class indicate that at least 22 of the 30 members of the class would be able to attend. Some were prevented from coming because of distance or work.

Members of the class have scattered to many states from Illinois to California, but the majority are in Minnesota.

Five of the members, all girls, are married, and to their husbands and faculty members, who attended the 1938 senior day, invitations were extended.

June 27, 1941

The first reunion of any class of Sebeka high school was realized Sunday, June 22 when 12 members of the class of 1938 motored to Detroit Lakes for an all day outing, including a 2 p.m. banquet at the Graystone Hotel in Detroit Lakes, swimming at Shoreham, boating on Detroit Lake, and a carnival in Detroit Lakes in the evening.

The group, slightly smaller than anticipated, left Sebeka shortly after 10 a.m. arriving in Detroit Lakes at noon. Sightseeing was the main attraction before dinner at the Graystone Hotel, and after dinner the group went to Shoreham, where the senior day in 1938 was spent.

Dancing in the pavilion, swimming and walks through the scenic park there occupied the early afternoon and during the rest of the afternoon the group drove around the many lakes and generally enjoyed the seenery.

A short business meeting was held about 8 p.m. at Shoreham. There the group went on record in favor of the organization of an active Alumni Association for Sebeka high school, an organization that might function at a Homecoming football game and otherwide a general booster for the local school. It was further decided to hold the next reunion in 1945, and Bemidji made a successful bid for the event. In planning the next reunion it was pointed out that this year's meeting came after three years, the next one will be in four years, and after that the reunion would be planned for every five years. The group generally favored the plan.

The reunion came at the right date for at least two of the class members, since neither Alpha Aarnes or Ted Siirila would have been able to come next week. Ted left for a year in Uncle Sam's armed forces Tuesday.

Members who attended were Ida Quale, Viola Holland, Joyce Johnson, Lila Mattie, Hazel Siltala, Harry Sanford, Ted Siirila, Leslie Kela, Bill Matta and Raymond Raatikka of Sebeka, Alpha Aarnes of River Falls, Wis. and Ervin Miller of Bemidji. Harry Wickman was a special guest of Hazel Siltala.

The class hoped that by going through with this reunion, at all costs, it would set a precedent that might be followed by previous or succeeding classes.

The success of its first reunion may serve as encouragement to go through with subsequent reunions for the 1938 class.

*(Dec. 22)

Yuletide! A feathery white blanket of snow on the ground, the cold, crisp crunch of feet on the packed down, and over it all the silvery gleam of the myriad of stars--all these herald the Christmas season! What time of the year should be gayer and more festive than the season of eager anticipation, and what could be more fittingly expressive of the joy of youthful hearts than music? Again this year our band of Choristers have endeavored to give to you the Christmas spirit through song with the hope that you have enjoyed it as fully as they have.

On Wednesday night the air was filled with their melodies ringing and swinging in sincere delight. The words of those old carols have again heralded the season with

A voice, a chime, and a chant sublime
Of peace on earth, good will to men!
Merry Christmas!

From "The Arcadian"

The musical organizations of Sebeka are rather a new introduction, and so have very few rules or set principles to follow. Both Glee Clubs are organized in the fall of the year and all individuals who are interested in music are invited to participate in the try-outs. Practices for the High School group are sceduled for Tuesday and Thursday at four and the Junior High for the same hour on Monday and Wednesday.

Additional interest was created during the past year by the decision of both groups to participate in the annual district festival held at Brainerd. Suitable costumes were selected and the choruses made their practice appearance in Sebeka the night of the Junior Classplay. The showing made at Brainerd by both the choruses was remarkable considering that it was a first experience. The schools competing were: Little Falls, Brainerd, Staples, Wadena, Crosby Ironton, Pine River, and Sebeka. Mr. Archie Jones of the University of Minnesota served as judge and critic.

The challenge made by Sebeka this year should now serve to interedt more in music, and should prove that though material may be slightly more limited than in larger schools, yet through determination and work, that quality, not ummbers, is the all important factor.

Tryouts have been held for boys' and girls' glee blubs. Forty girls and fifteen boys have enrolled. If an operetta can be realized this year, all voices will be used. After the xprix operetta, elimination will be made for the music festival in the Spring. The girls' practice on a forty minute operetta which will be given in the assembly.

The election of officers for the Girls' Glee Club took place Wednesday after school. It was voted and decided that Frances Haugen be the president and Eleanor Larson the Secretary. Parts for the operetta were also voted on and a group of girls are to type the parts to be given out. Miss Bentley played over two parts to be given on the piano for our choice. One operetta will be given later on in the season in front of the assembly, which will take forty minutes.

Tuesday night the Junior and Senior Glee Clubs went caroling at several homes in Sebeka. They were treated popcorn balls and candy by Evelyn Miller, When they were through caroling they were also served a lunch by Mrs. J.O. Nelson. The evening was enjoyed immensely by everyone participating.

The High School Glee Club is practicing daily for the Operetta to be given a short time after Christmas.

"TulipTime"

The High School Glee Club entertained an appreciative audience in the presentation of the operetaa, "Tulip Time". This production was under the capable direction of Miss Bentley.

The leads all deserve highest mention. Lewis Doty splendidly portrayed the part of the great Burgomaster (the chief of police, constable, safety director and fire department); can Lewy really hold all these offices?) The three Americans; Wallace Kumpula, Eugene Anderson, and Herman Olson, who game to Osenberg, Holland to study botany, learned more about the two lips of Ione Ahlin, Sybil Carstans, and Dorothy Mae O'Neil than tylips. Who didn't enjoy listening to Christina and Katinka? Of course, we all felt sorry for Wallace, the professor of bontany, - "What could be finer than Botany?" because he was falsely accused, but there was one person who knew McSpindle wasn't a crook. Thanks to Anna, part played by Ione, for letting poor Mr. McSpindle out. And, certainly, all enjoyed watching Leo Krankkala and the red-haired, jolly Hans directing the dancers in such a clever manner. Anyone who wishes to learn to dance like Katinka may go to the Krankkala residence. Hans will be willing to teach you - especially the girls.

Last but not least comes the chorus which did exceptionally well also in making the operetta a big success. The entrances and exits were well-timed and well executed, while the singing added much to the atmosphere of the performacex which was further augmented by the attractive blue and white aostumes and the wooden shoes.

Evelyn Miller was the able accompanist. To Miss Bentley goes the credit for the performance of this fine operetta. She was assisted in the final presentation by Albert Krankkala, Harlan Attleson, and Raymond Jacobson, who managed the lights and curtains, and Miss Charlotte Loseth, who supervised the make-up. Ray Foland assisted with the stage properties.

The Entr' Actes attraction consisted of a Kitchen Kabinet Orchestra which caused much merriment.

The Junior band which is under the direction of Mr. Nurmi, has been rendering some very excellent pep numbers during the basket ball games. This helps add much more color and pep to the games.

Members of the band are as follows: Cornet Players: Emmet Solmonson, Leo Stewart, Clayton Arnold, Herman Olson, and Stanley Jackola. Baritone: Wallace Kumpula, and Harvey Nurmi. Saxaphone: Albert Krankkala and Billy Young. Slide Trombone: Carlton Bengston and Eitel. Altoes: Roger Jackola and Duane Corbin. Drum: Bob Johnson. Bass: GeorgeEitel.

Our Junior and Senior choruses attended the music festival at Brainerd, Saturday, April 27. The festival was held at the Washington High School. The schools participating were Aitkin, Brainerd, Crosby-Ironton, Little Falls, Staples, Wadena, Pine River, Sebeka, and Verndale.

The program consisted of both vocal and instrumental numbers. Sebeka Junior chorus sang "The Royal Minuet", in the morning program; the Senior Chorus sang "Dreaming", in the afternoon program. Both choruses did very well.

In the evening the massed bands presented two numbers in the gymnasium. The cantata, "the Erl-King's Daughter" was sung by combined senior mixed choruses in the auditorium.

The program was very enjoyableand marked improvement over last year's presentation was shown in some lines.

The members of the Junior Chorus are: Beverly Hanson, Alice Lyman, Gladys Salmela, Norma Buckley, Ruth Timo, Joyce Ahlin, Ardelle Pearson, Iris Sanford, Jane Larson, Ardis Ryti, Arline Nace, Florence Salmela, Dorothy Neldner, Veita Lou Corbin, Verla McNurlin, Elma Savela, Verna Stephenson, Arline Edmundson, and Mildred Hepola. Beatrice Miller is accompanist.

The members of the Senior chorus are: Betty Larson, Ardelle Collins, Verna Salmela, Vernice Ritari, Ardyth Hendrickson, Edna Peterson, Ione Ahlin, Gladys Edmundson, Vivian Hendrickson, Lillian Lidtke, Julia Edmundson, Eleanor Larson, Frances Haugen, Violet Shaver, Dorothy Mae O'Neil, Florence Olson, Helen Jackola, Elsie Pearson, Irene Savela and Joyce Johnson. Accompanist: Evelyn Miller.

Sunday morning, if you are up early enough you may view the Senior Chorus out for an early morning hike, after which they will prepare breakfast in the woods.

The Junior Chorus members are going for a hike and supper on Wednesday evening. They don't believe in rolling out of bed so early.

The choruses are preparing numbers for Baccalaureate and Commencement. At the latter, they will introduce a new member of the outgoing Senior class.

The members of the Junior Chrous, under the supervision of Miss Bentley, had a very enjoyable picnic Wednesday evening, May 15. They Had supper near a bridge, east of town, after which they played games.

The Senior Chorus picnic was not less memorable. An early breakfast was prepared in the woods, last Sunday morning. They also participated in games after the meal. No doubt, some of the after effects showed on Monday, such as drowsiness and stiff limbs.

The Junior Chorus is preparing to sing the "Royal Minuet" by Beethoven at Baccalaureate on Sunday. The Senior Chorus and the Senior Class will introduce a farewell number at Commencement exercises.

Plans are now being made toward the organization of a school band and orchestra. Questionaires have been sent out to students from the fifthe to the twelfth grades, and from the questionnaires there will be large classes of students in all sections. Definite practice periods will soon be set up and the instrumental work will be under way very shortly.

After the first week or so of confusion and disorder, when we are settled down into the routine of study, we should again turn music-minded.

The grade and Junior High School pupils have soon to look forward to an operetta which Miss Brandt will give as soon as possible.

Later, probably not until after Christmas vacation, the Senior High School will begin practicing its operetta.

In the spring, of course, we shall anticipate the Brainerd trip. Probably we shall be accompanied by the band, under the instruction of Mr. Bock.

Get those vocal chords in order, now! .

More students are joining the instrumental classes each day at school. Mervin Mikkola is now studying Bass, Marjorie Linnell has taken up the Snare Drum, and Joel Nelson has chosen the Trumpet as his instrument. Betty Larson is now making arrangements to begin on the Mellophone. Several other students have expressed their desire to join in the near future. Arrangements are being made to secure drum equipment in the near future consisting of a Bass Drum, Cymbals, and a Drum Pedal for use in the Orchestra.

There will be a parents' meeting next Wednesday evening, October 2, at 7:30 in the High School Assembly. All parents are urged to attend this meeting to talk over instruction probelems, home practice, and other problems relating to the Instrumental work.

According to the number of girls enrolled, we should have excellent Glee Clubs this year. The Junior High Glee Club has an estimate of fifty members. The Senior Glee Club has an enrollment of about thirty. They have been working on "A Happy Song" and "Autumn Woods"

The schedules are:

Junior High

Tuesday 4 P.M.
Wednesday 11:15 A.M.

Senior High

Monday	4:00 P.M.
Wednesday	3:15 P.M.
Thursday	4:00 P.M.

Joyce Johnson has purchased a new clarinet and is practicing with the beginners' group. Ervin Pyre is studying the trombone with and Donald Kleen the baritone. Gordon Young will enter the beginners' drum section at their first rehearsal.

We now have a complete set of Instruction books for all instruments. The method is "Groundwork to Orchestral" playing by Claude Rader. This book is one of the best on the market for beginning Instrumental instruction.

Weare looking forward to a steady and continued growth of our Instrumental groups.

Did you know that Miss Brandt has sent for operetta books and will soon choose one for the Junior High Glee Clubs, so that they can begin working on it?

The Junior High boys are very enthusiastic about a Boy's Chorus and will probably have two practices a week on Tuesdays and Thrusdays.

The Senior Chorus has been working on "Sleepy Hollow Tune" and the Junior Chorus, several different selections, one of which is "Little Dutch Garden".

More students are enrolling each week for Instrumental Music. The members of the Drum section will include Betty Wetter, Gordon Young, Marjourie Linnell, and Woodrow Timo. The Drum practices on Wednesday mornings from eight to nine o'clock. Within the next few weeks a Bass drum and accessories will be ordered.

Three more students have enrolled in the Beginners Violin group. They are: Billy Arnold, Florence Salmela, and Fona Lee Dorn. The Advanced Violin section now has a total of ten students.

Virginia Burgen has ordered a circular Alto and Dorothy Mae Neldner has ordered a clarinet. These instruments should be here within the next few days. Paul Agrimson has started on the Baritone. There is now a total of thirty eight students now studying Instrumental Music.

There are forty five students now enrolled in instrumental music in the Sebeka School. Beginning with a small number of students at the beginning of the school year in September, there has been an added enrollment each week.

All students who are planning to enroll should do so as soon as possible in order for the sections to be made complete and that a longer period of instruction may be possible before the close of the school year next spring.

The sections that are in need of added strength are the saxaphone, cornet, horn, trombone, baritione, and bass. Beginners who have no preference should choose an instrument from one of the above sections.

Virginia Burgau is now with the Beginners' group studying the Mellophone. She purchased the instrument last week and it is a fine one. Ellen Latvala has purchased a Baritone and is playing in the Beginners' group.

The school has ordered a BB flat Sousaphone for use in the band. This instument is greatly needed and Mervin Mikkola will be transferred from the E flat to the BB flat Sousaphone.

June Engen and Fona Lee Dorn have been promoted from the Beginners' Violin group to the Advanced group on account of the interest and progress taken in their instruments.

More cornet and trombone players are needed in the Band. Efforts are being made to complete the instrumental groups by Christmas vacation and those who haven't joined do so at once.

The band is now practicing as an organization and not in segregated groups. Practice periods for Band are on Monday and Thursday after school. The beginners' band class is practicing on Tuesday and Friday after school. Members of the beginners' band who started during the past month are: Ervin Miller, Fern Jane Loween, Raymond Komula, Virginia Burgau, Arleigh Becker, Martin Wuollet, Kenneth Young, Ellen Latvala, Elmer McCormick, Murlyn Pudas and Blanche Collins.

The orchestra as an organization was formed immediately after the Christmas vacation. Starting with the violin section as a nucleus and adding various instruments regularly, the orchestra is forming into a well balanced organization. Orchestra practice is every Wednesday after school.

Woodrow Timo has purchased a snare drum, and Betty Wetter has ordered a new Singerland drum that will add greatly to the band instrumentation. Gordon Young has been selected for the bass drummer in the band.

Sheets showing qualifications for the Band and Orchestra awards have been handed out and most of the members are now busy studying for the various qualifications. Examinations will begin in the near future for Band and Orchestra members who believe they have completed the qualifications.

Woodrow Wilson,our war time president, has this to say regarding the value of music: " " The man who disparages music as a luxury and non-essential is doing the nation an injury. Music now, more than ever before, is a national need. There is no better way to express patriotism than through music."

The Senior High Glee Club recieved their contest music,and they have begun work on it. The selection is a three-part arrangement entitled "Within a Dreaming Harbor". It is fully as pretty as its name. It was thought desirable to obtain the music early so that by Spring it would be worked up well and all the flaws would be eliminated.

Did you know that there were cowboys and cowgirls in the school? Some night during operetta practice, peek through the keyhole of the door leading to the music room, and you perhaps will Be fortunate enough to see them go through their aalisthenics.

On Wednesday evening, February 19, the Sebeka High School Band and Orchestra will make its first appearance before the parents of the Band and Orchestra members. The program will begin at eight o'clock and will last for one hour.

All parents and those interested in having their boys and girls as members of the instrumental organizations are urged to attend the concert. An interesting and instructive program has been arranged toward which the tow organizations have been practicing diligently.

A Band and Orchestra concert was given in the Memorial Hall Wednesday evening, February 19.

For having started our Band and Orchestra only this year we have quite a large group in each - forty one band members and twenty-one in the orchestra.

Wednesday night the band and orchestra made their first presentation before the public. The concert was immensely enjoyed by everyone present. Thursday afternoon they played before the assebly for the benefit of the students.

A great deal of progress has been handicapped by the fact that new members have been added now and then and various promotions have been made. However, now that the classes have been definitely organized so that real progress can be made, we hope that Sebeka will soon have a band and orchestra to be proud of.

"You press the first valve down, and the music goes 'round and' round!"

The music certainly did go 'round and 'round when the Sebeka High School Orchestra played for the Senior Class play last Friday, Mardh 27. The songs they played were: 1. "Higher, higher--" No, I'm not referring to an airplane ride. Iam just quoting from the "The Call", which is the Senior Girls' Glee Club's contest number. An idea of the nature of the song can be obtained from the first few lines of the selection:

"Love comes laughing up the valley,
Hand in hand with hoyden Spring,
All the flower people nodding,
All the feather folk a-wing."

It is a light, gay little Spring tune, fairly zipping up and down the scales, and carrying one along with it as it tells of flowers, birds, mountain mysteries, and the hoydenish nature of the loveliest season of the year.

The Junior Girls' Glee Club have selected "Wings of the Morning" as their contest number. The first few lines of this little spring selection are:

"The morning has wings.
They bear me up on snowy pinion feet,
To where the skylark soars with note so sweet."

The song also brings out the idea that, even though we are discouraged one day, each sunrise brings renewed birth, and life is again perfect.

The Junior High operetta, "Jerry of Jericho Road", which was given Friday, March 6, was a big success. Much previously unknown talent was discovered, as was portrayed by the remark of one mother after the operatta.

"Why, I didn't know my son could sing a note!" she exclaimed, very much astonished.

In reality, her son and all the others gave a very creditable performance.

The Senior High Glee Club has received another selection entitled "The Call". They will choose either that piece or "Within a Dreaming Harbor" as their contest number.

A Band Concert will be given during "National Music Week" at the Memorial Hall. A specific date will be set later.

All Band members please take notice of the following constitution. If there are any changes to be made or any amendments to be added, please bring them up at the special Band meeting which will be held this week to adopt a constitution.

The Glee Club girls have become dressmakers--at least that is what one might think according to all the talk about sewing, fitting, patterns, etc. When the Senior High members get all togged out in their yellow and brown, and the Junior High in pink and brown, they'll be knockouts!

But why all the talk about dresses? Why, didn't you know the music festival is Saturday, April 25, at the Wadena High School Auditorium? Both Glee Clubs are going to the festival, determined to do their best.

The Glee Club is quite an improtant activity in Sebeka High School. Three Glee Clubs are organized this year under the direction of Miss Brandt. Mr. Bach was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening, October 1, when the members of the Band and Orchestra and their parents gathered at the Memorial Hall for a party in appreciation of his work with the musical division. Several numbers were played by the Band and Orchestra. Miss Loseth sang and a Hindu Folksong and Miss Schofield sent forth the strains of Estrilita from her violin.

Dr. Borgerson, who acted as toastmaster, presented to Mr. Bach a director's stand from the band and orchestra. He also presented a baton which will be used by the drum major.

"Miss Cherryblossom", the operetta presented by the Junior High School on October 29, was well attended. Beautiful costumes and seenery added to the singing and dialogue so that one felt as though he were really in Japan, witnessing the performances of Kokemo, Cherryblossom, the Geisha girls, and the rest of the cast.

If one were watching closely on Tuesday, he might have seen the Senior High girls filing out of town, all dressed to go tobogganing. The were bound for the hill near Holland's. It isn't necessary to relate the good time they had, for wherever there is a hard snow-packed hill and a toboggan, a "heap of fun" is hovering near. The girls later treked back to town and went to a cafe, where they enjoyed hot chocolate.

Plans are being made to organize a Senior Mixed Chorus. Of course it is impossible to have a mixed chorus of just girls, so boys who can sing are in great demand. Let's go out and do our stuff!

Practice for the Christmas program has been in full swing the last few weeks. The Senior Mixed Chorus will sing "Oh Silent Night", the Senior High Girls will render "Mattinata" and the Junior High Girls will sing "Tributes Bring".
by

The Glee Clubs have added to the holiday spirit caroling; the Senior girls made the rounds on Tuesday evening, and the Junior girls on Wednesday.

A Band concert will be given some time this month. The proceeds will be added to the amount already received for uniforms. A large crowd attended the concert last year and we hope for a still larger crowd this year.

Mr. Bach is planning to stage a band play which may be given at the same time as the concert. A synopsis has been received and Mr. Bach has sent for futher material concerning the play. "Music in the Air" is the name.

The American Legion Auxiliary will give a play about the first of March, which will also be given for the benefit of the band.

Several members of the beginners' band have been promoted to the senior band.

The Junior High girls are working on "Stars of the Summer Night" by West, which they will sing at the music festival in the spring.

Efforts are being put forth to organize both a Junior High boys' glee club and a Senior Mixed Chorus, so that they may also take part in the music festival.

As for "The Gypsy Rover", the Senior High operetta, that is chuck full of melody and rhythm,--watch for further announcements.

Junior and Senior High try outs were held in the past two weeks and both groups are now organized.

The Junior High operetta will be given some time in the near future. Try outs will be held next week.

The Senior High is doing sextet work now. You'll probably be hearing them at assemblies.

The Junior High have chosen their operetta and what do you think it is??--namely, "Tom Sawyer,"a rollicking comedy. Trouts were held last week and the cast will be chosen soon.

The Senior High is practicing group and sextet work. They are succeeding fine.

"No, no! B! Play it like it's written! Start again on the second strain. We'll take it about this fast: 1 and 2 and 3 and--etc. Alright, let's go!"

This is what you'd hear if you perchanced to pass the band room during rehearsals. Nevertheless all of the students do not abide by Mr. Bach's commands and we must listen to the platitude once again.

Rehearsing the numbers listed on the band program taken up most of our time, but Mr. Bach seems to always manage to squeeze in time in which to give us instructions on scales. We all suppress our feelings at this command by proclaiming a ferocious groan. Here's hoping we find greater pleasure in playing scales. Let's remember that:- "Scale-playing paves the way for successful musicians."

The Senior Girls' Glee Club is working very diligently on a piece entitled, "Lift Thine Eyes" which you will probably be hearing sometime in the future. Oh, and lest we forget - the girls are getting black skirts and white sweaters to wear. Won't they look nice some night dressed up so fine?

The mixed chorus practiced last Friday and it sounded fine, especially when they sang,-"Billy Boy". (The song Beatrice Miller dearly loves.)

The girls in Junior High have been practicing "The Green Cathedral" and "Brahms Lullaby" to sing at Menahga. This trip to Menahga has been postponed temporarily.

Our uniforms are completed and are very cute. We have blue fitted jumpers with little white blouses.

"Nancy Lee", "Three Crows", and "Captain Jinks" are the songs the boys will sing at Menahga. Their contest number is "John Peel".

The mixed chorus number for the contest will be "Sleepers Awake".

The Junior High Glee Clubs are going to Wadena Friday, April twenty-second. The Music Festival is in the evening.

Thursday at three o'clock marked the time for the last Band rehearsal before it went on the stage in the Wadena auditorium to play their four numbers during the festival which was held Friday evening at 7:30.

Onlookers would have believed that the majority of the boys had very recent attacks of appendicitis by the terrible groans, byt the reason wasn't so very serious - they couldn't occupy the new bus for the journey to Wadena.

Fun! did you ever hear of a group of school girls that didn't have a grand time together? Well, then you certainly missed out on something - namely, the fun we had on the buses. On the way we exercised our vocal chords by singing songs and giving yells for our bus driver and Band director.

Immediately after we arrived in Wadena, we went to our assigned room, where our instruments were tuned.

The following bandsplayed: - New York Mills, Staples, Wadena, and Sebeka.

Our school Band played the following numbers: - Lost Chord, Choral-Sullivan; Gallantry, Overture-Wesley; Evening Shadows, Serenade-King; Prinness Tip Tow, Caprice--LeRoy.

That night "all roads led to Wadena," and Friday, April 22, the roads will again lead to Wadena for the Glee Club Festival. Good Luck!

Tonight ninety-six of our students from the Junior and Senior High will go down to Wadena for the Vocal Music Festival. Our school will be well represented with six different groups participating.

The Junior Girls Glee Club will sing "Green Cathedral", the Junior boys, "John Peel", and the Junior Mixed Chorus, "Sleeper Wake".

In the Senior High, the Girls' Glee Club will sing "Lift Thine Eyes" and the Senior Mixed Chorus an arrangement of the old favorite "All Through the Night". A girls sextette will sing "Rain" by Pearl Curran.

The judge for the festival is from Moorhead State Teachers College.

The high point of the music festivities in Sebeka this year will be a concert on May 4th by two professional artists of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra. Sebeka is growing musically and this growth is manifested by the engagement of Karl Scherer, a foremost violin virtuoso and by Henry Williams, a national ranking harpist, who needs no introduction to the people of the Northwest.

Making the concert especially fitting is the fact that it has been engaged for National Music Week. An enjoyable program has been arranged that all will enjoy. The program will be of special interest to the music students and music lovers of this vicinity.

The Band and Orchestra are sponsoring this concert and proceeds will be used to buy equipment to further the work of instrumental music in the Sebeka High School. An advanced ticket sale will be made and we wish to have a packed auditorium so that we may show the people of the state that we too enjoy the finer things of life.

This year's senior high Glee Club is not yet in full swing. The voices have only been tridd out. So far the final group is not selected. Eventually we hope to have a Glee Club everyone will be proud of.

The thpught of a hamburger fry was too graat a temptation to the Senior Girls' Glee Club to overlook, so on Tuesday evening the fry was held, in spite of the chilly weather.

Immediately after reaching the desired place all the girls found dry wood, and before long a large fire was started.

The whole evening was greatly enjoyed by all who attended, and they look forward to having more outings together.

Jr.High

The girls have been singing some very beautiful songs lately, such as "The Magnet and the Churn" and"In The Rose Garden". We will know this week whether or not our glee club will bontinue to be as large as it is at present.

Junior High Glee Club Notes

The girls are improving day by day, so soon we will have an excellent glee club. We all just love to sing, so soon the school won't have a roof on it if we keep it up!

The boys' glee club has just been organized and do they have a good time singing!

Junior High Glee Club Notes

During the girls clee club hour we have been practicing Christmas carols. Christmas is coming soon so we have been learning new songs for the Christmas program.

The boys are having a grand time singing.

On Saturday, May 6, the Glee Clubs went to Staples to participate in the Music Festival held there. The Junior High Boys sang "Bendemer's Stream" and Senior High Girls' Sextet sang "Sleepy Hollow Tune". Both of these groups received "B" rating. The Junior Girls sang "The Little Dustman" and "Country Gardens", the Senior High Girls, "Lo, How a Rose" and "Angels Over the Fields". The Junior High Mixed Chorus sang "The Prayer of Thanksgiving" and "O Month of May". The Senior High Mixed Chorus sang, "Braak Forth O Beauteous, Heaven'ly Light", and "The Cherubim Song".

To our great joy we wish to announce "A" ratings in each of those four groups. To top off a perfect day we listened to the Senior High Mixed Mass Chorus as they sang several beautiful selections under the direction of Carl Thompson who was also the judge and critic of the festival.

The Band Festival at Little Falls was the destination of our Band on May 13, 1939. Immediately upon their arrival they went to the rehearsal for Mass band which lasted till about 12 o' clock. It was under the rehearsal of Mr. Prescott from the University of Minnesota.

At noon they scattered to go to lunch with a final warning to be back at 1:15 to go to another rehearsal. At 4:15 they all assembled for the big moment, the parade. You can well imagine the beauty of all those bands on parade, each band one-half block from the next. The outcome was that Brainerd, far superior to the other bands there, took both trophies; one for the best band and one for the best drum major.

At 8:00 they gathered once more to participate in the evening concert. Besides the band selections there were several soloists. We can well be proud of their accomplishment.

Our band has worked hard and we hope they had an excellent time. More power to them!

Mr. Gerald Prescott, band director of the University of Minnesota, was the judge of this contest.

The Sebeka High School Band was given an excellent record, an "A". The selections which our band played were "March Collegiate" and "Dauntless Overture".

We sincerely hope that the contest can again be held in Sebeka at a future time for the enthusiasm of the local people and their large attendance at this contest showed their interest in, and appreciation of, this activity.

We were very anxious to find out how well the motion pictures of the band performing its formations, taken at the New York Mills-Sebeka football game held here previously, turned out. On Tuesday these motion pictures were shown during assembly and the band members were able to know how well they "screened".

The violin class has been increased by a few more pupils. They are Leona Nelson, Gladys Wallgren, and Lester Timo.

As the house lights were dimmed the audience was greeted by the music of an old fashioned square-danceand a group of farms boys and sunbonnet girls swung into action to present "Polished Pebbles".

The picturesque costumes added gaiety and color to the event and the lighting effects placed special emphasis on the high points of the story.

The characters and chorus alike must be complimented for their good performance, and Miss Engebretson for her capable direction. The operetta was a success from every standpoint.

Plans are being made by the Band to attend the Staples band clinic to be held there on December 9.

The morning will be spent in lessons and the afternoon in rehearsal. The sextet is planning to perform at Staples also.

The band attended the Band Clinic at Staples on Saturday, December 8.

Sectional rehearsals took place in the morning and from 3 to 5 P.M. the Mass Band rehearsed.

In the evening the Mass Band Concert was held with 425 students participating under the leadership of Mr. Hertz, director of the high school band of St. Cloud. The Sebeka High School Brass Sextet composed of Allan Cohrs, Harry Isakson, Harold Kvanvig, Duane Corbin, Clayton Arnold, and Orville Eitel played a number in the evening.

The Sebeka Drum Majors along with the Brainerd Drum Majors gave a twirling demonstration during the last number of the program.

All the band members were very tired when they had returned, but they had an enjoyable time and it is believed they profited bery much at this Band Clinic.

The band has been practicing novelty and stunt numbers to be played at basketball games. A fine example was given during assembly last Friday and also at the game Friday evening. These novelty numbers help to make the basketballl games very enjoyable.

The girls are finishing up the new songs which they are learning and have chosen they song they will sing at the Music Festival this spring. They are looking forward anxiously to attend this Music Festival which will be held at Crosby Ironton, on May fourth.

A sextet composed of Joyce Ahlin, Marie Haugen, Mildred Hepola, Arleen Nace, Ardelle Pearson, and Verna Stephenson has been organized recently.

The flutes, horn, saxaphones, cornets, and brass sextet performed at the Finnish Festival held Feb. 10 at the auditorium. We hope two of our band members will be back soon----Billy Arnold and Clinton Anderson. (Clinton has been forced to discontinue band for a short time due to sinus trouble.)

The Band has started working on their contest selection for the Band Contest which will be held sometime this spring. The selection is one of the Grieg selections.

The Band played at the School Carnival Friday evening, March 1. "Officer of the Day" is the title of the march selection the Band has recently learned.

The Beginners' Band is progressing very nicely and the members have just about finished their first book "Step by Step", and before long they'll be playing from the "Transition Band Folio".

The Sebeka high school band on Saturday, May 10th, attended the Central Minnesota Band Festival held at Little Falls. The day was spent in rehearsing numbers for a mass band concert to be held in the evening under the leadership of Floyd Swartley of Duluth, who is ~~supervising~~ supervisor of instrumental music in that city. There were over three hundred students in that group.

In the afternoon a parade was held in which all of the bands took part. A shower of rain came up which dampened the uniforms, but not the spirit of the players, because they continued on through the rain. The uniforms of the Sebeka band have been improved by the addition of stripes on the side of the trouser legs and in the parade presented a striking appearance and their marching was commended by the judges.

March 28, 1941

The Sebeka High School band participated in the band concert at Brainerd Tuesday evening in which ten bands from neighboring schools took part. On May 10 the band will enter the school band contest at Little Falls.

There were no ratings given but all of the groups received very favorable criticisms and compared very well with any other of the similar groups.

In addition to Mr. W.C. Larson, Paul Marvin and Dorothy Crowther accompanied the students.

HONORS

Nov.7, 1919: School Notws: In a spelling contest last Friday in grades six, seven, and eight, the following were the winners: Eighth, Alma Mattila, seventh, Alice Hanson, sixth, Merle Stewart.

Nov.21, 1919: The results of spelling down show the following winners: Grade8: Lila Helppie; Grade 7: Chester Helppie; Grade 6: Nanva Hyrkas; Grade 5: Clifford Helppie.

It is an unusual and meritorious fact worthy of emulation, that three of those successful represent only one family.

Dec. 26, 1919: Winners in the spelling contest last week were: 5th grade: Clifford Helppie; 6th grade: Elaine Ruona; 7th grade: Chester Helppie; 8th grade: Norman Niemi.

Feb.13: Because of the earnest demand, the weekly spelling contest for a ribbon, has been introduced in the third and fourth grades, also. The little folks are just as eager to win, provide fully as much competition and arouse the same enthusiasm as those in the older grades do. The idea of winning appeals to them and, since in all of life's activities, there is more or less of this element, it is well to stimulate it early. The zeal created for the subject alone, however, is worth the effort it takes. The winners last week were: 3rd Grade--Gladys Niemi, 1; 4th Grade--Bertil Nelson,1; 5th Grade--Gladys Kleven, 4; 6th Grade--Merle Stewart, 3; 7th Grade--Chester Helppie, 4; 8th Grade--Olga Dorn, 2.

BOY SCOUTS

Jan.30, 1920
School Notes:
"The organization of the Boy Scouts has been begun and thus far the following have been designated:

Beaver Patrol: Leader: James Mulrov; Kenneth Olson, Eugene Gaer, Chester Carlson, Joseph Stenson, Norman Niemi, Willie Abramson.

Flying Eagle Patrol: Dwight Farr;Leader; Lewis Jenson, Algot Carlson, Iner Stenson, Harry Isherwood, William Wirkkala, Floyd Daggett, and Eni Swanson.

Eagle Patrol: Foster Dorn: Leader; Everett Helppie, Harold Olson, Waino Wirkkala, Dean Densmore.

As they satisfy certain qualifications the boys pass successively thru various grades of scouts; three in number. At present nearly all are working on the qualifications for the first grade. It is not an easy task and the work must be done outside of school hours. However, the boys are eager and the movement interesting, so we may expect an enthusiastic organization.

Oct.28, 1932

The Boy Scout troop of Sebeka No. 57, left Sebeka Friday Oct.14, to spend the night and all day ~~Saturday~~ Saturday at the Johnson cottage ~~on~~ at Big Pine lake.

G. Mattson agreed to take the troop out there and back alive,but most of us thought we would never see Pine Lake or Sebeka again. Our hearts arose ~~and~~ as he turned the corners for fear of the sides falling off.

When we got to the cottage we started preparting supper on the stove but Mr. Weiss was so ambitious that he went outside to prepare his supper.

After supper Verdi Mattson tuned up his old banjo adn we "oiled" our throats; then we tried to sing some favorites ~~which~~ which proved a success.

When it came time to go to bed we were inclined to indulge in boxing and pillow fights and as a result Mr. Weiss found it necessary to inflict punishment upon half a dozen of us by spanking.

When morning came it was late for Verdi Mattson had beat it by an hour. We all followed his style and started making pancakes.

Later in the morning we warmed up the old pigskin by a good game of touch football. Then Mr. Weiss and Verdi Mattson laid out tracks for tracking which was passed by all ~~tenderfoots~~ tenderfoots.

While we were doing map work, Mr. Weiss and Verdi fixed the "Hunters Stew" for dinner ~~which~~ which was a big success.

In the afternoon after exploring Squaw Point, a large hill on the eastern side of the lake, we returned home safe and sound in the old truck.

From "Sebeka Echoes"

The past year has been an active year of progress with the Scouts. Several changes have been initiated. These changes have proved a distinct betterment to the to the calibre of the organization. A Senior Scout patrol was organized, which later became an Explorer Scout Patrol. The Senior Scouts have held a number of social gatherings, and have made plans for an excursion which will be taken in June through Northeastern Minnesota. Among its other benefits, the paying of weekly dues has proven itself beneficial in promoting thrift by giving the Scouts valuable experiende in managing their own finances. Mr. N. Hultgren, Mr. B. Larson, and Mr. D. Ruoff have lectured at Troop meetings. The Sebeka Commercial Club has taken the Scouts under its wing and has greatly stabilized the organization by financing its Council Fund. At a Court of Honor in Wadena in April the Scouts of Troop 57 were presented the greatest number of awards of any troop at that Court of Honor. We may well be proud of a Scout troop that continues its forward stride with renewed vigor each year.

School Police

This year, for the first time in the history of the school, we have a School Police Patrol to regulate the automobile and pedestrian traffice near the school, thereby reducing the risk of accidents. At an assembly on October 12, Mr. Wictor of the State Department of Highways enumerated the rules and regulations of this service, spoke on the topic of safety and traffic laws, and swore in the first School Patrol. The Boy Scouts have the honor of performing this duty. In addition to the patrol duty the School Patrol has assumed charge of raising and lowering the Flag of the United States of America. This is a laudable act, and merits our sincerest praise.

From "Sebeka Echoes"

Scouting started in Sebeka ten years ago, under supervision of Mr. Walter Miller, and is now the oldest troop in the Park Region District. Among those early scouts were Pete Isherwood, Harlan Attleson, Dick Doty, Louis Doty, Adrian Carstens, Ben Johnson, Blair Nelson, and Verdie Mattson. The sponsoring body was a group of citizens of which Mr. Alden Johnson, Mr. Fred Miller, and Mr. Art Olson were named the committeemen.

The scout troop this year is composed of relatively new boys as many of the old "Scouts" have either graduated from school, or moved away. Among those whose services we miss this year are Raynar Isackson and Woodrow Timo now attending school in Minneapolis, Leo Stewart in the C.C.C. at Réchet, and Bill Johnson attending school at Bemidji.

4-H Short Course

The 4-H Club members of Wadena Country met in the Wadena Memorial Auditorium Saturday, April 9th.

Miss Suntag, of the University Farm, and Mrs. Lang, new county club agent, were the guest speakers in the morning.

The Better Grooming Contest also was a leading event of the morning program. Woodrow Timo, of the Blowers Club, won a free trip to the 4-H short courses in St. Paul which takes place in June. Lila Mattie placed second in the girl's division.

After lunch, Mr. Munch of the Minnesota Conservation Department, gave a very interesting and educational talk on conservation.

Following Mr. Munch's speech, the group was divided into certain classes such as Leadership.

The following High School pupils attended: Mae Lloyd, Lila Mattie, Viola and Geneva Holland, Mildred and Bernice Hepola, Verna and Vivian Loija, Beatrice Miller, Agnes and Richard Kumpula, Helen Nickola, Blossom Morgan, Woodrow Timo, and Owen McCormick.

Correction: The statement, "Three Scout Patrols and one senior were given individual duties", in last week's Scout News should have read as follows: Three Scout Patrols and one patrol of Senior Scouts, were given individual duties, were organized.

At the Court of Honor our Troop obtained the following advancements and badges: Second class--Dale Lynk, Aaron Tappe, Robert Tullis, and Douglas Blakeman; First Class--Leslie Beldo, Douglas Blakeman, Clair Nelson, Clayton Arnold, Billy Arnold, and Carlton Bengtson; Star--Leo Stewart and Sheldon Solmonson; 33 Merit Badges--Leslie Beldo, Leo Stewart, Sheldon Solmonson, Ervin Miller Woodrow Timo, Carlton Bengtson, Douglas Blakeman, and Duane Corbin.

Next Saturday the Scouts plan to motor to Saint Cloud where they will vidit the State Reformatory.

March 18, 1938

On last Saturday Mr. H. Nelson, Mr. Ray Berg, Scoutmaster Weiss, and 16 Scouts left early in the morning for Saint Cloud. Ervin was left behind in the depths of slumber. The poetic fancy of spring no doubt had tied him to the Utopian shores of dreamland.

"In the tired--Changing world" a record of"nothing flat" was established when the auto of Mr. Nelson suffered a (nervous?) collapse in one of her tires.

Several hundred crows were shot (imaginarily); and when they got to town, the camera of Leo Stewart was busy snapping photos of pretty misses.

At St. Cloud they visited the State Reformatory and North Star Granite Works, and "swum 'n' shuffleboarded" in the Technical High School swimming pool.

Returning,at Little Falls it was the Power House and "Lindy's" home.

Still returning, to Staples it was the torunament.

Home; tired, but "rejuvenated".

Our thanks to Mr. Nelson and Mr. Berg.

A big rummage sale, bake sale and lunch is being sponsored for the benefit of the Boy Scouts on Saturday, November 18, between 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m at the Memorial Hall.

Please make it a point to look up all of your discarded or unneeded clothes, shoes, dishes, fruity and coffee jars, etc. Then phone Mrs. Henry Nelson, Mrs. Ted Tebben, or Mrs. Nick Weiss and a scout will collect the articles at your convenience.

Help the scouts by having your Saturday coffee or lunch with us at the hall. Buy your cakes, cookies, pies, and rolls for Sunday dinner.

Keep Saturday, November 18, in mind, when you can do your bit for the local Boy Scout Troop, No. 57.

Presentation of their Charter will be made to the Sebeka Cub Pack at the first Parent-Cub Pack meeting to be held at the school house at 7:30 p.m. Friday, May 23.

A member of the St. Cloud Council will be at Sebeka to present the Charter to the pack, and registered Cubs who have passed their Bob-cat requirements will be given certificates as charter members.

So far we have 12 boys registered and we hope that all the Dens will have 100% registrations before the day of the Pack meeting.

This Pack meeting will be open to the public, parents of Cubs are especially requested to attend. Besides the usual installation program, the cubs will favor with yells, pack songs, howls, and stunts.

Oct. 11, 1940

A Boy Scout rally of the Park Region District was held at Wadena on Thursday, October 3. Troops from Menahga, Wadena, Staples, Bertha, and Sebeka took part under the supervision of Doctor Reichelderfer, who is district commissioner. The following program was presented: Investiture of Cub Scouts--Wadnea Cub Scouts and Cub Master Phillip Fjelsted; Scout Finance: Edward Richter, St. Cloud; Americanism: Doctor Reichelderfer; Tableau: Scouts; Solo and Community Song: Roy Ireland, Wadena.

As the program progressed an ideal camp consisting of three tents, flag pole, and camp fires were erected by the Staples Troop. The entire camp was built in less than eighteen minutes. The tableau was an artistic formation of words created by having scouts hold large cards upon which letters were printed. One of the creations was "Our Motto, Be Prepared", the letters being blue on a white background.

Among those present from Sebeka were Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Nelson, and the entire Sebeka Scout Troop.

March 28, 1941

Did your boy ever say, "Gee, mother, I wish I was old enough to join the Boy Scouts"? Here is his chance, and we hope that he will become a charter member of the Cub Pack which is being sponsored by the PTA.

Cubbing is the program of the Boy Scouts of America for boys 9, 10, and 11 years of age. It gives your son: 1. Chance to play games, perform stunts, engage in handicrafts in the home or back yard. 2. Chances to do things for others. 3. Chances to do these things with his companions under the leadership of trained adults and Boy Scouts. 4. Chance to get an annual health check-up. 5. Preparation to become a Boy Scout at the age of twelve.

Our Local Council requires both the leaders and parents (fathers and mothers) of a prospective Cub to recive information and training before we start a Cub Pack. The cooperation of the parents is absolutely necessary for success, and so you are urged to attend meetings of the parents, the first to be March 27th at 7:30 P.M. at the Sebeka High School.

It looks as though a great many boys will want to join our new Cub Pack, and we hope that you will encourage your son by your attendance.

Trained members of our Local Boy Scout Council will give us a Bird's Eye View of Cubbing and you are assured of a series of plaasant and interesting meetings. Please check the date on your calendar now. Everybne welcome.

April 4, 1942

An interesting meeting of Parents of future Cubs was held at the school house last Thursday. A training team of four mean from Brainerd and Staples were present and conducted a very interesting meeting including a humorous one act skit. They promised more of the same at the next meeting.

Some parents of boys wishing to become Cubs were not present. It is necessary that all parents of Cubs attend the next two meetings on April 3rd and April 7th. After the last meeting the Cub pack will be organized.

If you have a boy of either 8, 9, 10, or 11 years of age you should attend these two meetings. 100% cooperation is essential. Remember the date: April 3rd.

May 23, 1941

Don't forget the Pack meeting of Cubs at School at School Auditorium on Friday night, May 23rd at 8 p.m. sharp.

This first meeting is Charter night so please encourage the boys by your attendance. Remember not only parents of Cubs are wanted to be present, but also all adults and children who can attend.

Cubbing is a game, a play program, and this is not just another "meeting".

Before the opening of the ceremony Cubs will have a few articles of handicraft to exhibit.

Declamation and Spelling Contests

Last Friday afternoon the pupils and teachers of the rural schools in Red Eye and Rockwood ~~fm~~ townships assembled at the Memorial Hall for participation in the spelling and declamatory contest. The purpose of the contest was to select one declamation contestant and one oral spelling and one written spelling contestant for the final county tests to be held later.

Mr. Larson was in charge of the contest and the results were as follows:

On Thursday evening of last week a large crowd of fans were treated to a basketball classic in which the noted "Flying Finns" of New York Mills emerged victorious over the Sebeka Merchants 38 to 37,on the local floor.

In the opening minute of play, R. Doty started the fireworks by sinking a field goal to the Merchants, but the Finns still smarting from the defeat adminstered them by the Merchants several weeks ago, began a desperate attempt to avenge this defeat by scoring nine points in the opening stanza while R. Doty accounted for another goal and one free throw.

Entering the second period of play on the short end of the 9 to 5 score the Merchants settled down in an effort to take the lead. E. Anderson led the scoring for the Merchants in this quarter by adding six points. At this stage the game developed into a speedy exchange of field goals, each man on both teams playing stellar basketball. The half ended with the score standing 15 points for each team.

Both teams took the floor at the beginning of the second half with but one thing in mind, during which time Anderson again led the locals by bringing up his total to 20 points for the game in a flashy display of basket shooting, sinking his shots with the same accuaracy from any spot on the floor. Aided by the fast floor work and consistent breaking up of the oppents' plays by McCollar, the Merchants were in the lead 25 to 24 at the end of the third period of play.

During the final quarter the interest of the fans was kept at its highest by the attempts of each team to gain a deciding lead. So evenly matched were the teams that the lead shifted from one team to the other practically each minute of play. Koski and Deason each played a good defensive game at their gaurd positions and held the fast scoring "Finns"forwards in check and when the final whistle blew the locals found themselves outpointed by one score, 38 to 37.

Anderson and Atkinson led the offense and scoring while Johnson and Persons did the gaarding for the"Flying Finns".

In the second game the girls played and the Gophers defeated the Whigs 19 to 8. However the game which provided the most humor was the foot-basketball game played by a group of high school boys dressed in their football togs. Les Ohngren, dressed as a girl, acted as a referee.

Then came the real game. It was very interesting and our second team were allowed to play two quarters. When the first team returned they ran up a large score and ended the game with a score of 42 for Sebeka and 21 for Backus.

The Sebeka high school basketball team defeated Hewitt Tuesday evening 65 to 22 in a very one-sided game. The Hewitt lads were game fighters but were utterly helpless to stop Sebeka's smooth working scoring machine. The Hewitt boys were evidently not at their best as they met with a car accident on their way here. When just south of Wadena their car skidded on the slippery road and turned over twice into a deep ditch. Some of the boys were bruised and shaken up and this no doubt affected their playing to some extent.

*Feb. 2

The basketball games for this week have been postponed until a later date because of an epidemic of measles. New York Mills will play at Sebeka on February 20. A tentative date has been selected for the Deer Creek game on February 26. The next home game will be with Verndale on February 13.

*Feb.16

The Verndale high school basketball team, with thriee of their first string men out of the lineup, defeated the Sebeka high school team on the local floor by a score of 18 to 15 Tuesday evening in one of the greatest upsets of the year.

Coming here for a return game after losing the first game to Sebeka on their own floor, Verndale did not think that they had a chance to win against Sebeka's experienced and supposedly super-coached team, and the crowd apparently had the same opinion and looked for the locals to win handily. Verndale's newly arranged lineup clicked perfectly and the score was 8 to 5 at the end of the first half. At the beginning of the second half Dick Doty, who had been warming the bench, was put in the game for Sebeka and the locals overcame the three point lead and it was then a battle royal with both teams giving everything they had, but the plucky little Verndale team out-fought and out-played their larger and more experienced rivals and deserved the well earned victory of 18 to 15.

The Sebeka high school basketball team are champions of the sub-district, winning that honor at the sub-district tournament which was held at Staples on on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of last week.

Sebeka won their first game of the tournament Thursday afternoon when they defeated Pequot with ease, as this paper predicted last week. The score was Sebeka 40 and Pequot 13. Pine River defeated Backus Thursday afternoon 37 to 27.

On Thursday evening Sebeka kept in the championship race by decidively defeating Pine River, the score being Sebeka 35 and Pine River 24. On Thursday night New York Mills defeated Verndale in a thrilling game by a score of 32 to 31, in a very hard fought game. The same evening Motley trounced Menahga 33 to 14. Friday evening whle Sebeka had easy going against Pine River, New York Mills and Motley fought a great battle for the right to meet Sebeka in the final game Saturday night. New York Mills finally defeated Motley in two overtime periods by a score of 25 to 24.

The final game of the tournament was played Saturday night and the Sebeka team defeated New York Mills handily by a score of 35 to 23 and were awarded the silver trophy as champions of the tournament. Both New York Mills and Sebeka will enter the district tournament to be held at Brainerd Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Sebeka will play the fast Staples team Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Sebeka basketball fans join with the Review in heartily congratulating the members of the local team for their splendid showing at the tournament and rejoice with them in their well-earned victory. Dick Doty, Sebeka's rangy center, according to experts at the tournament, was the individual star of the tournament and it was largely through his generalship and cool playing that the local boys won the tournament. The other mebers also played exceptionally well and the local team had things their own way throughout the tournament.

Whether it is in baseball or basketball, it is always a battle royal when New York Mills and Sebeka meet and the high school basketball game here Tuesday night between these towns was no exception.

The Mills defeated Sebeka on their own floor a few weeks ago and came here Tuesday evening determined to repeat the dose. The Sebeka lads could not see it that way and put up a battle that was worth seeing, and the final score was 16 to 14 in favor of Sebeka after the hardest fought game of the season.

At the endof the first half Sebeka was in the lead 8 to 7; at the end of the third quarter the Mills lead 13 to 10, but in the fourth quarter the locals forged ahead and won by a two point margin after the hardest fought and closest contest waged on the local floor this season. The Mills gave their best and showed a good brand of basketball, but the locals were out to win and out-fought and out-roughed the visitors enoughto nose out a well-earned victory.

These two fighting teams will meet again at the district tournament at Staples and it will be a contest worth going miles to see.

The Menahga-Sebeka basketball game which was to be played here Friday night, Feb. 23, has been postponed due to an epidemic of measles in Menahga. The Sebeka-Deer Creek game has also been postponed until after the tournament.

The Sebeka Basketball Squad has exhibited an excellent line of Basketball technique during the past season and have won for themselves a place in the upper end of the list for the West half. At the onsought of the yearly tournament the standings were as follows:

New York Mills	4	2	.666

In the first game of the tournament Sebeka won from Pequot. The first string went into the game and piled up a lead of 20 to 3 in the first half. With this comfortable margin coach Foland sent in the second string a few minutes before the half. They played a game equal to that of the first team. The whole Sebeka Squad seems to click perfectly. Pequot increased their score by eleven points while Sebeka raised theirs twenty. The final score at the end of the game was 40 to 13.

Mr. Larson officiated a very clever pep program in honor of those boys who so gallantly earned for us the sub-district trophy at Staples.

Mabel Birkholz, Bonnie Kela, Chester Logan, and Esther Kyrola all gave encouraging pep readings. All members of the basketball squad gave speeches. Roy Jackola's and Dick Doty's were outstanding. Dick presented the trophy to the school. All the boys are enthused about going to Brainard and defeating Staples. Good luck to them!

Mr. Weiss briefly reviewed the Sebeka-Pequot game. Impromptu speeches were given by Miss Bye, Miss Johnson, Miss Carlson, and Beatrice Brownell.

Mr. Foland gave a speech in which he told the school of his pride in the team. There were then a series of songs and yells.

This year more than any other year in her history, Sebeka has shown her school spirit in following the team to Staples as well as in attending the home games. All students who attended the tournament are to be congratulated on their rooting. Who will forget our championship team??????

After winning the sub-district tournament at Staples the Sebeka basketball team went to Brainerd to participate in the District ~~Tournament~~ Tournament. Dick Doty, the captain, was missing from the line-up at Brainerd because of a sprained ankle that he received during the championship game at Staples the week previous.

Our boys were handipapped by the large playing space of the Brainerd floor, forty-six by ~~fmr~~ eighty-two feet. The final score was 46 to 12 in Staple's favor.

Last year the Staples team won all of the conference games during the playing season and were expected to win the tournamnnt, but they were defeated in the first game by the Wadena team.

This year the Wadena team defeated the strong Brainerd team in the final game of the tournament. Wadena also held the Crosby-Ironton team scoreless the first half in the semi-finals.

Last year the Sebeka team played Little Falls in the opening game of the District Tournament.

The second game was played at ~~R~~ Verndale, Sebeka defeating them ~~20~~ 21 to 13. Sebeka took the lead from the beginning and kept it till the end, which is the motto of our boys. This year the team is improving greatly and each player tries to remedy the faults of the previous game.

There will be no more basketball games until after Christmas vacation; so everybody keep out next game on January 11, 1935 in mind.

Sebeka High School snapped out of the slump (or was it lack of practice?) and beat the tall Nevis boys 32 to 29. Sebeka took the lead during the first play and kept it up until the gun went off at the end of the game. They fought hard, showing the fans their strength and accuracy in shooting. The score at the half was 22 to 10. Nevis scored 19 points to our 10 in the second half. Andy Anderson of Sebeka refereed a good game from beginning to end. The basket ball game Friday night might be considered as one of the most exciting games of the season. The whole crowd was kept in a breathless state as first Verndale and then Sebeka forged ahead by a point or two. The little fellow on Verdale's team attracted a bit of attention because of his playing and size in comparison to Harley Attleson. At the end of the half the score was tied.

During the second half the excitement didn't wane. Towards the last minutes of play Verndale was ahead. Harley was given a chance for two free throws and everyone's eyes literally hung on the ball as two clean free throws were made and the winning point scored, ending with 20 to 21 in favor of Sebeka. Roy Jackola also made some sensational shots. Looking through the eyes of the cheering crowd we can say that the whole team was--just swell!

On Thursday night, February 28, the Basket Ball tournament at Wadena began and turned out to be what the spectators had expected - full of color, noise, and excitement. The Wadena and Sebeka bands contributed their part and kept the spirit of excitement along with the various cheering sections. Tap dancing, singing, and boxing continued to entertain the crowd during halves and between games. All in all the tournament was a flare of color with orange, red, blue, gold, and green players weaving in and out upon the basket ball floor.

Of course, the Sebeka-Hewitt game was the one looked forward to and although Hewitt was not far behind during the whole game - Sebeka left the floor with victory to the score of 38 to 30.

On Friday night Sebeka played Pine River. During the first half it seemed as if it were Sebeka's game. The second half of this game was one of the most exciting of the tournament - the crowd was on its feel most of the time - yelling rent the air as first Sebeka and lastly Pine River were one point ahead, ending with 12 to 13 in favor of Pine River. Victory had been so close it seemed impossible that it wasn't ours.

Mr. Reishus, our coach, called a basketball ~~mxkx~~ meeting last week and got the boys ready for practice, which started Monday.

About 20 boys reported. Out of this 20 there were only 5 lettermen back: Ray Stewart, Neil Cunningham, Herman Olson, Stanley Jackola, and Roy Jackola.

Names of the other boys are as follows: Bert Johnson, Leonard Carmen, Ray Helppie, Wally Kumpula, Ted Siirila, Myles and Harry Sanford, Gene Anderson, ~~xlix~~ Alvin Siemsen, Kenneth Jacobson, Edwin Tolppi, Billy Matta, Verdi ~~Wxinxx~~Weirma, Wallace Buckley, Ruben Wirkkala.

Most of the boys are green but with lots of patience, hard, smart thinking, spirit and cooperation Sebeka will have a fairly good ball club.

Last Friday, January 10, Sebeka autoed to Backus where they met a scrappy band of boys who wanted to win this game from Sebeka, which they did by a score of 11 to 10. It is said that this was the first game they had won from Sebeka.

This game started out with Backus scoring first. After that basket, the boys began to play hard basketball which later turned into a knock-'em-down affair, or in other words, indoor football. But this doesn't excuse Sebeka for losing, for Backus was out to win and they rightly deserved it because they played hard.

Numerous fouls were called and Stewart and Cunningham were victims of four apiece - which meant out of the game.

Tuesday, January 14, Verndale defeated Sebeka by a score of 33 to 22. This shows that Verndale, although small, has a good, fast, and a heady team. They work together - the result is victory.

Any team, regardless of where it is from, if it has the right spirit is bound to play winning basketball.

This game was clean according to the players' standpoint. Here's Sebeka's tribute to the Verndale boys:"Good Sports".

On Saturday night, Jan. 18, Park Rapids high school took our local boys to the cleaners, or in other words, gave them a good drubbing. The score ended 33 to 16 in favor of Park Rapids.

Park Rapids drew the first score. From then on it was mostly Park Rapids handling the ball and playing a cool game.

Their floor is very big - the largest kind of a gym that can be made. It's about 56 by 90 feet. This is one reason why Sebeka had a tough time with Park Rapids.

Sebeka lost another game to New York Mills, which made it six straight wins for New York Mills. Sebeka has lost six out of seven games.

The game started out with a bang, Sebeka outplaying Mills most of the first half.

In the first quarter Sebeka had a lead of 12 to 6. Mills came right back and made shots from any place on the floor and brought the score up to 22 to 14 in their favor at the half.

The second half started out with the Mills building up their score bigger and bigger. Regardless of where they stood and shot it was a basket. The last half was New York Mills' with Haakana starring. The game ended in favor of Mills, 46 to 22.

Haakana, Winogradoff, and Thompson scored 18, 14, and 12 points, respectively. The Sebeka scoring was quite evenly divided, with Cunningham topping the list.

Last Saturday, January 25, Sebeka autoed to Hewitt, where the latter team beat our team by a score of 32 to 25.

Hewitt took the lead and kept it until the final gun was fired.

The game was rather slow and quite a few fouls were called. Sebeka had fourteen fouls and only made three, and shot 48 times for goals and made eleven for a total of 22 points,- plus three free throws made ~~24~~ 25.

For Hewitt Riggs and Fox were the point getters.

This season seems to be very poor for the boys so far. However, we're not giving up hope as there's a tournament ahead of us in February.

Last Friday, February 7, Backus came here to play a game of basketball, which was won by the local boys 32 to 8.

The game was very slow. However, it had good passing and some good shots were made.

Sebeka had some changes in their line up, with Billy Matta and Ted Siirila as forwards and Roy Jackola and Neil Cunningham as guards. This is probably the first time some have played in these positions.

Sebeka outplayed Backus in every respect, ~~which~~ which gave the boys ~~a~~ a new life, and which may mean more victories.

On Tuesday, February 11, Sebeka played the 'Nevis Giants' and lost by a score of 29 to 19.

Folks, teachers, pupils, or anybody and everybody, here's a few words: Regardless of the defeats we have taken so far, this doesn't mean a thing, because we're still going to try ~~to~~ our best, get used to each other and try to win! If we lose we have no alibies.

--Roy Jackola.

Last Thursday, February 13, New York Mills continued its winning streak by beating Sebeka by a score of 36 to 12.

New York Mills outplayed our boys so bad ~~that~~ that they didn't know where they were at, half the time.

From the looks of things, it seems as though New York Mills is the favorite of this sub-district tournament.

Sebeka should have won this game very easily, but for some reason or another, the boys were not playing the game as it should have been played and the result was 22 to 21 in favor of the Wadena "B" team.

This mades Sebeka stand now with 2 wins out of 12 games so far.

The boys have only a few games left to redeem themselves or go down with ~~a~~ the worst record Sebeka has ever had in its history of ~~g~~ basketball.

The sub-district tournament was played at Wadena February 26, 27,and 28.

In the first game which was played at 11:30 Thursday, Backus defeated Riverton in an overtime period. At 6:00 P.M. Backus played Pine River and lost by a large score. At 7:00 P.M. Hewitt defeated Pequot in a well played game. At 8:00 P.M. New York Mills, the favorites of the tournament, had to play a good brand of basket ball to beat a vastly improved team - Menahga. The score was 24 to 20. The last game for that night was between Verndale and Sebeka. Here's the story - Verndale was on and Sebeka was off and the result was Verndale 27 and Sebeka 16.

On the 27th, Pequot defeated Backus by a small score. Menahga defeated Sebeka by a score of 27 to 16. This gave Menahga and Pequot the right to play for the consolation trophy. At 8:00 Verndale defeated N.Y. Mills by a score of 16 to 13. This game was very cooly and cleanly played. It was an interesting game to watch. The final game was between Pine River and Hewitt. The result was Pine River 27 and Hewitt13.

....Here are some brief tips about some of the teams. 1. Sebeka and Pine River were the largest teams....

....In the free throw contest Herman Olson of Sebeka and Martini of Pine River were tied with 20 out of 25. They flipped a coin for first place. Martini got the gold ball and Herman received the bronze.

Sebeka High School opened its 1936-37 Basketball season by losing to Hewitt 19-17.

It was a close, hard-fought battle from the first whistle. Sebeka scored first and from then the lead changed hands several times. The score at half time wa 10 to 11 in Hewitt's favor.

M. Kern, Hewitt's center is the backbone and spart plug of the team. He scored 11 of his t eams 19 points.

Sebeka played a fighting and much better brand of ball than most had hoped for. They may have been beaten by scores but not by fight, and that's one of the important things that goes with a winning team.

* Sebeka--Wadena B

This was an exciting game. In the first half both teams fought nip and tuck, Wadena scoring and Sebeka following in quick succession. This was a hotly contested "half" both teams trying to seek an opening.

The second half told a different story. Wadena came in with a bang and Sebeka couldn't quite recuperate. The game ended with a score of 24 to 15 in favor of Wadena.

On February 5 Hewitt came to Sebeka and engaged in a nicely executed maneuver with the local boys to win by a score of 26 to 16.

In the first half Sebeka went at it with fight and precision, especially in the first quarter. From the way they went at it it seemed they believed in striking quick and fast. As the second quarter came around Hewitt was creeping ahead.

At the first quarter of the second half Sebeka was quite far behind but as the final quarter approached our team again possessed the fight they had in the first quarter and started gaining steadily but the whistle cut off their career of conquest, the score remaining 26 to 16 in favor of Hewitt.

In the first quarter Mills game went to a spurt of playing energy, making the score 8-1 at the end. Sebeka recuperated in the second quarter and tied the score which was 11 to 11 at the end of the first half.

At the commencement of the second half, both teams quite evenly matched as to playing ability, first Sebeka then Mills ahead, but the fourth quarter saw Mills attempt a new attack which was successful. The game ended 32 to 16.

The second team beat Mills second team 8 to 0. This was a fast game, the Sebeka players outplaying their opponents.

On February 9 Menahga, our traditional rival, motored to Sebeka expecting to repeat its earlier victory, only to go down in a defeat handed out by a fast and snappy purple and gold team.

The game was exceedingly rough. Siirila and Pederson of Menahga went out on fouls.

It was anew Sebeka team that greeted the spectators that memorable night - new in both fighting ability and organization. Instead of getting panicky when the other side started to score, they fought the harder.

Herman Olson was moved from his traditional position as right guard to that of left forward and Aale Wuollet played right guard and both did a good job.

Altogether it was an exciting game, full of action and just that degree of roughness that so appeals to the spectators. The final score wa 22-16 in favor of Sebeka.

Sebeka won a double-header Tuesday, Dec. 7. from Nevis in the high school gymnasium. This was victory number one for both the second and first team.

In the preliminary game the score might have been a lot bigger for Sebeka,but the local boys were missing their shots from close in to the basket. The ball would roll around the hoop several times and then drop on the outside. Sheldon Solmonson's free throw was the only point they got during the first half, while Nevis made their only basket, which gave them a lead for the first half, During the half the lid must have disappeared for Nelson connected three times, Solmonson twice, and Kela once, to give them the game 10-2.

Sebeka finally came through with two halves, put together, of basketball. They had a lead the first half but came back the second half even stronger. Nevis tried in vain to stop them and at last resorted to tackling. Mr. Weiss remarked after the game that he hadn't seen a prettier tackle all year in football. Some of the football boys, however, disagree. The reserves had some esperience in the latter part of the game and held them to seven points.

The basketball team travelled to Backus for their first game December 3, but came back with a 28-22 defeat.

The game was an exciting one, taking the spectator's point of view. The crowd was up on their feet most of the time, and at least half of them going home with a headache from hitting the ceiling too often.

The game must have gone into the driver's heads also for the shortcut they decided to take proved to be a few miles longer than the usual route.

The smallness of the court stunned the boys quite a bit, and the team, which had only one regular from last year, proved to be a lot more stubborn than they had anticipated.

The second half turned out to be a regular dog-fight, with Backus finally forging ahead, three long shots helping a great deal toward making the six-point lead.

The High School basketball team of Sebeka broke even in their recent tour, winning from Motley 35-8 and losing to Menahga 18-13.

The Junior High School whipped the Motley Junior High team 19-8. Clayton Arnold dropped in four buckets to get the scoring honors, while Clair Nelson and Donald Stoskopf each got two baskets for second place. Myrlin Pudas got his first chance and responded with a basket. Ray Jackola contributed a free throw.

In the regular game Sebeka trounced the Motley high school team 35-8, although Sebeka should have had at least three times as many points, counting the number of setups they missed. The first half especially went wrong for they only made five baskets our of about fifty shots. Four times Sebeka connected in the third quarter and then finished with 16 points in the last quarter. Billy Matta made 10 points and Ray Siirila with 8 took the scoring honors.

The double header at Menahga was split; Sebeka winning the first and Menahga the second game.

The Sebeka seconds came from behind to win, making 15 points the second half and holding Menahga to two free throws. Warren Kela with six points led the scoring.

The regualr game was typical of the Menahga-Sebeka cat and dog fights at Menahga, with Menahga forging ahead in the final quarters. Sebeka felt the loss of Bill Johnson keenly after his departure from the game via the foul route before the first half was over. E. Junis got three personals in the first quarter but he came back in the final period to help his team win. He also got the scoring honors for his team.

The Sebeka second team played a very exciting game with Hewitt seconds with Sebeka coming out on top 25-23. Sebeka held a lead of seven points at the half and also at the end of the third quarter but then Hewitt rallied to get ahead but Sebeka rallied once more before the game was over and emerged as victors.

In the regualr game Sebeka played a hard fought game although greatly handicapped by the small size of the court. A large number of fouls were committed by both teams which is very usual on a small floor and one referee cannot see all of the fouls.

Hewitt played a hard fought game also and got many shots of which they made thirteen to Sebeka's eight. Hewitt was on also on their free throws, making eleven in a row.

The game ended 37-20 in favor of Hewitt.

The Sebeka high school basketball team entertained the Wadena "B" team here Tuesday, February 8. This game turned to be another thriller on the Sebeka floor. This time, however, the local lads were on the short end of a 23-22 score. The visitors twice overcame a six point lead and added another point the second time to win by that one point.

The "B"team played the scouts and defeated them by a score of 25-9.

The teams traveled over to Nevis Friday night and brought back two victories, the "B" team winning 17-5 and the regualrs 25-20.

On Tuesday night Menahga came over here determined to duplicate the miracle of a month ago and they almost did it when their freak shot artist started to plop in baskets. He made two of them in the first half and four more in the fourth quarter. It was really uncanny the way he made them, making about six out of seven.

Menahga had possession of the ball about 85% of the time and the funniest part about it was that in the third quarter Menahga had the ball 99.9% of the time and Sebeka made six points while holding Menahga scoreless.

The Menahga crowd showed some very unsportmanship-like conduct; booing the referee and ready to murder him after the game, although he did a very excellent job of refereeing. Evidently Menahga couldn't take it. They got beat fair and square.

Menahga started the scoring and held a 4-3 lead at the end of the first quarter. The second quarter Sebeka got going a little better and got a 9-6 lead for the half. Sebeka held Menahga scoreless and the third quarter and increased their lead 15-16. Menahga came back the last quarter to tie the score at 15 all but Sebeka tallied once more to win the game 17-15.

The Sebeka scouts on the squad played the Menahga scouts and defeated the visitors 18-12.

Basketball team closes season with 9 wins and 7 losses.

Motley traveled to Sebeka for the last game on the scedule before the tournament and were decidively beaten by 41-7. They found the the Motley boys had improved a lot but as in the last game Sebeka was missing a lot of setups, although not as many as in the first game. The Junior High School gave the local Juniors a merry battle before Sebeka finally won out 23-12.

Did I hear somebody say that Verndale was slipping? Maybe they were right but they must not have slipped very far, for they were performed like state champions when Sebeka went over there with the idea of taking Verndale down another notch. Verndale completely outclassed their visitors and dominated play throughout the whole game. Weber alone scored more points than the whole Sebeka team put together. He made 24 while Sebeka made only 23; the game ending 34 to 23. The "B" team lost 23-9.

Backus high school basketball team was here on Washington's birthday with the idea of winning their first game at Sebeka, but Sebeka kept their record clean. The boys from the other side kept the score tied up for three quarters, then the local boys stalled the fourth quarter and puled up and eight point lead to win 27 to 19.

Sebeka was unfortunate on the drawing which was held at Staples February 28, by drawing the fast Pequot team, who were undefeated in conference play and were runners-up last year.

A large number of faithful Sebeka fans followed the team to Wadena and saw Sebeka give a good account of themselves and also furnishing the most interesting game of the evening.

Bill Johnson opened the scoring of the tournament with a beautiful long shot. Sebeka held a lead at the quarter but seemed to have found themselves and forged ahead to hold a three point edge at the half. Sebeka then came back again the second half and tied the score and from then on Pequot again kept the score tied until the final minutes of play with Pequot again getting ahead and winning 24-21. Only two fouls were called on Sebeka showing that they played clean ball throughout the whole game.

All-star selection from Sebeka; Bill Johnson, center: second team.

The Sebeka five copped its first game of the season by defeating a fighting Nevis team by a score of 29 to 25. The orange and balck took an early lead and held a 9 -5 edge at the quarter. Sebeka overhauled the Nevis five and forged ahead to lead at the half 21 to 13. The seond half started a scoring barage that was not stopped till the final gun. With the score 27-18 in favor of Sebeka with four minutes to go, Nevis started a one-man rally when Hedman sank four field goals in quidk succession cutting the Sebeka lead to two points. With 60 seconds remaining in the game Sebeka tallied two more points to put the game on ice.

It is more interesting to note that all of the field goals which were scored by Nevis were from behind the key hole showing that the Sebeka defense was quite effective. Our boys played quite well considering that it was their first game and the fourth time for Nevis.

Sebeka showed bits of potential power at times and we hope it will develop into championship caliber by tournament time.

Sebeka defeated Motley by the score of 43 to 10, and at not time during the game were in any danger.

Warren and Kela scored the first field goal and from then on the game was never close. Motley was weak in defense and couldn't stop Sebeka from scoring. Motley's offense was likewise weak as they tallied most of their ten points by free throws and thierfew field goals were made by long shots.

The second team game was on the same order as the first. The game ended with a score of 32 to 9. In this game Clayton Arnold went on a scoring rampage and totalled 18 points.

Sebeka downed a very scrappy Wadena "B" five 23 to 19 in the preliminary to the Marshall-Wadena game last Friday. The Wadena boys really showed their colors and fought gamely to the end. Our boys were plainly "off" as was shown by poor passing and inaccurate shooting. The purple and gold were trailing at the quarter to lead at the half 15 to 10.

Sebeka showed a good defense in the third quarter and held the Wadena five to four points, and,by sinking five points, lead at the quarter 19 to 15.

A stalling game was played the last quarter as a rally be the "B" five fell short by 3 points.

Sebeka captured its fourth straight victory in as many tries by trouncing the Backus five by a scqre of 36 to 16. Sebeka started out with a flurry of scores and the ultimate outcome of the game was never in doubt at the first quarter with the score 9 to 3.

The defense was quite effective: the Backus boys had to shoot from quite a distance. Backus had one scoring threat in Eveland who made quite a number of points on the rebounds from long shots. The game slowed down during the second period with Sebeka scoring seven points to Backus' five and lead 16 to 8 at the half. Backus came into its own during the third period and put on a scoring spell which was led by Eveland who scored six points. The purple and gold withstood the short rally and tallied seven points. With the score 23 to 14 at the beginning of the first frame Sebeka started on a scoring rampage which was stppped only by the gun. With Kela leading the scoring attack Sebeka netted 13 points in the final canto.

Bill Johnson played a very good game at center scoring 11 points. "Spike" Kela had a field day of his own and scored 10 points. The highpoint men of the night were Eveland of Backus, who scored 11 out of the 16 points made by Backus and Bill Johnson for Sebeka. Sebeka played a good defensive game on the whole with Siirila the outstanding defensive player.

The line-up included Siirila, Stewart, Kela, Johnson, McCormick, Young, Kumpula, Isackson, Arnold, and Nelson.

January 27, 1939

The Verndale game was very fast and exciting. The second team game was rather rough. The game ended with the score of 18 to 12 in favor of Sebeka.

The first team game was very fast with the Verndale players taking full advantage of all the mistakes on Sebeka's part. They cut in on Sebeka to intercept several passes. They had a very good percentage on the number of baskets made. Sebeka held them down to a point or two of their own score until the last part of the fourth quarter when our team cracked instead of Verndale. In the words of Mr. Reishus, "It looked as if Verndale was just about to crack when Sebeka did." the score was 17 to 2 30 in favor of Verndale; however, the game was much closer than the score indicates.

For once, the jinx that has occured nut during previous yesxrx encounters with Menahga was entirely wrecked when Sebeka swept to a 42 to 7 victory.

Sebeka, who wasted no time in piling up a lead, led 22 to 1 at the half. During the first quarter Menahga was held scoreless by Sebeka's staunch defense. The reserves played during most of the second half and they too outplayed Menahga by a wide margin. In the second half Menahga picked up two field goals on desperate shots and sank two free throws.

Once more Sebeka's defensive work has stood out. In their first eight games Sebeka's opposition has averaged 18 points per game. Sebeka has held Motley and Menahga to a tootal of 17 points. Offensively Sebeka has averaged 32 points per game. Their best offensive effocts were against Menahga and Motley. In each game they collected 42 points.

Perhaps the preliminary ky game x could have been classed as the thriller of the evening as the score was close all the way. In the final quarter Menahga made a supreme effort and evened the score at 18 and 18, but from then on Sebeka forged into the lead and held it until the final gun, the final score being 23 to 18.

Running their string of consecutive victories to six, Sebeka decisively defeated Nevis 38 to 22.

In their first game Sebeka defeated Nevis by four points so this time the boys outdid their first victory by defeating Nevis by 16 points.

Nevis put a good sized team on the floor, each player being six feet tall or more but they failed to match Sebeka in speed or defensive play.

Sebeka took an early lead and held it thoughout the entire game. At the half the score was 16 to 8.

Sebeka had the services of Ray Siirila for only one quarter as he had a bad ankle.

In the second half the reserved came in and they held their own against Nevis in fine style.

Once again Sebeka's defensive work has shown itself. The most points scored against them in a single game is 25, which was scored by Nevis in their first game with Sebeka.

In the Junior High game Sebeka won 19 to 11.

Once again Sebeka's defensive play stood out as they downed New York Mills in a hard fought contest.

Mills, finding the Sebeka defense virtually a stone wall, resorted to long shots from well out on the floor where they were not very successful. Only one field goal was made from under the basket by Mills. Mills tried desperately to overcome Sebeka's lead but they just couldn't make it.

Sebeka captured the lead with Warren Kela scoring the first field goal. Sebeka led at the half 13 to 5 and held the lead throughout the rest of the game. Sebeka's win marked their eighth victory against one defeat. Next week Sebeka will be seeking revenge against Verndale who handed them their only set-back.

The second team game was also won by Sebeka 16 to 14. At the half Sebeka led 8 to 1 but Mills came back determined and outscored Sebeka 13 to 8 in the last half. In the fading minute of the last quarter Mills put on a spurt that tied the score 14 to 14. With seconds to go Leo Stewart broke loose and scored a field goal that proved the margin of victory.

Tournament

Sebeka's basketball quintet emerged as victors of the Sub-District Tournament held at Washington High School in Brainerd, March 1-4.

Against Menahga in the opener, Sebeka played a rather reserved game, using substitutes when possible to save the regulars for the games to come. In the semi-finals against Pine River our boys met stiffer competition, but our defense buttoned up tightly and the boys were again victors. Pequot, on the basis of its record and smooth passing and ball handling, was the favorite, according to Brainerd sports writers, to win this tournament. Pequot, however, was somewhat bewildered after eight minutes of play to find that they had a goose egg to Sebeka's four points. In the next period the opponents earned three baskets and led Sebeka by one point at the half. The third quarter ended in favor of Sebeka, 12-9, and in the final period Pequot was held pointless, and the local lads squeezed out three tallies, to win the game, 15-9.

and

The Band a large number of Sebkans journeyed to Brainerd and helped the team achieve its honors.

A beautiful gold trophy mounted on a black base was presented to Captain Bill Johnson after the game, and Pequot's Captain was given the ball played with as his share of the spoils. The trophy was presented to the school at a special assembly honoring the basketball team.

Three Sebeka players were honored by being selected for the All Tournament Squad--Captain Bill Johnson, the outstanding player of the tournament, Raynar Isackson, and Warren Kela.

The Sebeka High School Basketball team, being winner of the Sub-District Basketball Tournament, was one of the contestants at the District Basketball Tournament held at Wadena on March 8. Crosby-Ironton defeated Sebeka 42-25 in the opening game of the tournament.

Amid the music of the High School Band and the encouragement of hundreds of frenzied rooters, the Sebeka Basketball Stars took the floor at this tournament and ended a successful season, though they were conquered by the strong range team. Fire, spunk, and determination, the qualities that make up a great team, were reflected in each of our players, but their highly polished opponents, with their uncanny shooting ability and ball handling, were in another class. The score was: Crosby-Ironton 42; Sebeka 25. The score does not indicate the real calibre of the game. Crosby-Ironton, a much larger town, was able to rest its first team and put them into the game refreshed while out boys had to fight throughout the game. We crept near the opponent's score when their regulars were on the bench.

Brainerd emerged the victor of this tournament.

The teams participating in theis tournament: Wadena, Verndale, Sebeka, Brainerd, Crosby-Ironton, Staples, Aitkin, and Little Falls.

1939-40

Sebeka high school opened its 1939-40 season with a 25 to 6 victory over Nevis high school.

Even though the score was one-sided the local team didn't look very impressive.

During the first quarter Sebeka played its best ball, running up twelve points while holding its opponents scoreless. Ray Siirila, Warren Kela, and Gordon Young did all the scoring during the first half and at the half tiem the score was Sebeka 16 and Nevis 0. Nevis had plenty of shots but couldn't seem to make them drop.

During the third quarter Sebeka's offense came to a complete halt, not a point being scored while Nevis made 4 free throws. The local team seemed content to rest on their laurels so the second team was sent in and they proceeded to pep things up by scoring 7 points. Clayton and Billy Arnold were the only two spark plugs in this spurt.

Nevis scored its first and only field goal in the last quarter with only a few minutes remaining in the game. They had tough luck on free throws, sinking four out of fifteen.

The Sebeka team has many rough spots to iron out and many mistakes to correct before they will be a threat to any team in our district.

The "B" team game was almost a carbon copy of the "A" game as far as the score was concerned. Sebeka won this one by the score of 25 to 6. It was a more entertaining game than the "A" game. Carlton Bengtson was the scoring star with 10 points, followed by Billy Arnold with 8 and Donald Stoskopf with 5.

*Sebeka-Backus Game

This was the first game away from home, and it is one of the best trips that the the team makes because they leave early in the afternoon to arrive in Backus early enough to enjoy a good dinner.

The game itself was close throughout, but the Sebeka team was fortunate enough to come out on top by a margin of nine points. No one was outstanding on the Sebeka team, but Ray Siirila was high point man with 15 points. For Backus, Green was their outstanding player with 13 points out of 20.

Sebeka High won its third straight game of the season by defeating the Wadena "B" team 32 to 7.

The opposition was weak, mainly due to inexperience. Most of the boys were freshmen and sophomores. However, the Sebeka "B" team outplayed them over half of the game.

The first half was slow as far as scoring was concerned. Wadena controlled the ball a good share of the time but as the half ended the score was 11 to 1 for Sebeka. Ray Siirila tallied nine of the eleven points scored by Sebeka.

The reserves played most of the second half and the improvement they had made was quite noticeable. Richard Weappa, Carlton Bentson, Donald Stoskopf and Billy Arnold all showed signs of being good replacements for the starting five.

Wadena was held to one field goal for the entire game which speaks for itself as far as the defensive play of the Sebeka team is concerned.

The starting five composed of Clayton Arnold, Ray Siirila, Gordon Young, Clair Nelson, and Owen McCormick played good ball. Siirila led the scoring with thirteen points while Young was second with five.

The Wadena line-up is incomplete because of numerous substitutions near the end of the game.

Sebeka's high school basketball team continued its winning streak by whipping Hewitt last night Tuesday night on the opponents' floor, 36 to 18. This was the fourth straight victory for the gold and purple warriors and also the first time in five years that they have won over Hewitt on that floor.

It was by far the best game the boys have played this season. C. Arnold and Siirila were outstanding at the forward berths, each making ten points. Young, McCormick, and Nelson scored heavily, too, and held Hewitt's offense from their guard positions.

In the preliminary Stoskopf rang up eight points, B. Arnold five, and Bengtson five to swamp the Hewitt second team 18 to 4.

The game at Nevis, Jan. 12 10th, our first game after the Christmas vacation. The boys had very little practice between the Hewitt game and this one; therefore, everyone was skeptical about the results, even though we had beaten Nevis 25-6 in the last game of the season.

At the end of the first quarter there was cause for being doubtful of a victory because the score was tied at 6-6. At the half the outlook certainly wasn't too encouraging. The score was 13 -12 in our favor.

However, our boys came through with a 3rd quarter spirit making the score 22-17, which turned out to be enough of a margin to win because Nevis outplayed us the last quarter 6-5. This made thefinal score 27 to 23 in Sebeka's favor. Both Ray Siirila and Clayton Arnold shared high-scoring honors with 10 points each.

The Sebeka second team won 22-10.

Last Friday night some of the worst and best basket ball of the season, for the Sebeka high quint when they romped over Motley 35 to 10, thus inaugurating the school's new scoreboard in an auspicious manner.

What is commonly known to most fans as the first team started the fracas and luckily made a basket to Motley's one in the first quarter. With it looking like a duplicate of the nip and tuck affair with Nevis Wednesday night, Coach Leonard Reishus benched the regulars and played his second team. They played a much better brand of head's -up ball and scored two baskets to bring Sebeka's tally to 6. But in the meantime, Mosher, a sophomore Motley player was having a night for himself by his flashy driving and shooting and was chiefly responsible for bringing their score up to 9.

After their shameful display in the first quarter, the first team started the second half and then the fireworks began. Owen McCormick sunk two successive baskets and then Clayton Arnold proceeded to go on a one man scoring spree and before the game ended he had sunk ten baskets for a total of 20 points. Ray Siirila made two baskets and a free throw to being the tatal scoring for the second half to 29 while Motley was able to collect only one free throw.

The game showed conclusively what the local team could do if they wanted to, but it also showed them to be over-confidant and cocky which is the downfall of many a good team. Maybe the boys have learned a lesson.

Too much credit can't be given to Ronald Stoskopf, Billy Arnold, Carlton Bengtson, Douglas Johnson, and Richard Weappa for the fine game they played and the fight they showed the first team as well as the spectators.

Tuesday the Sebeka high basketeers rang up their seventh straight victory in as many tries when they swamped Pillager's inexperienced team 44 to 7. The second team also winning but in a closer one, 27 to 10.

Pillager is again playing ball in an auditorium constructed recently after a lapse of twelve years. Their boys have plenty determination and fight and showed excellent spirit throughout though they were losing their third successive game by a wide margin.

For Sebeka Clayton Arnold and Ray Siirila were the scoring thrust. In the preliminary Billy Arnold, Donald Stoskopf, and Arleigh Becker looked good. Stoskopf leading with points made.

Sebeka high school hung up its eighth straight victory Friday night when they defeated Backus 32 to 14.

The game started out fast with Sebeka scoring first and never giving up the lead from then on. The score at the end of the first quarter was 12 to 2. A peculiar thing about this quarter was that each starter scored one basket and Ray Siirila scored two. During the second quarter Clayton Arnold found the basket hit twice while Billy Arnold and Siirila each hit once. Clair Nelson sunk a free throw and the half ended with Sebeka leading 21 to 8. Backus scoring some on field goals by Bundy and Kimball and free throws by Hopkins and Noble.

The second half seemed to be the turning point as far as excitement was concerned because the lead was gradually lengthened until at the end of the third quarter Sebeka had built it up to 27 to 10.

Sebeka's second team played all of the last quarter and succeeded in outscoring Backus 5 to 4. Donald Stoskopf was responsible for all five points on two field goals and a free throw.

Backus was without the services oftheir captain and star, Pat Greene, and this undoubtedly had a direct bearing on the outcome of the game.

Sebeka high school was still undefeated after playing their friendly rival, New York Mills, but only by the narrow margin of two points. The final score was 17 to 15, and only for a short time in the fourth quarter was the lead more than two points by either team.

Sebeka was clearly outplayed the first half but their shooting average was better than the Mills and that enabled them to stay right on their heels. The first quarter ended 3 to 2 with Mills leading. Free throws by Arnold and McCormick were all that Sebeka could count. In the second quarter scoring speeded up on both sides with Mills making seven points to Sebeka's six. Siirila got two and Young one field goal. This left Sebeka on the short end of a 10 to 8 score at the half.

Sebeka clinched the game in the third quarter when they outscored their foe 7 to 3. Field goals by Siirila, Young, and Nelson, plus a free throw by Arnold gave Sebeka a 15 to 13 lead with the last quarter coming up.

The lead was stretched to four points midway in the fourth quarter on a basket by Siirila and Mills came back a short time later to sink one to close the gap to 17 to 15 and this is the way it ended.

Siirila's eight points lead the Sebeka scoring with Young next with four. Hannon and Keskinen were the threats for Mills with the former bagging 6 points and the latter four.

In the B game Sebeka also eked out a 15 to 13 victory. The B team is without the services of two of its star players, Billy Arnold and Carlton Bengtson.

Sebeka's winning streak was stopped cold last Tuesday evening when a team of good ball handlers, speedy players, and good shots came over from Verndale and swamped the local high school team 39 to 13.

It was easy to see that the local five were in for a bad evening shortly after the game started. Shots that ordinarily would drop didn't. Passes were intercepted or dropped if they did find the mark. It was a team that had a bad case of "jitters", while Verndale played headsup, aggressive ball and were especially hot on their shooting. Sebeka is not that bad nor is Verndale that much superior.

The loss of Young on fouls early in the first quarter was a big blow to the hopes of the team, but the way the visitors were playing they weren't to be denied that night.

Sebeka was held to the lowest score in years while it was the first time an opponent ever scored thirty or more points in the new auditorium.

For Sebeka Stoskopf and Nelson turned in the best games while the entire Verndale team showed up well.

The "B" game was a real thriller with Sebeka coming out on top 18 to 15 in an overtime game. The score was tied 15 all in the end of the regular game so a "sudden death" overtime period was played. This means the first team scoring two points wins the game. In the overtime period Donald Stoskopf gave us a point lead and then Arleigh Becker came through with a field goal to give the local team a three point lead and the game.

Sebeka climbed back into the win columns once more by defeating Motley 34 to 18 at Motley. The Junior high team, playing its first game of the year, defeated Motley's Junior high 18 to 11.

In the feature event the boys played a steady game all the way through as the scoring indicates--8 points the first quarter, 7 the second, 9 the third, and 10 the fourth.

There was no one really outstanding for Sebeka although Clair Nelson played a hard driving game and led the scoring within ten points with Young right behind with 9 points.

Sebeka never was in much danger, running up an 8 to 0 lead ~~in~~at the quarter and stretching it 15 to ~~8~~ 4 at the half. ~~A~~ The end of the third quarter found the lead increased to 24 and 11 then the final of 34 to 18.

Motley has shown marked improvement in the three years since they began playing basketball. They are handicapped because of the lack of a gym but have done remarkably well with the facilities they have.

Local basketball fans witnessed one of the most exciting games in history when Sebeka high school deafeated New York Mills high school 29 to 27 in an overtime period. At the end of the regular game it was tied up 27 to 27. With less than a minute to go Sebeka was four points behind and then Nelson came through with a basket to close the gap to two points. A few seconds later McCormick fouled a Mills player and they elected to take the ball out~~x~~ of bounds instead of shooting so they could stall the remaining 12 seconds. They were unable to so and,with about three seconds remaining,Ray Siirila sunk the basket that tied up the ball game. A "sudden death" overtime was played with the team scoring two points first declared the winner. Once again Siirila came through~~x~~ with a basket, this one winning the game.

Sebeka's uncanny shooting from the free throw line kept them in the ~~xx~~ ball game. Out of seventeen attempts, thirteen were successful, Siirila and Arnold both getting 5 out of 5.

Sebeka was ahead only once during the whole game and that was in the early part of the first quarter. Mills soon took the lead and,at the end of the first quarter, were leading 12 to 4. Sebeka closed the gap during the second quarter and at half time the score was 18 to 13 with Mills leading. During the ~~third~~ third quarter~~x~~ Sebeka crept up to within one point but the Mills spurted and led 25 to 18 with one quarter remaining. Mills was held to one basket the last quarter while Sebeka collected nine points, enough to tie up the game.

credit
Too much ~~xxxx~~ cannot be given the Mills team.. They are clever ball handlers, exceptional shots, and play a fine floor game.

Sebeka's biggest asset was fight, and the found the "never-say-die" spirit sometimes brings rich rewards.

The "B" ~~xx~~ game was an unusual affair. The local team lost its first game of the season 25 to 22 after being behind 18 to 4 at the half. The third quarter found them outscoring Mills 21 to 1 to bring the score up to 3 points of the visitors. The last quarter was pleyed even up, each team getting six points. It was mostly a case of overconfidence and not wanting to work for victory.

Sebeka and Menahga high schools split a four game series played during the past week. Saturday, February 10, Sebeka split a doubleheader at Menahga, the "B" team losing 22 to 17 and the "A" team winning 40 to 25. In two return games played here Tuesday night the outcome of both games was the same as before, the "B" teamx losing 25 to 19 and the "A" team winning 37 to 12.

In the feature games Sebeka played good ball both nights. The passing, ball handling, and team work was better than it has been but the shooting, especially on set-ups continues to be below average.

In both games there must have been close to fifteen set-ups that were missed.

Ray Siirila was the leading scorer of both games, getting 18 points at Menahga and 20 at home. Good passing and a lot of "feeding" by his team mates was responsible for most of Siirila's chances, but he is the best shot on the team.

Gordon Young played a fine floor game both nights, getting most of the rebounds besides bagging twelve points, ten of them in the first game.

McCormick and Nelson,while not doing any heavy scoring did good defensive work and set-up many shots for the other boys.

The "B" team has lost its last three games by close margins. The loss of Billy Arnold and Carlton Bengtson for the last five or six games has undoubtedly made some difference. Billy is lost for the season but Bengtson should be back soon.

Sebeka's high school basketball team smashed a winning streak that carried through thirty nine consecutive games without a defeat when they defeated Verndale 30 to 27 in a thrill packed game. The "B" team lost a tough one 9 to 8.

It was a game that found Sebeka getting a tough break even before the game got under way. Ray Siirila accidently ran into McCormick's elbow causing Ray's eye to swell shut so rapidly that he missed the first half and part of the second. When he did get in,however,he sparked the team with three baskets the last quarter.

To pick an outstanding player would be hard because the team played as a team and all of them played fine games.

Stoskopf, after playing part of a preliminary, was suddenly called on to take Siirila's place and game through in fine style.

Arnold bagged three baskets due to some nice faking and ball handling, McCormick, ~~Keqn~~ Young, and Nelson played beautiful defensive games besides getting their share of the points. Nelson led the scoring with 8 points, followed by Young with seven.

The game was fast and clean all the way. The fans were treated to some sensational shooting on the part of Anderson, Verndale forward. He dropped in three consecutive shots from deep out on the floor and one over to one side. Ryder, the other Verndale forward, was always a threat.

The victory leaves Verdale and Sebeka tied for first place in the sub-district, each having won seven games and lost one.

Sebeka defeated Pillager both games of a double-header here last Friday by a 40 to 8 and 17 to 13 for the "B" team. Both games were poorly played but the "B" game was the more exciting due to a close score.

In the main attraction, Pillager started out as if they were going to take the local team and at one time held a 5 to 2 lead. This lead was soon erased and after that the outcome never was in doubt.

Pillager scored three baskets and two of them came in the early part of the first quarter. During the last half Pillager failed to make a single point while Sebeka scored 18.

Siirila led the scoring for Sebeka with 10 points followed by Arnold and Stoskopf with 6 each.

Young came through with another strong defensive game besides leading the attack.

Sebeka high school wound up the best basketball season of the history of the school when they defeated the Wadena "B" team here Monday night 36 to 26. It gave the local team a record of 17 wins against one loss.

It looked bad for Sebeka in the opening minutes of the game because Wadena, led by Krisler, held a ten to six lead at the end of the first quarter.

During the second quarter Sebeka got going a little better and outscored the visitors 8 to 2 to bring the score to 14 to 12 in favor of Sebeka. The feature of this quarter was McCormick's long shot that swished through the nets just as the horn sounded for the half.

During the second half Sebeka strengthened its lead all the time, outscoring Wadena 22 to 14.

Free throws ~~kaldp~~ helped ~~Wadena~~ the Sebeka cause to the tune of 12 points.

The scoring was quite evenly divided with Young leading with ~~12~~ 10 points, followed by Siirila with 7. McCormick turned in a nice defensive game besides bagging 5 points.

~~The scoring~~ Krisen, Wadena forward, capped scoring honors for both sides by getting 8 field goals, good for sixteen points.

The preliminary was played by boys out for basketball, but not on the ~~regular~~ regular squad.

At the sub-district tournament at Wadena we played New York Mills and we beat them 33-0. The next night we played a rangy Pequot team. The boys played a hard driving game and we won 33 to 22. In the finals we lost to good-shooting Pine River team 37-24.

At the district tournament at Staples, the boys lost to a classier team.

The school spirit was excellent all yaar. Ardele Pearson, Gladys Isackson, and LaVon Stelck did the cheerleading with plenty of pep.

Miles Matta and his assistant Phillip Miller served as very efficient ~~managers~~. managers.

Sebeka won its third straight game of the season last Friday by defeating Park Rapids 27 to 22. The "B" team also won by the score of 22 to 13.

The feature game was a thriller from start to finish. Sebeka took the lead at the beginning of the game but lost it shortly afterwards and it wasn't until a few seconds before the first half ended that they home team went into the lead by the score of 13 to 12. The first quarter was 8 to 5 for Park Rapids. Clayton Arnold, Billy Arnold and Carlton Bengtson were ~~fix~~ the scorers for Sebeka during the first half.

The third quarter saw Sebeka's lead grow to four points and then began the final quarter where each team put on a little extra pressure to try and win. Clair Nelson and Donald Stoskopf chose this half to do their scoring aided by a basket from Billy Arnold and a free throw by Clayton Arnold. Stoskopf sank two nice shots while Nelson came through with three baskets and a free throw.

Park Rapids did not hit too well on their long shots or the story might have been different. Harris was the big gun on the opponent's team. He is exceptionally fast and a good shot as shown by the fact that he collected eleven points for high scoring honors of the evening, Smith collected seven.

For Sebeka Clayton Arnold had eight points, Nelson seven, B. Arnold, Stoskopf, and Bengtson four apiece.

In the preliminary sixteen boys were used and eight boys entered the scoring list. Hyrkas led with six points followed by Pudas and Anderson with four apiece. Ehnert, Sassen, and Wetter each scored two and Johnson and Aho came through with free throws.

In a poorly played game on Tuesday night, Sebeka won its fourth straight victory with a 20 to 7 win over Pillager.

Pillager played a stalling game hoping to draw the draw the Sebeka defense out until the local team was forced to play a rushing game to get control of the ball. The first quarter ended 2 to 0 in favor of Sebeka. The second quarter was to a great Extent a repition of the first and at half time the score was 7 to 5 with Sebeka still in the lead.

The seond team played most of the second half and seemed better able to score against Pillager's defense. Billy Arnold led the Sebeka scoring with eight points on four field goals all scored in the second half. Sebeka was very weak on free throws sinking but two out of twelve shots.

Pillager was held to two field goals and three free throws, six of the points coming in the first half and one in the last.

Sebeka was definitely off on their game. Whether it was over-confidance or an off night is a question. It is certain however that if the boys continue to play like that after the holidays they will never win another game.

Sebeka's victory string was snapped last Friday night by a fighting Park Rapids team, the score was 17 to 15, and it just about tells the story.

Sebeka never gave up and when the final whistle sounded Sebeka was desperately trying to tie up the ball game.

The game was typical of the one played here earlier in the season. The biggest lead either team had was two points. Sebeka enjoyed a two point lead with about four minutes to go but Park Rapids tied it not over five seconds later. With seven seconds to go Harris of Park Rapids shot from the side of the floor and almost at the middle. There wasn't much arch on it but enough to go through and win the ball game.

This same Harris was the outstanding player on the floor. He is exceptionally fast and is good on defense as well as offense where he led both teams in scoring with seven points.

Sebeka led 2 to 1 at the end of the first quarter, 9 to 8 at the half. It was tied 13 apiece at the end of the third quarter and then wound up 17 to 15.

Sebeka played good ball and it was just a case of who happened to get a break at the close of the game.

Scoring for Sebeka was quite evenly divided. Clayton Arnold led with four points followed by Doug Johnson with three and Donald Stoskopf, Billy Arnold, Carlton Bengtson, and Clair Nelson each got two.

It was a tough game to lose but the boys should not be discouraged, but make up their minds not to lose any more close ones.

The "B" game was a real thriller, it being an overtime game. At the end of the regulation game the score was tied 16 to 16. In the overtime Chester Hyrkas came through with a basket that won the game. Fourteen players saw service for Sebeka in this game with Pudas, Hyrkas, and McNurlin turning in good games.

Sebeka high school took it on the chin for the second time in a row Tuesday night when Verndale came through with a 28 to 23 victory. The "B" team also lost a close one 9 to 5. Free throws was once more the main factor in both losses. The "B" team making one of eleven tries while the regulars could only sink three out of 11.

The feature game was close all the way although Sebeka was never ahead until the latter part of the fourth quarter. The boys could hold it however but it was anybody's game up to the final whistle.

The first quarter ended eight to nine with Sebeka on the short end and at the half time it was sixteen to thirteen with Sebeka still trailing. Doug Johnson was the boy who kept Sebeka in the ball game by getting six points the first half aided by four from Clayton Arnold, Two by Billy Arnold and one by Stoskopf.

The third quarter was a toss-up, both teams netting four points while in the last quarter Sebeka was outscored eight to six.

Douglas Johnson was Sebeka's leading scorer with a total of eight points besides playing a nice defensive game.

It was a tough, hard game getting a trifle rough at times but an exciting game all the way. All Sebeka can do is to make up their minds to even the score when they play the return game.

The Sebeka basketball team lost a hard fought game to Staples B by a 33 to 23 score last Friday, February 14th.

Sebeka started out strong in the first quarter, with a lead of six points. This lead, however, was soon overcome and Staples held a 10 to 8 lead at the end of the first half.

The Sebeka team suffered a letdown in the third quarter, which undoubtedly won the game for Staples. Due to the large floor, Sebeka played a tight, defensive game around the basket, forcing the Staples team to shoot many long shots of which a fair percentage was made.

At the endof the first half Sebeka led 14 to 12 on a basket by C. Arnold in the last few seconds.

Sebeka was held to one point in the third quarter at the endof which Mills was leading 19 to 15.

In the fourth quarter Sebeka was rewarded in their efforts to overtake Mills. With the score tied, C. Arnold again came through with a basket that put Sebeka ahead 23 to 21.

Sebeka high school split a double header with Menahga Friday night, the seconds winning a thriller 19 to 14 while the regulars were swamped 35 to 18.

Menahga came down with one purpose in mind, and that was to beat Sebeka on its own floor. Menahga has won very few games at Sebeka but they weren't to be denied this night.

They started right out from the first whistle and never stipped until the game was over. Menahga at one time held a 10 to 0 lead over the locals and at the first quarter it was 10 to 5 in favor of Menahga.

The second quarter saw the lead grwo still more for the visitors and when the horn spunded for the half Sebeka was behind 19 to 8. Junes, Menahga forward was the big threat for the opponents, scoring 9 points in the first half.

The second half was almost a repition of the first although Sebeka played better ball. Junes kept up his hot pace by singing 5 baskets and a free throw for 11 points the second half and a grand total of 20 points for the evening.

At the end of the third quarter the score was just doubled 26 to 13, and finally wound up 35 to 18.

In spite of the big difference in score it was an exciting game. Sebeka had almost twice as many shots as Menahga but they didn't go through while Menahga was hot both from the field and free throw line. They made 7 out of 8 free throws and 14 out of 36 shots from the field.

Sebeka was eliminated in the first round of the sub-district tournament, losing a 30 to 29 heartbreaker to New York Mills Tuesday evening.

Sebeka made a stong fight and deserved a victory as much as the winners but it wasn't in the cards this night. The locals missed some set-ups and so did the winners.

Mills drew first blood in the game that started out slowly but gained momentum as it went along. Both teams seemed to respect each other and were taking no unnecessary chances. The first quarter ended 9 to 4 with Mills in the lead.

Two and one-half minutes later the ball game was all tied up and for a short time later Sebeka went into the lead for the first time. The victors then began a drive that lead to a 17 to 11 lead at half time, that looked pretty big to the local rooters.

The third quarter was all Sebeka's outscoring Mills 10 to 5 and making the score 22 to 21 with the opponents still leading. It began to look like a Sebeka victory but the last quarter was dead as far as scoring was concerned, each team bagging eight points. Mills protected its one point lead and now meets the winner of the Backus-Verndale game.

Clair Nelson, Sebeka guard, was the scoring star of the game, bagging twelve points on four baskets and five free throws. He played a strong defensive game along with his scoring. Clayton Arnold turned in one of his best games, driving harder than at any other time. He was forced to leave the game on fouls in the last quarter, which was a break for Mills. Bengtson came through with a fine game,getting eight points while getting his share of rebounds. Billy Arnold totalled six points with five of them coming in the last half when Sebeka really needed them.

All in all it was a real thriller for the crowd and the first interesting game of the tournament.

Sebeka high school closed its season with a 36 to 16 victory over Motley high school last Friday.

It was a pleasing victory because most of the boys played good ball and had considerable more fire and pep than for quite some time. Substitutions were used quite freely, giving some of the boys valuable experience.

The game started fast as far as floor play was concerned but it was quite a while before Sebeka scored its first basket. After the first one the rest came faster and at half time the locals led by an 18 to 2 margin. Billy Arnold had one field goal while Clayton Arnold and Donald Stoskopf each had 2 baskets and a free throw, Carlton Bengtson had 3 baskets.

During the second half Motley came back and played much better ball scoring fourteen points to Sebeka's eighteen.

Hays, Motley guard, was the scoring thread, getting two field goals and sinking five out of six free throws.

Bengtson was the chief scorer for Sebeka, getting a total of twelve points, followed by Clayton Arnold who scored seven.

May 8, 1935

The hottest kittenball race of the school history started with a bang last Friday. Benhard Siirila's team beat R. Jackola's by a score of 7 to 6. Quite a few errors marked the smoothness of the game.

Lewis Doty's team beat Marion Wilson's by a score of 4 to 1. Billy Matta's long homer helped to win the game.

On Monday,Lewis' and Wilson's teams played again in which Wilson's team won, the score being 3 to 2. Doty pitched strike out balls - getting 15 and still his side lost. Tough luck. The teams now stand like this:

Touchball tournaments have been completed in the boys' physical education classes this week.

The purpose of teaching and playing touch-football has been promarily to give the boys a taste of the whole~~some~~ competitive spirit which is characteristic of all team games, and also to have each boys learn the ~~fundam~~ fundamentals and skills that are performed.

Progress was very noticeable. The scores of all the games improved as the tournament progressed. One score was recorded to be 92-84. That's real evidence of an effective passing attack for both teams. Minnesota and Michigan can't boast of such ability!

The championship ~~x~~ teams for the Monday Wednesday classes were Harry Isackson's team which made an average score per game of 38 points against their opponents' 24 point ~~av~~ average, and Murlyn Pudas' team which made an average score ~~of~~ per game of 8 points against their ~~opponents~~ opponents' average of 3 points.

The championship teams for the Tuesday-Thursday classes were Albin Nikkari's team which rates a 50 points average per game with a strong opponents' average of 48 points, and Donald Stoskopf's team which ran up a 14 point ~~advant~~ average ~~ave~~ against their opponents' average of 12 points.

~~With~~ ~~Markinsen~~ ~~and~~ ~~Ruff~~ ~~as~~ ~~hitting~~ ~~stars~~ ~~for~~ The teack squad has been working out daily in preparation for its first test of the season which will be Friday, ~~of~~ May 3, at New York Mills.

This meet is for the smaller schools of the district and should be well represented.

About twenty five boys have been working for places on the team but ineligibility on the part of a few has cut off some good prospects.

It looks like Sebeka's main strength will be in the field events and not so much the running events. Ray Siirila has been doing quite well in the shot and discus along with Gordon Young. Ray White is the best high jumper at present, but Howard Loija is close behind. Paul Johnson seems to have the edge in broad jumping.

In the dashes it's quite close between Paul Johnson, Ray Siirila, Merlen Tellock, Verne Johnson, Albin Nikkari, and Jack Graba. Jim Graba has the outside track on the one-half mile run but Richard Kumpula has shown up quite well in practice. Merlen Tellock, Ray White, Arleigh Becker are trying hard to learn the art of running the hurdles.

Other boys not mentioned are close behind. Many are out for the first time and can't be expected to do too much the first few weeks, but are making steady progress.

Ray White's high jump was five inches higher than his best previous jump. Ray White won a silver medal and a bronze medal for his work in the high jump and high hurdles, while Ray Siirila won a silver medalfor second place in the shot.

Next Saturday these two boys will represent Sebeka at the regional track meet in New York Mills. To gain this honor one must place first, second or third in the district meet.

April 4, 1941

A very pleasant social time was had at the school auditorium Tuesday evening when the Sebeka Commercial Club entertained the lettermen of the Sebeka high school football and basketball squads. This is an annual affair and is looked forward to with keen expectation of a good time by both lettermen and the business men.

Vies Martinsen presided very capably as toastmaster and called upon several business men and members of the teaching faculty for brief remarks. Several instrumental numbers were given by students of the school during and after the banquet and group singing, lead by H. C. Hultgren, was also enjoyed.

Supt. W.C. Larson introduced Mr. Warren Kash, coach of the St. Cloud Teachers College football and basketball teams, who made the principal address of the evening. Mr. Kash held the close attention of those present and brought out very interesting points in school athletics. His talk was very much worthwhile.
