Re: Speech collection

This box has speeches the Ambassador wanted saved. They are the drafts he used with personal markings on many of them. They are generally in order, with many "undated" at the end. (If the packers were not breathing down my neck I could ascertain most of the dates from the MAC file list at the beginning...)

A complete file of speeches that were saved on the MAC is boxed separately. You will find two binders with a full collection, a second copy of the collection (unbound...), and a set of three discs.

I hope this helps. The binder is the complete collection, but he also wanted his personal copies (bold type and all marked up) for history's sake.

Best wishes.

Re: Speech File

Attached is a list of speeches and remarks that we have on the computer. We will provide this on disc, and organize one set into a binder for you. Please let us know if the type-set at the yellow tab is large enough for the printed copies.

There are many shorter remarks saved as well. Should we file them separately or include them in one large binder -- arranged chronologically?
