

COPY.

August 10th 1895.

E. T. Nichols
27 Pine Street,
New York.

For Jacob: Shawl assam apologetic toward scorching briefless high steamer transept deflections on heliout obviously churchyard and give torpedoes overdo toothed structure liables orphan show furniture and engraved outlining do not change disfigurement overthrow allay torment conclusible routings which they husky assent wander under the padded churchyard and its antechambers canvasser adownson orphan smoky footing of fact tower assent recreative tripped department torment conclusible in any symbol involving toothed rapidity in addition to simp sports ceremonials they coasting sophistry atchison smoky furniture fissile restrains unfurl showy unfurl as quite indelible pottle animalize monongahela conclusible

COPY.

walker vicious valuable strutting outlying funeral eight valuable strutting transept funeral three apolo-ue furniture I think we are recurring scandalized in depend tragedy prefatory indelible architective ceremonial smaller in the valuable strutting cluck crossness shawl Lewis honest outlying orphan torment leading libelled indelible valuable strutting shaving and with ripe faintness indelible desbytery.

Jan. J. Hill.

August 10, 1855

S. P. A.

For Schiff-and ~~Saint~~ Edward ~~and~~ have spent these days on the Northern Charter and give their opinion that the State laws of 74. and 81. ~~do not affect the~~ ^{change the} ~~rights of~~ ^{or diminish} the Camp ~~rights to~~ ^{are that} ~~the~~ ^{which they hold} ~~under the~~ original Charter and its amendments by Act of 1855. ~~and that~~ In fact they are ready to defend the Company in [August 10, 1873]

2

any suit involving that question. In addition to Simpson's case, City Smith v. Atchison, ⁶⁴ Federal Reports ~~64~~ 272 as quite in point. Also Monongahela Co.
vs. United States, 148 U.S. 343 & 4.

I think we are reasonably safe in defending this position in any case brought in the U.S. Circuit Court

H. A. Senator Davis is one of the leading lawyers in the ~~Senate~~ United States Senate ~~and has been~~ and with ripe experience in ~~the~~ practice