

NO 15 BROAD STREET,
NEW YORK.

New York, 13th. November, 1895.

JAMES J. HILL, ESQ.,

29 Pine Street, City.

My dear Mr. Hill:-

Expecting your arrival I have detained Mr. Charles C. Beaman, who otherwise would have left the City with his family for the South. He desires to meet them as soon as he has had an opportunity for a conference with you regarding the receivership affairs, with which he is particularly charged.

As soon, also, as it can be arranged, I beg to suggest that we have a conference with Mr. Morgan regarding Northern Pacific affairs.

Trusting that you have come here quite well, and congratulating you upon the successful outcome of your last contest with the labor union, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Edward D. Adams
