Dear sir:-

I have your favor of the 21st, inst., relative to the Pearsall case. The Attorney General notified me that his brief would be finished today. The defendant has until the 30th, under the stipulation (not until the 25th, as I have erroneously stated in my previous letter) so that the briefs will be on their way to Washington early next week, and thinking that you would desire a memorandum of the cash expenses at this end, I enclose you a statement, showing a balance of unpaid expenses of $180.72. Most of this is for printing briefs and the rest for clerk's and marshal's fees.

Yours truly,
Henry J. Horn

Henry J. Horn, Esq.,

Dear Sir:

Yours of the 26th of November was received in my absence, and I now hasten to send you a check for One hundred and eighty 72-100 dollars ($180.72), the balance due you, per your enclosed bill.

I am gratified to learn that the Briefs are probably now in Washington.

Yours very truly
Jacob Halstead
