April 16, 1896.

Henry J. Horn, Esq.,

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 8th inst. was duly received, but, on account of sickness in my family, I have been unable until now to write you, and I now take pleasure in enclosing you my check for Five hundred dollars ($500), in payment for the balance due Judge Young for his services in the Pearsall case. Kindly send me a voucher therefor.

I congratulate both yourself and Judge Young for the able manner in which this case has been conducted from the start, and I assure you it is very gratifying for my client, that he should at last be successful in the Supreme Court of the United States. Hoping that the future may bring us into relationship again and in something which may be equally successful, I remain

Yours very truly
