Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 17th inst., duly came to hand, enclosing your check for $500, for balance due Judge Young in the Pearsall case, which I endorsed over and transmitted the same to him, and expect to receive his receipt, which I will send you in due time.

I am very glad of your satisfaction with the conduct of the Pearsall case on our part, and shall be glad of any opportunity to be of service to yourself or your clients.

Yours very truly,
Henry J. Horn

Received April 20th, 1896, per hands of H.J. Horn, five hundred dollars, balance due me in full for professional services in the case of Thomas W. Pearsall vs. Great Northern Railway Company.

$500.
