J. J. Hill Esq.

De Sir:

As I am thinking of leaving the City - and have a very valuable print of Cully's - "The healing up of an Indian Camp" I desire to sell it -

Mr. H. M. Rice suggests that your taste was very fine for such pictures and I should give you one opportunity of seeing it - Of course its intrinsic value is, that such printings are fast becoming extinct.

I have been requested to permit it to go to New Orleans - and an effort is to be made to sell the State, but I prefer disposing of it more privately -

Very respectfully
J. P. Thompson
