

Dear Mr. Hull,

I have come to bid you goodbye, as I go home c 1 20 - & to ask you to bring all possible pressure to bear on the democratic party - from the head to the foot - to help in stopping the pourbores of silver at once - within a week after meeting - Nothing can do the whole country so much good as give the country so much fresh capital (that is real money)

²as such a course - & rather can make the monetary conference do its very best ^{toward} some good & prompt action -

On the other side no other course is possible, if we wish to avoid disaster ~~no~~ no sensible foreigners will ^{invest} send money here, for investments, so long as we keep on the purchase of silver -

I think you can do much

& I hope that you'll try your best

It is ^{not} a party question, but a national question -

3

I believe that the gentleman of whom I spoke to you would make an excellent Sec. of the Treasury.

If you are going to stay longer,

I may see you again.

& if I can help in any of their matters, I am ready -

Y

W. L. Garrison
