

(Copy)

January 15th, 1893.

George A. Brackett, Esq.,

Minneapolis, Minn.

Dear Sir:

I have received your letter of the 9th inst. When I saw you, there was nothing in my mind of the plan proposed. Harrison, Farrington & Co's property, like the brick block, has a mortgage ahead of it, and I would be behind too large an amount of first mortgage. I desire to do anything I can to help you, as you know, and nothing would please me so well as to have the entire amount paid, to which end I would be willing to waive a large portion of the interest past due.

I am just leaving for the Pacific coast, to be gone two weeks.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) Jas. J. Hill,

F.E.W.