Mr. James J. Hill,
 Saint Paul, Minnesota.

My dear Sir:-

After talking with you on Saturday last, the 14th inst. I consulted our resident Directors, and they all approved of your suggestion to hire Mr. McChesney for the position of Assistant Treasurer. Mr. Macgowan wrote him immediately, and I enclose his reply.

I knew that you were absent from the City, and I expect to leave for the East this evening, and knowing the interest you have taken in Mr. McChesney, I write to tell you of his declination, and to ask if you have any other person in your mind that would answer for this position, to please communicate with our Mr. Macgowan,

Yours respectfully,

Walter P. Warren
 PRESIDENT.
