IN REPLY QUOTE NO. 305

Chicago, Jan 22nd, 1893.

James J. Hill Esq.,

President Great Northern R'y.,

St Paul.

My dear Mr Hill:

I am leaving tonight for the west to be gone a month or more, part of the time it being my intention to spend in Southern California. I was in hopes to have seen you before I went away, but am unable to do so.

I write this now to express the hope that I may see you in Southern California while I am there. I am sure that a little rest would be good for you, and I regret to say that I find my health in such a condition that a few days of rest seems to be absolutely necessary. As you are aware, if I can add anything to the comfort of yourself and your family in taking you out and bringing you back it would be a gratification to me to do so.

Yours truly,

A. Manvel
President.
