

J. J. Hill

Helena, Feb 3/93

Have just sent following telegram to Haggin: "Senator Cullen from Dawson Northern Pacific conductor ~~is~~ voting, and ~~working~~ ~~for~~ for Clark. Senator Hoffman from Bozeman, and ~~Thomas~~ whole delegation from that County doing the same. Dickinson interviewed Senator Gorman at Missoula, and appealed to him to vote for Clark, and after he voted for Dixon telegraphed him from Tacoma.

Dickinson's chief clerk was here yesterday and stated it was the wish of President Oakes, Mellen, and Dickinson that he change his vote ~~for~~ <sup>from</sup> Dixon, <sup>to</sup> off Clark or anybody else. These are statements of fact. I would like to have permission to publish that Northern Pacific is making bitter fight against Dixon. Can I do so? Could drive Northern Pacific out of Butte and Anaconda, so their business would amount to nothing.
