SENATE CHAMBER.

HELENA, MONTANA, Feb. 5 1893.

Dear Mr. Hill,

I received your message authorizing me to make a proposition to this Legislature. I found the offer into the Senate, but the constitution was so strong in that body, that my offer was not considered.

The Senate voted to scatter the institution but we may possibly be able to defeat the plan in the House.

Mr. Daly showed me your despatch, last evening advising him that Conrad had been let out. I am very glad this action came so swiftly, as he richly deserved it. I have never seen Mr. Daly feel quite so well over anything, as did last evening after receiving your message.

The Senatorial deadlock continues.

I think Mr. Daly's and Mr. Dixon's plan will try in a short time to publicly name a list of Democrats, any one of whom HELENA, MONTANA,.....1893.

They will be willing to support for Senator.
Then, if Mr. Clark is not willing to unite upon one of them, upon his shoulders will rest the responsibility of a Republican Senator. - I am anxious that this proposition shall be made good.

There will be a heavy loss of cattle.
I think, but our ~~other~~ interests will not suffer much. -

Very truly yours,

Paul Gibson.
