James J. Hill, Esq.,

St. Paul, Minn.:

Dear friend: Under another cover I send you a copy of one of my books, entitled, Brief Essays upon Two Dozen Topics of The Times. I desire to circulate 500 copies of this book gratuitously among the people, by mail and other wise, and I appeal to you for fifty dollars to assist me. The importance of the subject or subjects is my only apology for this appeal.

Yours friend

Geo. J. Webster.

I have not the funds.
