

National League for Good Roads,

45 BROADWAY.

New York, Feb. 14, 1893.

Dear Sir:-

You are earnestly requested to interest yourself in the above League, the advancement of which is not only for your individual good but for that of the whole country.

We should like you to become a Patron or Founder of the League, but should you not care to contribute that amount, any subscription, no matter how small, will be most thankfully received.

The National League for Good Roads is at present entirely dependent upon voluntary contributions, but hopes and confidently expects that in the very near future, the receipts from the State Leagues will fully cover its expenses.

It is absolutely necessary that the League shall have abundant funds in hand now to carry on its most important educational work, for the popular interest, so widely awakened, is constantly calling for the publications and advice.

Yours very truly,

S. S. Howland, Chairman,
J. M. Waterbury,
Aug. T. Gillender,
Winthrop Chanler,
Wm. H. Rhawn,

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

NOTE.—Patrons of the League are those contributing $100 or more.

Founders of the League are those contributing $10 or more.

The National League for Good Roads is not a political organization.

It is in no way affiliated with any party.

It is not interested in any particular form of road improvement nor in any road material.

Its name does not act as a cover to Construction or other Companies.

Its objects are :

To combine, as far as practicable, the efforts of all persons now engaged in the work for road reform.

To awaken interest in the subject among the people at large.

To receive, discuss and publish any well-considered plans for local, state or National action or legislation.

To urge and assist the passage, by State Legislatures of any proper bills tending towards road improvement.

To aid in providing for a proper Road Exhibit and for free instruction in road-making at the World's Fair in Chicago.

To establish the League on the broadest possible basis throughout the country, so that its influence may be of weight in any direction in which it may ultimately be thrown.

To obtain and spread among the Local Leagues, and generally, full information regarding recent legislation for road improvement and its practical operation in the various states and countries.

To obtain and publish full information regarding methods of road building as practiced in various parts of the United States and foreign countries.

To procure and furnish to Local Leagues, at reduced prices, all valuable publications on the subject of roads and road legislation.

GENERAL CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE NATIONAL LEAGUE FOR GOOD ROADS.

Checks Payable to
WILLIAM H. RHAWN, Treasurer.
