[FORMERLY CALLED MINNEAPOLIS HARVESTER WORKS.]

St. Paul, Minn.

February 15th, 1893.

Mr. James J. Hill,

St. Paul, Minnesota.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to a conversation had with you by the writer some time ago, concerning the stock of this Company, which was offered for sale, we hand you herein a letter received to-day from Fitz Gerald & Smith. May we say anything to them on your behalf?

There are two or three little lots of stock which have been for some time offered for sale. We think if one of these was picked up, that the offers would cease.

Yours respectfully,

Walter A. Wood Harvester Company,

P. S. Macgowan
General Manager.

McKibb:

I shall run the risk of censure in whatever form it may come by saying to you that several adverse reports have reached me touching the management of this Company's affairs, and I consider it my duty to say so as a word of caution about taking any more stock.

Very respectfully,
W. A. Stephens
