

COPY.

February 24th, 1893.

Hon. W. N. Roach,

Larimore, N. Dak.

Dear Sir:-

I have a note to-day from Mr. Jenks, saying that you would be in St. Paul on Monday next, and wished to see me. I should have left for New York this evening, but for Mr. Marvel's death, and now expect to be there on Monday. I will stop at the Albemarle Hotel, which is across the street from the Fifth Avenue, and our office is No. 40 Wall Street, over the Manhattan Bank. I will be glad to see you there.

Yours very truly,