SENATE CHAMBER.

HELENA, MONTANA,

March 1

1893.

James J. Hill Esq.
New York

Dear Sir: I wired you yesterday regarding the same proviso to the Munton civil appropriation bill, and expressed the hope that you would telegraph Senator Hoffman to sustain the action of the Senate in rejecting the proviso. After sending the message to you, I asked Maj. Maginnis to telegraph Senator Hoffman on the subject, which he kindly did, making his message very strong. I hope that your message as well as that of Maj. Maginnis reached Washington in due time and that they have had the desired effect.

Yours very truly,
Paris Gibson.
