Dear Sir.

Your letter of March the 4th is at hand. in regards prices of Flour & Cornmeal I have frequently inquired the price of flower and Cornmeal, from other dealors and they asked more then I was paying.
according to Mr Flynn's Bills he has a net profit of from 3 to 8¢ pr hundred on Corn meal. and he says he cant better hit now Flower has droped 25¢.

a sack for the month of February & 10 C. for March so that will make flour 2.25 pr sack for February and 2.15 for March.

this price is for the Cheapest grade.

I have not bought any thing this month.

I will ^{wait} your instructions.

Please let me know what to do.

I remain your most Obedient Servant

Dear Sir

The children are quite well, and all is moving smoothly as far as I am able to see, I am very sorry the letter was not answered, this I do not understand, but will see that is not repeated

Mr. J. Hill,

St. Paul, Minnesota.

Dear Sir: I have a great desire to have my art students see your pictures.

Perhaps a dozen girls will accompany me if I take the trip.

Will you be willing to allow me to bring them to see your pictures?

I have so little opportunity to show them anything in art, that it will be a very great help to them and true.

They gained so much by a visit last year to Mr. Walker's and Mr.

Lowry's.

If convenient for you, I should like to take them, Thursday, March 17.

Yours truly,

May D. Burrows
