Dear Sir - A competent Insurance man assures us the point you make in yours of the 2nd regarding the error in general description of "form" on RRR will amount to nothing so far as validity of the policies is concerned. However to make it dead sure we have amended the forms as you suggest, and enclose them herewith. We also enclose receipt for check. Please accept our thanks. We remain

Yours very Truly

*Mr W. A. Stephens City
Sir.*

In reply to yours of 3 inst. will say, if any orders were issued to the railroads, to deliver Mr Hill's freight to us, the railroads would have them in their files. We hauled a large part of the material that went into Mr Hill's residence, but I believe the consignments were, generally, to the Contractors. Our collector supposed we were still hauling anything consigned to Mr Hill especially when the expense bill was placed in our box, with others, for our customers. - We regret the occurrence and have notified our collector to take up no freight bills for Mr Hill, without orders from you

Yours truly
