W. A. Stephens, St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir: I will be obliged to draw on the Minneapolis Trust Company for $500 to-morrow, to get through the month with.

What do you think of the idea of dropping the Monday edition and running only six days in the week, same as the Grand Forks Herald does?

Very truly yours,

Geo. K. Shaw.

St. Paul, Minn.,

Dear Sir:-

Will you please give me price and terms of payment of E 1/2, NE 1/4, Sec. 23, Town 140, Range 44, in this county. I have an application to purchase it. I suppose you will allow the usual commission on such sales, viz: five per cent?

Yours truly,

Mr. S. S. Breed,
St Paul Minn

Dear Sir;

I address these few lines to you hoping you may think them worth considering. I wish to find out something about taking a claim in the Sisseton reservation and as I do not know much about such matters I apply to you: my father and other relatives have bought land of you and always met honorable dealing, and I would rather apply to you than any one I know.

If you can give me any information I will pay you for your trouble and be very thankful besides.

Do you think the land is good, and which <sup>part - or parts</sup> is the best for farming.

The papers stated there would be an allotting agent - do you think that will be so or not.

Please reply as soon as possible. Keep Yours

John White
Guard at Prison Stillwater Minn.

I shall ~~keep~~ any communication
I receive from you strictly secret - and please put - Prison on envelope as I have namesakes in town.
