Jas. J. Hill Esq.,
Of St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir:-

We beg to acknowledge receipt of the two little Troyons and the Boudin, which arrived in good order this morning.

Would you please let us know when you desire to have us ship your pictures to St. Paul.

We hope you will come and see that beautiful Delacroix, "The Lion Hunt," about which we spoke to you; it is almost the same size as "Les Convulsionnaires of Tangiers," and would make a beautiful companion picture to it.

Yours very truly,

André Delacroix

Mr. J. J. Hill-

Dear Sir-- Received
pass this morning, for which please receive my Thanks. You did not mention the money that I wished to borrow from you, to start in business, I had picked out my goods, and
was waiting to hear from you. There is no other milliner in the town, and I am sure I would soon be able to repay you -

with what interest
you would think was right, Mr. Hill would help me if he could but collections were very poor - Please let me hear from you - I am about crazy don't know what to do -

Yours Truly
Miss Jennie Shaw
