Dear Sir:-

If you have no objections, as fast as we collect any money for you on account of the notes which ^{you} ~~we~~ have deposited with us for collection, which you have taken of the Commercial Bank of St. Paul, we would like at date of payment to credit to your account such amounts as we may collect, and advise you through our collection department of the payment, instead of drawing a Cashier's check each day to your order, as we have done in the past. In mentioning this I will say that the reason that I prefer to credit these amounts to your account is to get an additional record on our books of the amounts that we collect for you, and not with any intention of not making immediate payment to you. I would like to have our deposit ledger show a complete record of each collection that we make for your account on this lot of paper and you can check the amount out of us each day as we report it to you if you so desire. Please advise me.

THE ARGUS

FARGO, N. D., May 28, 1892.

W. A. Stephens, St. Paul.

Dear Sir: Enclosed find a circular issued by the P. P. announcing a reduction of price. I do not see how The Argus is to maintain its circulation with the Forum on one side at $4 per year and the big St. Paul and Minneapolis papers on the other side at $1.50 to $2 less, and the Grand Forks Herald at $3 less. So firmly am I convinced that my suggestion of dropping the Monday edition and making the price $6 per year for six days is the right one to pursue, that unless I hear from you to the contrary I will on the 1st of June make the change. You can telegraph me if there is not time to write. I believe we can get on a paying basis sooner under the new policy.

Very truly yours,

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY.
