W.A. Stephens, Esq.,
57 Great N. Ry. Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

Dear sir:--

Your favor of the 28th received and contents noted. We regret to learn that you are disposed to think that we have not treated you fairly.

Hereafter, if you will give us a chance, we will be glad to quote prices on any article in our line in competition with any first class house; and now that the season is almost at hand for purchasing bulbs for winter and spring blooming, we would like to have a list of your wants in that line, so that we could quote you special prices. Our trade in this class of goods is very large, both in the eastern and western states, and we will guarantee to furnish an article that has no superior anywhere.

Respectfully,

Grand Trunk Railway of Canada.

Dear Sir -

Allow me to avail myself of an introduction to you some years ago, by our Mr.
Wainwright, to introduce my son Williamton Walker
a graduate in Mining Engineering.

He has already been mentioned to you, I believe, by Mr. Stephens.

He wishes to begin his business career in

You great Northwest mining region - and will inform you as to his college training
and out-door experience.

If knowledge, accuracy,
and industry are elements
in success, I feel that,
when his foot is on
on the ladder, his success is assured.

Believe me,

Yours very truly,

Edw. Warner

You say that I am strong and healthy.

You also asked why
I don't finish any thing

I have not done anything satisfactory since I had the grip 3 years ago.

My ambition is now to buy 6 acres of land near here - at $3000 and try to raise my family on it

I need a horse and a cow and to build a stable and improve the house - will you help me?
