Dear Sir:

Your's of Aug. 4th. is at hand and noted. Our intentions in the matter, ^{of Public Library} were to get the movement fully organized in the Club, and start the campaign in the fall. We have a club membership of about 800, and I think if we get all our plans arranged, and make it a popular subscription, getting everybody interested, we ought to be able to raise two hundred thousand dollars, making a thorough canvass of the whole city, getting subscriptions large and small.

Yours truly,

J. A. M. G. G.

My dear Mr. Hall.

I am very sorry to tell you that your good friend, and my best one, my father, has broken down again as he did in '84.

I have him here at my house, quite under my wing in a comfortable cottage which he shares with his nurses and our ever-faithful Bridget.

The doctors do not give me much encouragement, because of his age and previous infirmity. His prostration compels him to entrust all his business to me.

He is able to walk over to my own house some 100 yds from the lodge, and to examine the alterations, also to take half an hour's drive once or twice a week. Such a champ from the time of his trip to Buffalo Lodge Lake might well call forth an exclamation from good old James -

If my father should grow much better or worse I shall let you know. His present attack is now of about two weeks duration. It was brought on by the sudden disappearance of Mrs Choppin, his Sister, while staying at our house in W. V.

An intimate friend of ours. whose father's name is perhaps not unfamiliar to you. Mr Justus H. Schwab. the manager of the Wadsworth S Co in New York wishes me to ask your opinion of the ability as a financier and banker, of his reputation and general standing of Mr John T. McChesney
formerly of South Dakota and now of New York.
Any information you

[8-6-92]

as confidential and will be gratefully received.

With very kind regards to Mrs Hill and your family

I am very truly yours
