Dear Mr Hill.

An acute attack of bronchitis & asthma has compelled me to leave & I go to Colorado Springs tonight & without seeing Mr Stevens about the land transfers. I suppose he has not yet returned. The deeds have been executed some in trust, but have not yet been examined and accepted - I can transfer at any time to you, but it seemed necessary to close the matter up. Of course it is expected that the stock will be turned over when they have completed their part of the contract. (or they need it to reorganize) but perhaps you can wait. I am too much exhausted with this infernal disease to write at length, but I want you to come out of the deal whole, if it takes my interest

 to make it so, and that shall be the case in the end. We have altogether some $27,000 worth of land ⁱⁿ of which you $10,000 my $7,000 &
~~the~~ ~~the~~ other parties ^{to the amount of} $10,000 are represented.

Yours Very Truly

P.S. If Mr. Stevens will write me at Colorado Springs I will explain anything
 he wants to know about the transaction.

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY LINE.

After transmitting telegrams which in their judgment would have served the Company's interest if sent by train mail, or which appear unnecessarily long, operators are required to make a copy of them and forward to Superintendent of Telegraph. Operators will write all telegrams in ink, and enclose those for delivery on trains (except to trainmen) in sealed envelope.
