my dear Mr Stee,
Mr Thasch
& I had a most delightful & successful trip into Montana the past summer, & indeed I have only returned to New York a couple of weeks ago. We had first rate hunting & found the country interesting, even beyond our hopes -
We both feel that we owe much to you

kindness & advice, & look back with the greatest pleasure to the day we spent in St Paul.

I spent a night with Mr Dwight's family, a few days ago at Muncie & enjoyed greatly talking over the Northwest with him -

With kindest regards to your family & many thanks for your kindness of last summer

Very sincerely yours

Dear Sir:-

I beg to hand you here with copy of statement received from Mr. Skinner showing account of sales of the last lot of $25,000. Pacific Extension bonds. You will note charges for Jan'y 6th, in this account regarding which I made a memorandum on the statement. I have not a copy of Mr. Skimer's accounts before me by which I can check these items, but I do not think that they have ever been included in his accounts prior to this date. You have all his accounts before you and by looking them over you can see whether this charge is correct.

Yours very truly,

Asst. Treas.
