Dear Sir:-
I have for several years worked part of the Brins land near the City. I would like to rent part, or all, of it, if it is for rent, summer fallow part, of it, crop part of it, and put about from 30 to 50 acres in Potatoes every year. If I should get the land, I will bring it in good condition, and I will satisfy you as a tenant, and as to myself I refer you to Mr. Cornstock & White.

Yours respt.
M. A. Nannebohl.

Dear Sir:

I beg to hand you herewith statement of your account to date, with vouchers so far as I have them. I will take care of the payments due by you to-morrow on the new Collateral Trust bonds, but have not decided yet just how I shall provide the funds. Your interests, however, will be thoroughly protected, and I will advise you later what I do.

Yours very truly,

My dear Sir:-

If you will notify me when you will be in your St. Paul Office. I will go there and see you: As we are jointly interested in the Broadwater Group of Claims in Herbert Montana: I think it would be well if we got together and conceive some plan whereby we can realize something out of the property - At present it is of but little value to us -

Yours Truly
