NEW YORK, Nov. 1, 1892.

A contract has been executed (and a copy filed with the Secretary of each of the above-named Clubs) by which the three Clubs agree to pay, on or before February 15th, 1893, the aggregate sum of \$300.00 to EDMUND SNOWDEN for operating a mail and express stage daily (except Sunday) each way between Snowden and Poplar Branch during the months of November, December and January. This charge of \$300.00 is to be apportioned among the three Clubs pro rata, according to issued memberships—i. e.: N. I. C.,  $\frac{2}{7}$ ; C. S. C.,  $\frac{2}{7}$ ; P. I. C.,  $\frac{1}{7}$ ; and L. H. C.,  $\frac{2}{7}$ . In case any shipment of game, freight or express matter exceeds 600 lbs., SNOWDEN is to collect at the time, one cent per lb. on such excess from the Clubs exceeding their pro rata proportion of 600 lbs. In consideration of this contract, members are urged to patronize conveyances which will be run by EDMUND SNOWDEN when required. Seats should be secured several days in advance, and the fares to be paid by members, guests and employés of the first three Clubs have been fixed as follows:—

For one passenger .....	$4.00	} And 50c. for each trunk.
two " .....	6.00
three " .....	7.00
four " .....	9.00
five " .....	10.00
Light House Club, same as usual.

Each Club should provide a pair of small mail pouches (with duplicate keys) distinctly marked.

Letters and express matter should be prepaid and addressed to the Club,

SNOWDEN, Currituck County, N. C., and to avoid twenty-four hours' delay in Norfolk, letters in addition should be distinctly marked across the end, "via Norfolk & Southern R. R.," and so mailed as to reach the New York General Post Office not earlier than 7.30 A. M., nor later than 1 P. M. In uptown Districts, mail 1 to 1 1/2 hours earlier.

There are two through routes to Norfolk and Snowden. The 8 P. M. train (daily except Saturday) Penn. R. R. (through Pullman Sleeper) via N. Y., Phila. & Norfolk R. R. "Cape Charles Route," due at Norfolk about 9 next morning. Connections now surer than Bay Line.

The 2 P. M. train (daily except Saturday and Sunday) Penn. R. R. via Baltimore "Bay Line," due at Norfolk at 8 next morning. Staterooms may be secured at 287 Broadway, Office Bay Line. The Norfolk Southern train leaves Norfolk & Western Depot in Norfolk promptly at 9.20 A. M. (daily except Sunday).

Baggage should be checked through to Snowden. Passengers take Transfer Omnibus in Norfolk.

Respectfully submitted by the NARROWS ISLAND CLUB.

Mrs. James J. Hill:

Dear Madam:-

The package shipped to Louis on the 19th Septem. appears to have been lost in a wreck East of Chicago the night of the 20th, and if you will kindly have prepared a list of the articles contained in the package, showing the value thereof, we will make claim against the Express Company.

Please return to me the enclosed papers with the list in question, and oblige,

Very respectfully,

Priv. Sec'y.
