Mr. J. J. Hill,

Dear Sir,

I have a picture representing Rebecca at the Well which is very old having been worked in the year 1748. The characters and scenery are embroidered in silk, an art that is not produced in these days. The work is first class in every respect and at a distance looks like a painting.

Hearing that you are collecting paintings I thought a work of this kind might also interest you. I am desirous of selling but shall be pleased to show it though you do not care to purchase.

Respectfully

Chas. A. Follett.

Dear Mr Hill, I am home for a few days but go to New York to consult a doctor soon. Will it be convenient to have your Secretary come over one day this week to make such inquiries as he desires about the Dakota land & conclude as to its disposition?

If he cannot come I will try to come over there, but I am as desirous of keeping as quiet as possible.

I was very much grieved to find mention of you in the Tribune of a sort which I had forbidden long ago. Upon inquiry

I learned that the articles were printed while Mr Hamilton the Managing Editor was sick & away without Mr Murphy's knowledge. The new man - called in on the instant - did not know of our personal attitude toward you & hence the trouble. I regret it very much indeed.

Yours very sincerely
Arthur A Rice
