File No. 1736 ✓

Nov. 7, 1892

Hon. J. J. Hill,

St. Paul.

My Dear Mr. Hill:-

I see that our mutual friend, Donnelly, says in case he is elected, he is going to have yourself, Senator Washburn and myself behind the bars at Stillwater. I hope you have sufficient influence with the warden and other officials, so we can get cells near one another, in order that we can have the pleasure of one another's company occasionally.

Yours very truly

Chas. A. Pillsbury
