James S. Hill Esq St Paul Minn

Dear Sir. I must confess to great disappointment and Chagrin in not receiving any answers to my letters regarding the Contract between us. for an Engine. which was made and delivered. and set up at very large Expense to us. in St Paul. up to date I have received but one reply. to my letter stating the matter would receive close attention. but ask it I must earnestly. and respectfully ask for your reply. so I may know just what you intend to do with us in settlement of this vexatious matter. I feeling I can rely upon you being just to us. in its final settlement.

I am with yours respect yours
