Boston. Nov. 13 '92 -

Dear Mr. Will, I've been thinking over the position of Mr. Cleveland, which is almost unique, & which gives him such a chance as fallen to the lot of very few - I feel a great wish to help him to success, & this success depends greatly on his advisers -

You are the only man whom I know well, that gets near to him - too near a minute - John Dunning Adams would be a great ^{help} to him, & would serve him as few men can -

John is 59 years old, vigorous in mind, body & spirit, decided in his views, not a bit afraid of responsibility, or of speaking out his views -

At the same time while bold, he is not rash & considers when any matter of importance is before him - His chief characteristic is common sense of large kind - very rare common sense - He is loyal & brave & steadfast, has plenty of tact, is much used to large affairs, & is thoroughly versed in public affairs, a first-rate presiding officer & a real democrat - He is very dull & prostrate company for any one - I've known him since we were eight years old, always seen him off & on, have agreed & disagreed with him - & held him in the

some high esteem - During the past year we have sat for weeks months side by side on the Rapid Transit Commission of this city & worked very hard & long - He has usually presided & received the hundreds of citizens of all degrees who had objections to offer - & always with success & kindness - He chiefly wrote the report which is admirable -

If I can guess at Mr. Cleveland's nature, I can say that John Adams is very like him in many ways - What the nation likes in Mr. Cleveland, are the characteristics of John Adams, & Mr. Cleveland could not fail to like & to prize him - & in him he would find a most valuable aid -

I am not writing you all this on my own individual opinion ^{alone}, but as that of the best men here - regardless of party - John has not been in the swim, so far as public affairs go, because he is not ambitious & is busy with his own affairs - public & private - There is no democrat here or republican either, who is ^{the} _^ equal for a cabinet officer - &

I hope that you will say this to Mr. Cleveland - who by-the-way is a distant relative of mine - If we are to have such an administration as we need, & 2 - & as I believe we are, we shall be the better for it - & it would be a great pleasure to strengthen the hand of our chief - He has been chosen because of the high regard in which he is held by men - for his honesty of purpose & his courage - & his readiness to take the place on his own terms or not at all - He has no rewards to give to any one - & it is just as it should be -

Forgive the letter & its length -

I want only the good of the country, & to that ~~man~~ Mr. Cleveland comes next - Yours truly

J. F. Hull Esq. Henry L. Burgeson

Mr James J. Hill
Dear Sir -

Having been a recipient of your kind consideration I find myself turning to you again for assistance. & would beg leave to say that Capt. Drueham & his wife, my daughter nee Elizabeth M. Champlin, are extremely desirous of getting an appointment for their eldest son, Cass, to the Military Academy at West Point.

Capt. Drueham has never had the pleasure of meeting you owing to the fact, that ever since his residence in this city, his physical disability locomotor ataxia rendered and it is impossible for him to get about without assistance, having become disabled by a railroad accident, while on duty under orders to suppress railroad riots in 1877-

I know the number of applicants will be, & are numerous & but one can secure the prize, & that one who can be found with the power that he - consequently I am confident any assistance you will render, will be of inestimable value -

Now I certainly where & where I might see you in person I would do so, but knowing the demands upon you I have ventured to take this method - With kind regards E. S. Simpson -

The appointment desired is the Presidential appointment to be made next June for the following June -
