J. J. Hill, Esq.,

St. Paul, Minn.

Permit me to call your attention to the enclosed letter from Mr. Listoe, touching the "Nordvesten."

I am personally acquainted with young Mr. Listoe, and know him to be a worthy and faithful young man. I am not personally acquainted with Mr. Wist, the editor, but know of him through the columns of the paper, and from what I can see in the paper, I judge he is a fairly good editor -- as good as can be gotten under ordinary circumstances.

I entirely concur in the views expressed by Mr. Listoe, and commend the same to your favorable consideration. You need not return the enclosed letter, but keep it for future reference, if you desire.

Yours truly,

En. --

Kunze Nelson

My dear Sir:

Though a little in advance I feel safe in tendering you my congratulations, as it appears is settled beyond dispute, that you will be triumphantly elected Governor of Minnesota. By this I will bid you good bye, as I leave for my post in Germany tomorrow night.

The "Nordvesten", in which I know you take an interest, will for a time at least be left in charge of my nephew Fred. Lister, who will manage the business, and John Wirt who will be the Editor.

What Mr. Mills' future intentions with the paper is, I do not know, but I hope he will leave it in charge of these two men. Good men for such positions are hard to find. I have labored hard to make the "Nordvesten" something of a success and give it a standing among our people as well as among the Americans. I am vain enough to think, that I have succeeded to some extent, and I take interest enough in the paper - though I now leave it - to see it continue as a factor in the politics and development in this State. I know of no better men to continue my work than the men now in charge of the paper; you know them too personally, and if you share my views - as I think you do, - I wish you would encourage Mr Hill to retain them permanently, if you have an opportunity to do so.

With kind regards.

Very Truly Yours
 Soren Christen
