Mr. J. J. Hill,
St. Paul, Minn.,

Dear Sir:-

My brother, W. G. Conrad, had a conversation with you in St. Paul in reference to yourself and Mr. A. H. Wilder taking some stock in the Conrad National Bank of Kalispell. We have organized with a capital of $100,000. The bank starts out with $96,000 on deposit; in addition to this, Conrad Bros, whom the bank succeeds, have time C/D out for $30,000, which the Conrad National Bank will get as they mature and are brought in for renewal. I would like to have you and Mr. Wilder take $10,000 worth each. Please let me hear from you if you are so inclined.

Yours Very Respectfully,

C E Conrad

Dear Sir:-

In answer to your request for information regarding material furnished us by the Accumulator Co. of Philadelphia, we received from them the following:

30	15	L. Resistance Cells,
40		Glass Jars,
10	40	Ampere Ammeters,
2	400	"	"
1	150	"	"
4	150	Volt Volt-meters,
2		Equalizing Switches,
3		" Coils.

Of the above the following are at Mr. Hill's house:

30	15	L. Resistance Cells,
8	40	Ampere Ammeters,

[See also C. B. Totman to W. A. Stevens, Nov. 17, 1892]

Wm. A. Stephens, Esq.

- 2 400 Ampere Ammeters,
- 2 150 Volt Volt-meters,
- 8 Equalizing Coils.

The following are at the Great Northern:

- 2 40 Ampere Ammeters,
- 2 150 Volt Volt-meters,
- 2 Equalizing Switches.

The Glass Jars are about equally divided between the two plants.

The 150 Ampere Ammeter we have here in stock.

The 15 L. Resistance Cells are really not ^{to be} considered batteries at all, since the plates do not contain any paste. These are used merely as resistance and their place could be supplied, if necessary, by resistance composed of wire.

If the above information is not sufficient, we will endeavor to furnish you with what you want on request.

Yours very truly,

Dr Sir Ed Friend

Last Saturday I was informed that the Furniture of the Grand Pacific Hotel is to be sold at Auction, thinking it would benefit your Road to keep the Hotel open I have worked to get a man to run the Hotel and buy the furniture. I find the proper Man in Mr St Cautiony who has sufficient Cash to buy the Furniture and renovate the Hotel and furniture and open same in good shape, I am informed Mr Stevens can ascertain what rent you want - and I wish you would see Mr Stevens so to avoid the Auction Sale of Furniture. I went through the house to day from Cellar to Garret with Bruns and Cautiony and if your people will give Mr Cautiony a Show the Hotel will run. I prevail on Mr A. D. White and the Receiver to write to Mr Stevens so to get action at once. Mr Bruns leaves this eve for St Paul and you also see him. With best greeting I remain

Moorhead, Minn., Nov 14 1892

Mr Stephens
& Dear Sir,

Mr A. Cantigny of Fargo who has for many years kept a Second Class, though popular Hotel & Restaurant, has sold out, and I am informed has $15,000. to $20,000. in property and money.

He called to see me to day in reference to putting the Grand Pacific Hotel and wished me to write you, asking where & when he could see you to take the matter over.

The furniture in the Hotel is advertised to be sold by Van Nessinger the Bank Receiver on Nov. 24th, and Mr Cantigny thinks he could get the sale postponed a few days, pending

NORTHWEST LAND COMPANY.

Townsite Proprietors.

Moorhead, Minn., 189

Negotiations with you, and buy the furniture, at private sale.
He says Mr Bruno has told him that the Hotel could be rented for a period for the amount of taxes, so his idea is to get cheap rent.

I have never had any acquaintance with Mr Caulley, but he is popular with ^{the} Whiskey element & prospers, and it is probable that a man of his shape could handle the house.

Please advise me when you can see Mr Caulley.

You might get more information about Mr Caulley from your correspondents in Fargo.
