James J. Still, Esq.,

Dear Sir:

I take great pleasure in introducing Mr. F. M. Howe, of the firm of Van Brunt & Howe, architects, of Boston and Kansas City.

Messrs Van Brunt & Howe are architects of the very highest standing, having been established here in business for many years previously to their establishing an office

[See A. S. Gannett's N. Y. Herald, Dec. 17, 1892]

in Kansas City, and they have built a great many of the finest buildings in this vicinity, and I take pleasure in recommending them to you as gentlemen of the highest character and great prominence in their profession.

They have done considerable work for me personally, both here and at Omaha, and have also done a good deal of railroad work for the Union Pacific Railway Company, in all of which they have given most excellent satisfaction.

Asking for Mr. Stone
your kind attention,
I am,

Yours very truly,

W^m L. Ames

COAL.

Pioneer Fuel Company

St. Paul, Minn., November, 21st, 1892

W. A. Stevens, Esq.,

City.

Dear Sir:-

We received Mr. Hill's order for one car of grate coal for the conservatories on Summit Avenue. The young man who brought in the order requested that some be delivered tomorrow. I think we have a little on hand in our yard which we will send him tomorrow, but the balance of the order we will have to hold for a few days until we get some of this size, ^{cars} which ^{are} now on the way. If they get out of coal in the mean time, if you will advise us we will send them up some egg.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir;-

It will pay you to investigate the graves Arc lamps for use on regular Arc light, Street Railway and Incandescent circuits. We quote you the following price for single and all night service lamps.

"Graves" Arc lamps----- --$24.50 each.

These lamps are the simplest on the market, give a pure, white, steady light, are free from hissing, and we guarantee them in every respect.

We would like to have you send us a sample order, and as this price is far below what you are now paying, we trust that you will give them a trial.

We are also prepared to furnish Direct Current and Incandescent Dynamos, and Motors, also Arc Light Dynamos, Railway Generators and Supplies.

Hoping to hear from you, I am,

Yours very truly,
