FARGO, N. D., Nov. 30, 1892.

Dear Sir: Yours with regard to exchange received. I spoke to Mr. Erskine, the vice president and manager of the bank, and he said it was evidently an oversight. The bank did not intend to charge it. The blank drafts are printed "with exchange" and somebody neglected to draw a pen through the words.

With regard to new outfit, I hope a decision will be reached soon, as it will be necessary to order within a week or ten days to insure getting the new press and type in use by the time the legislature meets.

Very truly yours,

Geo. K. Shaw
