Milaca, Dec. 5th - 1892.

F. J. Hill:

Dear Sir:

Knowing that you have large interests in our town and hearing of your kindness to struggling churches I write you in behalf of our little Church. We are few in numbers and all working people. Houses being so few we were under the necessity of building a Parsonage. With a debt of $2,000.00 on the church it is a great burden upon us. If you would be kindly disposed to help us I know that the Lord would bless you. and the people would surely do so.

Were it not for our small numbers and great need we would not presume to address you. So if you feel disposed to help us, it would be gratefully received.

Yours Respy

Mrs E. A. Poole
