FOLDER NO.

JAMES J. HILL PAPERS

PLEASE RETAIN
ORIGINAL ORDER

Yale Museum,

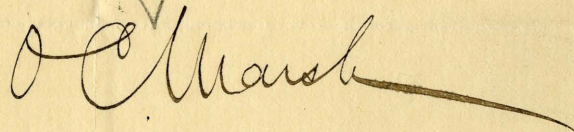

New Haven, Conn., December 21, 1892.

Dear Mr. Hill, -

The mounted specimen of the Rocky mountain goat, which you were kind enough to send me, arrived in good order a few days since, and I write to thank you most sincerely for it.

We have no specimen of the kind, and hence this will be doubly acceptable. I shall place it in the museum as a gift from you, and see that it is carefully preserved both on account of its scientific interest and especially as a <sup>me</sup>mento of your kindness.

Very truly, yours,

Dear Mr. Rice and Return that I know that you are begged every day for gratuities etc.
I do not wish to beg but ask a favor which I shall assuredly repay.

By bad luck I have gone down while you have gone up - I have lost all while you have accumulated I can rally if I had $1500 to pay off some pressing demands all small but they annoy the very life at of me. I can pay it back to you in six months and secure you by assigning a life policy - I am sure if you knew how much it would oblige me and how much good it will do that you would help me in my extremity - I know that if our conditions were reversed, I would be glad to do for you what I ask you to do for me

Very truly

Dear Sir:

When the litigation relative to the Argus was closed up Mr. Babcock instructed me to make out my bill, which I did on the 26th October, and sent same to him to be ok'd.
and passed to yourself. The amount thereof was $356.<sup>00</sup> I have a present occasion to use the money or I should not have been in so much haste to remind you of the matter. Please remit as soon as you can conveniently reach my "case".

Yours truly,
