New York,

Dec. 24th 1892.

James J. Hill, Esq.,

Great Northern Railway Building,

St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Mr. Hill:-

Our annual meeting will take place on Jan. 10th, and thinking you may leave home soon after the first of the year I enclose herein a proxy, which kindly execute and return to me if acceptable. We have generally used Mr. Moore's name but as he may go out to join you we have also inserted the name of Mr. Schley and that of Mr. Nichols so that in case of the illness of one the other could act. If you prefer to have Mr. Nichols attend to the matter for you, kindly advise me and I will inform him.

With Christmas greetings to yourself and Samuel, and with best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Wm. H. Porter

My Dear Mr Hill:

Will you be kind enough to send me a copy of the circular you sent out at the time the blocks of stock, bonds etc., were offered for the building of the Montana Central? I have a similar scheme on hand in New Mexico for another party, and the deal you had worked out so well it has occurred to me that the same thing might be done for the South.

Thanking you in advance, and with the compliments of the season,

I am,

Yours truly,

A. Manvel
President.

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY LINE.

After transmitting telegrams which in their judgment would have served the Company's interest if sent by train mail, or which appear unnecessarily long, operators are required to make a copy of them and forward to Superintendent of Telegraph. Operators will write all telegrams in ink, and enclose those for delivery on trains (except to trainmen) in sealed envelope.
