MANAGING EDITOR'S ROOM,
PIONEER PRESS OFFICECONDE HAMLIN,
MANAGING EDITOR.

ST. PAUL,

Sunday, July 4th 1893

Mr Stephens:

I am very sorry to be so slow but I have been working every minute @ the history of the road I desired to compile myself. I will try to dictate the matter I want early tomorrow afternoon & see that the book is returned during the latter part - I trust your good nature is elastic
I am very truly y^{rs}. Hamlin

Thanks for cable. Western bonds change-to sterling will take about five weeks. Montana Extensions are bid 86. Bank here wants 150,000 bonds after they have for that amount ninety.

Purchase of small lots aggregating 15,000,000 thousand will make price ninety-five, four and half Consols firm at hundred two, at which price our company will take all we have, ~~but some are~~ ~~not~~

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY LINE.

After transmitting telegrams which in their judgment would have served the Company's interest if sent by train mail, or which appear unnecessarily long, operators are required to make a copy of them and forward to Superintendent of Telegraph. Operators will write all telegrams in ink, and enclose those for delivery on trains (except to trainmen) in sealed envelope.

Say to Thomas America that if they want professed frenchman azure claw sport rundle in its present condition there is no man in the country who can do more for torment publishing than complain capacious mail. In addition to being first class reassuring libelled, his fairness ^{indelible} ~~is~~ mawkish apologue turpentine and his business ability especially fit him for the place. His integrity ~~is~~ is absolute He has never been mixed in any personal
