GRAND CENTRAL PASSENGER STATION.

COR. HARRISON ST. & FIFTH AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made whereby over 100 rooms in this elegant fire-proof building will be devoted to hotel use. This Hotel will be on the European Plan, with what is universally acknowledged to be the finest dining room in the city, attached. The rates are easily within the reach of all. Rooms handsomely furnished, with heat, electric lights, water, etc. $2.00 Per Day and upward. Meals served a la carte in the dining room at reasonable rates. The hotel will be ready for guests May 15th.

The Grand Central Passenger Station is the finest station building in the United States, its location being within three blocks of the Board of Trade ; five blocks of the Post Office and business center of the city ; being convenient to all places of amusement, and within a few blocks of all transportation lines to the World's Fair, offers to World's Fair visitors a most desirable home. Owing to the superior method of construction of depot and the location of the train shed, guests will not be in the least annoyed by noise of trains. The management pledge themselves to the patrons of the Grand Central Passenger Station, that every attention will be paid to the comfort of its guests.

Persons desiring accommodations should have baggage checked to Grand Central Passenger Station, Chicago. Immediately upon arrival it will be delivered to room. Rooms can be engaged for any period upon application.

This Hotel is under the competent management of Mr. T. C. Clifford, to whom all communications should be addressed. Office, Grand Central Passenger Station, Harrison St. and Fifth Ave. (OVER.)

THE MORGAN HORSE AND REGISTER.

[Now in press and to be issued in the spring or early summer.]

EDITION LIMITED.

The Morgan Horse and Register, Vol. I., containing history and pedigree of Justin Morgan, founder of this remarkable American breed of horses, and of his most noted sons and grandsons, and of some 4000 other stallions foaled before 1881, tracing to him in male line, and over 1000 horses registered according to the rules of the Morgan Register. Also history and breeding of old pacing Pilot, whose blood appears in so many of the fastest trotters and pacers of the country, with account of the great Canadian pacing family from which Pilot descended; together with appendix of notable trotters, and other statistics, by JOSEPH BATTELL, assisted by W. H. BLISS and P. B. STEWART—all gathered from original sources and much now for the first time published. A book of about 800 pages, printed on superior paper, substantially bound in half morocco and with numerous illustrations, including portraits from life of many leading and typical Morgan horses, at the popular price of $5, sent by mail, postage paid, to any address in the United States or Canada. Orders now received. Address,
