LETTER FROM A BOY.

DEAR MATRON: I have a nice home here. Mr. L. has pigs, cows, oxen and horses. When I came I rode a pig. Mr. L. has a horse named Doll. I ride her, and I feed the oxen hay and bed them too. We have four calves. We can see four and one-half miles away. I help draw hay and straw.

Write soon. I want to hear from you all.

* * *

LETTERS FROM PERSONS WHO HAVE TAKEN CHILDREN.

DEAR MADAM: Will you tell me how to adopt K—? We feel toward her the same as we do by our eight-year-old boy and are far more tender of her as she is a delicate child. Caring for her always, she seems so much our very own. I did not think it worth while as long as we all loved her, but I see, for her sake, adoption papers are needed. Have you a girl for me about ten years old?

* * *

DEAR MADAM: * * * is well and happy, he is very large and healthy. He is going to school, and reads in the second reader, has just begun geography and does very well in arithmetic, but spelling is the trial of his life. We think everything of him and would not part with him for anything.

* * *

DEAR FRIENDS: This is P—'s birthday, sixteen years old to-day, weighs 142 pounds, five feet nine inches high. He has attended school for two years but will never be much of a scholar. I send you his picture. We think him an indispensable personage and could not exist without him.

* * *

DEAR MADAMS: I have a nice little farm of 160 acres and have been in debt for many years. I have promised the Lord when I had my debts all paid, which I have now, that I would spend $5 for a good purpose, and as we have R— from your asylum I thought to send it there and that was giving it to God too, I thought; R— is happy and healthy; he is past seven years now; he is a bandy little boy, but not as big for his age as some boys; but thank the Lord that he is well and entertaining.

Yours truly,

* * *

DEAR MADAM: J—— is with me yet and getting along in his studies pretty well; he drew two historical maps last summer and took them to the fair and took the first prize on the same, six dollars premium. I have given him all the chance in my power to attend school; he has gone winter and summer, with the exception of one summer. If he is a good boy and does well for me I will give him a course in college; he is sixteen years old and a good trusty boy.
