AMERICAN FINE ARTS SOCIETY,

215 West 57th Street, New York.

HE Fine Arts Society has completed its new building, at the above address, and inaugurated it with a Retrospective Exhibition of works by members of the Society. On the occasion of the opening reception it entertained more than three thousand of its friends.

It is now proposed to hold a Loan Exhibition of the finest Works of Art obtainable in this and other cities, comprising masterpieces of the American, English, Dutch, Spanish, Italian, and French Schools of Painting and Sculpture; Greek Vases and Terra-cottas; Old Silver; Ceramics; Enamels; Lacquers; Fans, etc., etc.

For this purpose the Loan Exhibition Committee has been formed under the presidency of Mr. Henry G. Marquand, President of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, with whom are associated the following gentlemen:—

CHARLES T. BARNEY, Vice-President. JAMES A. GARLAND, EDWARD D. ADAMS, Chairman of Finance Committee. RICHARD W. GILDER, Chairman of Sub-Committee on Printing, Publications and Advertising. WILLIAM M. CHASE, Chairman of Sub-Committee on American Paintings. FRANCIS D. MILLET, Chairman of Sub-Committee on Foreign Modern Paintings.
Chairman of Sub-Committee on Old Masters (Spanish and Dutch). CHARLES B. CURTIS, WILLIAM H. FULLER, Chairman of Sub-Committee on Old Masters (English). DANIEL F. APPLETON, Chairman of Sub-Committee on Old Silver. AUGUSTUS ST. GAUDENS, Chairman of Sub-Committee on Sculpture. RUSSELL STURGIS, Chairman of Sub-Committee on Architecture. THOMAS B. CLARKE. Chairman of Sub-Committee on Greek Art. Chairman of Sub-Committee on Oriental Art, Por-SAMUEL COLMAN. celains, Cloisonées, Lacquers, Laces, Fans, Invitations, Etc. D. D. PARMLY, Chairman of Sub-Committee on Insurance. Chairman of Sub-Committee on Contributions to HOWARD RUSSELL BUTLER, Guarantee Fund. EDWARD HAMILTON BELL, Secretary.

To provide ample space for this Exhibition in particular, and for other Exhibitions, Mr. George W. Vanderbilt advanced the money necessary to build the beautiful gallery which, on December 30th, was presented by him to the American Fine Arts Society, and which now bears his name.

The profits of the Loan Exhibition are to be applied to the payment of the second mortgage on the property of the American Fine Arts Society; while the proceeds of the Exhibition may not be sufficient to accomplish this result, it is hoped that the amount needed may be completed by additional subscriptions to the Gift Fund of the Society. Mr. Vanderbilt, in making his generous gift, expressed the hope that the citizens of New York would come forward and assist the Fine Arts Society in the retirement of this second mortgage.

The Exhibition will be open from February 13th to about March 15th, 1893.

It is expected, from the scope and variety of the Exhibition, that this will be The Event of the Art World in this city for the coming year.

In the hope of realizing this expectation, the aid of all amateurs and collectors is earnestly requested.

N. B.—All expenses of collecting and returning Works of Art will be borne by the Committee; they will be insured at the owner's valuation, and all possible care will be taken of them during the Exhibition.
