INAUGURATION COMMITTEE,

IROQUOIS CLUB,

CHICAGO.

Answered Feb 2/93

Iroquois Club ✓

Chicago, February 2, 1893.

DEAR SIR :

It is necessary for the Inauguration Committee, before closing its contract with the Railroad Company, to know how many members expect, and are making preparations, to go to Washington with the Club on March 4th next. Every member will oblige the Committee greatly if they will make a reply of some kind upon the enclosed card and return before the 15th of February. From the list of acceptances we already have we find we can accommodate twenty-five more persons. Any member, therefore, desiring to take a friend and will send in his name with his reply, will be notified after the 15th inst. whether or not his friend can be accommodated. Expense of trip per member, $65.00. Tickets issued by the Club cover transportation, sleeping compartments in the cars, and meals while in Washington.

Any communications addressed to the Committee will be promptly answered.

Very respectfully,

OTIS S. FAVOR,
FRANK G. HOYNE,
CHARLES S. CRAIN,

Inauguration Committee.

BILL OF PARTICULARS

FOR WASHINGTON TRIP.

TRANSPOR- TATION.

THE IROQUOIS CLUB will leave Chicago Thursday, March 2d, at 2 P. M., over the B. & O. R. R., in a Special, Solid, Vestibuled, Compartment Car Train, going via Pittsburg and thus avoiding the heavy grades in the mountains.

The Club will return to the City Monday, March 6th, at 8 A. M.

SLEEPING LOCATION.

Members while in Washington will sleep in their train, which will be switched on the highest ground in Washington and adjoining a park.

HEAD- QUARTERS AND MEALS.

At the Arlington Hotel, three parlors on the first floor have been secured for headquarters, and the magnificent Banquet Hall engaged in which the members will be served with their meals.

MUSIC.

The Second Regiment Band of fifty pieces has been engaged to accompany the Club.

ESCORT.

The Club, upon its arrival in Washington, will be escorted from the train to the Hotel by the Young Men's Democratic Club of Washington.

LINE OF MARCH.

Line of march in Washington on March 4, will be from the Capitol to the White House, distance of one and one-half miles.

DRESS.

Members will please prepare themselves for the trip as follows: Dark Clothes, Silk Hat, Umbrella in Silk Case, Iroquois Club Badge and Gloves. Gloves and Badges can be secured at the office of the Club.
